Concrete slabs, two feet wide and six feet long on both sides of each stake. Ample seating capacity will also be provided with bleachers surrounding the courts.

Fellow horseshoe pitchers get yourselves all set for the big show at Moline in August. Arrange your vacations or your work so that you can attend the 1935 National. Moline is going to do her best to entertain you and make your stay here during the tournament time as pleasant as possible. We not only want you, but your families and friends to come with you. There are many things of interest to see around the tri-cities, and sight-seeing tours will be arranged for visitors.

BUCKEYE STATE HORSESHOE PITCHERS ASSOCIATION

Bulletin No. 10

The Miami Valley Horseshoe Pitchers Association comes through with 10 clubs, in addition to the Edgemont, Ft. McKinley and East Dayton clubs, the seven clubs of the old Montgomery County association teams came over into their association which includes Armco, Piqua, Westwood, New Lebanon, Ohmer Park, Southern Hills and Letz Park clubs, and are all set for a successful season playing in two groups, National and American League with a world series to determine the champion club at the end of the season. We welcome these new clubs into the state and national associations, boosting our sport and extend to each of them our appreciation and wishing them the very best of luck.

Weather conditions, etc., have handicapped progress so far in the Columbus, Springfield, Akron, Shelby and Youngstown districts but we assume all will be well a little later on.

Regarding winners of the grand drawing at recent dance and card party held by The Greater Cleveland League, of which tickets were sent out to various clubs for information of those who may not yet know the winners, they were: First, Hamilton Beach Mix-Master, Mr. Harold Gutschmidt, Cleveland, Ohio, ticket 1148; second, Toastmaster, Mr. B. Thomas, North Olmstead, Ohio, ticket 683; third, Sandwich Toaster, Mr. R. B. Howard, London, Ohio, ticket 2187; fourth, Thermex Coffee Maker, The Annas Lunch, Cleveland, ticket 1; fifth, Electric Clock, Mr. Robt. Jackson, Cleveland, Ohio, ticket 2225.

Complete information regarding the Ohio State tournament due to conflicting dates of The National at Moline, Ill., is being withheld in order that something may be done about it, if possible. While our dates winding up on Labor Day were tentatively set at close of tournament last year we shall do our best to co-operate with the National and may give our set-up before this issue goes to print, depending on action of the delegates of The Greater Cleveland League, sponsoring this year's tournament.

QUOIT PITCHING DEPARTMENT

Edited by GERALD SMITH, Wilmington, O.

OPEN TO THE WORLD

Plans are now complete by the National Quoit Pitchers Association for the first annual national quoit pitching tournament which is to be held July 21st, at Wilmington, Ohio. And what a tournament it promises to be, with quoit tossers from miles around competing for national honors for the first time. Who will be the National Quoit pitching champion? That is most interesting, and I venture to say the entry list will not be a small number.

The qualifying round of play will start at 10 a. m. A total of 100 quoits will be pitched by each contestant, from which the best ten pitchers will be chosen to compete in the tournament finals. Fifty practice quoits will be allowed before qualifying.

Entry blanks will not be used; all each contestant need do is send a card designating his intention to compete, and report on the grounds not later than 9:45 a. m. An entry fee of $1.00 will be charged each contestant.

In case of tie games, the best two out of three games will decide the positions for the first five places. Below the first five, a one-game play off.

The writer will serve as tournament manager, to be assisted by officers of the National Association; also state and county bodies.

Don't forget, July 21st, 10 a. m., at Wilmington, Ohio.

QUOITS COURTS IN HILLSBORO, OHIO

The Hillsboro Horseshoe club has some real enthusiasts in the way of pitching, namely one Charles Langley, who is instigator in the installation of quoit pegs and horseshoe pegs combined. If the pitchers tire of one game they may reverse to the other, or stage a match or contest Quoits on Monday and Horseshoes on Tuesday.

PITCHERS GREATLY FAVOR THE 40-FT. DISTANCE

Letters received by this department in the past few days greatly outnumber those received last month, by those in favor of the 40-ft. distance, with the 2½-lb. quoit. What we do want is one regulation distance and weight and size quoit, that we may have one national champion, etc.

SEND IN YOUR SCORES

Quoit pitchers send in your scores. Several match score sheets have been sent into this department, but ask that they be not published. Now, I wouldn't be ashamed of any of the tallies made.

CHALLENGE

Last month we wrote of an Alan Shefts, of Gary, Ind., who said he had been pitching quoits a long time, and would be a participant in the National tourney at Wilmington, O., and a recent letter states that not he alone but several from the northern Indiana city will accompany him, as participants. Can the boys from Tonnio Lisle, Dayton, etc., keep the title in their respective sections? The tourney will give all competitors a chance to show how good they are.

BUY QUOITS OF QUOIT MANUFACTURING CONCERNS

QUOITS IN HONOLULU

George F. Jowett, of Philadelphia, tells me that while on his vacation this spring that he witnessed quoits being played in the grass skirt island; so in Cuba and Panama. Mr. Jowett is an ardent booster of the game, probably one of the best we have.

QUOIT PITCHERS PUTTING THEM ON

The writer had the opportunity of seeing two quoit pitchers from Xenia Ohio, really putting the quoits on the stake. It is only a matter of time until quoits will be mastered as well as other games in the pitching line, and ringers and double ringers will be thrown blindfolded. Constant practice will do this. The game is some what difficult, which makes same more interesting.

COLLEGES TAKING UP SPORT

Wilmington College, Wilmington, Ohio, and Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, have included in their intra mural athletic activities the Quoit game, which has met with a great deal of interest and pleasure.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Blue Mound, Kans.

Editor Horseshoe World:

I have a suggestion that should benefit the horseshoe game on which I would like to get the opinion of all the horseshoe pitchers. I would like to have this voted on at the convention at Moline this summer. It is a known fact that there are only about four horseshoe companies that do anything to support the National association, yet there are some 50 different companies that are making horseshoes and horseshoe pitching equipment. These 46 "outside" companies are not contributing one penny to support the National association, yet they make horseshoes out of cast steel, bronze, cast iron, or malleable, and sell them as "official" at prices that make it impossible for the four "supporting" companies to compete with them. Is it any wonder that the horseshoe companies will not support the association?

Now here is my suggestion: Let's make a rule that in order to make official horseshoes or horseshoe pitching equipment, the company making same must be a member of the National association and pay his dues as stated for manufacturers in the by-laws of the National Horseshoe Pitchers Association.

By passing this resolution the 46 "outlaw" horseshoe companies would have to belong to the National association or their equipment would not be official. They have been getting a lot of benefit from the National association, now let them pay up or get out.

Sincerely
 C. E. JACKSON,
 Blue Mound, Kans.

LEO ROLLIK WINS CHICAGO TOURNAMENT

By Richard J. Phelan

One of the most successful horseshoe tournaments ever held in Chicago came to a climax on Sunday afternoon, May 12, when Leo Rollick, of the East End Horseshoe club beat all five of his opponents in the finals to capture first place and a beautiful bronze trophy.

The tournament was held in connection with the National Boat and Sport Show at Navy Pier, and was sponsored by the Chicago Evening

American. The meet was held in a natural outdoor setting, featured by exhibits of camping and fishing paraphernalia, motor boats, sailboats, yachts, sports equipment, and scenes depicting the beauty spots of various camps and resorts in Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Daily articles in the American created a great deal of interest among the horseshoe players of Chicago and vicinity and helped to swell the number of entries. John J. Hogan, tournament director, deserves a great deal of credit for his efforts to promote the game. He was ably assist-body, are meeting the demand of every class of pitchers everywhere.

All orders for "Jackson Specials" will be filled at our Cincinnati factory. Orders for "Golden State Specials," east of the Sierra Madres and Rocky Mountains, will also be shipped from Cincinnati. For the Pacific Slope, orders for "Golden State Specials" can be filled at Los Angeles.

Let us all get aboard for Moline. Some of us can hardly wait until we see the boys out there on the firing line, battling for the crown. Let us all boost—let us all help. Let every mother's son of us get behind the National Officers and the boys down at Moline and help them make of the tournament, one to be long remembered. Experience has taught us that the pitchers of the nation must be behind a movement to put it over in a creditable and successful manner.

We are on our way out of the doldrums. The way is plain to us all. As we are coming out of our Rip Van Winkle sleep, we see the dawning of a better day for the good old game of horseshoe pitching. All we need now is a Moses to lead us to the promised land.

In the dawning of this new day for horseshoes, we see the average pitcher coming into his own. In the past, we have overlooked him and given all our attention to the star pitchers, yet the average pitcher has been the real support of the game. Thousands of pitchers all over the country have entered the contest in the thousand shoes to be pitched per month for May, June, July, August and September. This contest will probably bring to light hundreds of real percentage artists, of whom we have never heard. Go to it, boys. Keep your scores correct and see that they are properly signed by score keepers.

ed by William Blair in constructing the courts, collecting the entries and conducting the meet.

The tournament was divided into four classes: boys, girls, men and women. Twelve shiny silver and bronze trophies, handsomely engraved, were awarded to the winners of first, second and third place in each division. The men pitched 100 shoes to qualify for the finals, while those in the other classes pitched 50 shoes. The highest six entered the final round robin in each class.

Gertrude Michael, 1635 Clarence avenue, Berwyn, a pretty blonde was the day's surprise as she defeated Frances Schultz, of Harvey, Ill., sister of Charlotte and Caroline Schultz, world's women horseshoe pitching champions, to win in the women's division. Miss Schultz slipped into second position and Mrs. William Blair, 952 Garfield Ave., took home the third place trophy.

In the boys' division, Fred Schacider, 14, of 4143 N. Kildare Ave., took first place; Alex Sedorchuk, 15, of 1919 Washburne Ave., second, and Edward Sell, 15, of 10813 Avenue H, Chicago, third.

Mary Ferrino, a husky girl of 14, scored over her youthful feminine rivals in the girls' finals to win top position. Mary Sedorchuk, 14, of 1919 Washburne Ave., was second, and her sister, Annie, 12, upheld the family honors in third place.

The final round of the men's open tournament was featured by some of the best pitching seen since the world tournament at A Century of Progress in 1933. The following scores made by the six finalists in qualifying indicate the high caliber of their pitching.

	R	P
Philip Greenberg	75	247
Leo Rollick	74	242
Edward Babush	75	241
Otto Fullner	75	239
Alton Wood	67	228
George Mellor	63	222

In the final round, Leo Rollick, 3327 S. Harding Ave., won all five of his games to capture first place, and Chicago pitching honors. The completion of the round robin found Otto Fullner, Edward Babush and Philip Greenberg, all members of the Center Horseshoe club, in a triple tie, each having won three and lost two. Fullner, silver-haired veteran who won the 1933 tournament, beat both of his opponents for second place, while Babush defeated Greenberg to win the third place trophy. Alton Wood, 1934 winner, was unable to win a single game, and lost to George Mellor for fifth place. Greenberg, Wood and Mellor each received a pair of horseshoes as their award. The first four place winners all averaged close to 70 per cent ringers for the entire round. Fullner pitched 11 straight doubles, and 76 ringers for an 85 per cent average in his game with Babush, who pitched 76 per cent ringers.

On Friday evening, horseshoe enthusiasts were entertained in an exhibition by the famous Schultz sisters of Harvey.
