1938 GORDON "SPIN ON"

THE OUTDOOR SEASON IS STILL HERE. Get a new pair of our shoes, and be ready for it. For general use we recommend the medium temper. If, however, you want to beat your 1937 average by at least ten per cent, then get a pair of our soft special temper, and you can easily do it. The heel calks being hardened will hold their shape for a long time. The body of the shoe being soft will prevent shoe from the rebound when striking another shoe, or the stake, and will stay put. Get a pair and prove it for yourself. Write for prices.

LARRY MAHONEY WINS AGAIN

For the fifth consecutive year Larry Mahoney, of Lincroft, N. J., won the state horseshoe pitching championship at Lincoln Park, Jersey City, when he defeated the best players in the state, on Sunday, August 21.

Larry had little trouble in winning all his games to gain his second leg on the Governor Moore challenge trophy. He set a new ringer percentage for the championship match of 73.5 per cent for the nine games. His best run of consecutive ringers was 18 straight, with 35 out of 40 shoes in his game against Rosselet, of Elizabeth.

A number of upsets occurred in other games. Peters of Jersey City, defeated Joe Puglise, of Paterson, after trailing 19 to 41, by dropping on 19 ringers out of 22 shoes. Peters also came from behind to beat Rosselet 50 to 44 by 10 consecutive ringers, after trailing 32 to 43. Joe Puglise and Rosselet were on even terms when Joe suddenly hit the stride that once made him champion, and dropped on 15 straight to win 50 to 23.

Sam Mongillo, of Jersey City, won the Class B championship, and is the first player to obtain a second leg on the Governor Hoffman challenge trophy. Mongillo and D. Fogel, of Ramsay, each had seven wins and one loss when they met in the final game, the result of which would decide the 1938 champion for Class B. With the score 47-48 Mongillo took advantage of Fogel's miss to drop on a ringer to win 50-48.

Class C title was won by M. Pennewell, of Allendale, N. J., who won all nine games although he had a tough time getting by G. Furbeck, of Fairlawn, who finished second with one loss, to Pennewell, 44-50. Featuring the playing in this class was young 12-year-old J. Landers, of West Orange, who won four of his games and gave his opponents plenty of worries in all the others.

Watch this boy in a couple of years.

Ed Lane of Jersey City won Class D with a clean sweep of his games. C. Axworthy of Bloomfield, finished second and was the hardest man Lane beat, score 37 to 50.

The tournament was held on the courts of the Hudson County Club who provided every convenience for the players and spectators. D. E. Brown, president of the association, directed the tournament, assisted by H. Schmidt, of the Hudson County Club, Claude Hart, Ben Murphy and a number of the other members of the club. Trophies and prizes were awarded to all players in the champion class A, with prizes to the first four players in each of the other classes.

To promote more interest in horseshoes over the state, it is suggested by our president, Lee Washburn, that county tournaments be held in the counties where they are not already held. A small entrance fee can be charged to take care of getting a cup for the winner, etc. The state association will furnish a diploma made out to the winner for the cost charge of 25 cents. Score sheets can also be gotten from the state association for a very small cost. It is also hoped that arrangements can be made for a match between the East River players and the West River players. A lot can be done to promote the good old game and the president or the secretary will always welcome suggestions.

Don't forget to line up all the non-members. Twenty-five cents covers both the state and national entrance fees. Just send me the names and the money and I will mail out the membership cards.

EASTERN PENN OPEN

The fifth annual Eastern Pennsylvania Open Horseshoe Pitching championships were held at Willow Grove Park, Pa., on Sunday, July 31, 1938. The title this year was won by 18-year-old William Hamann, of White Plains, N. Y., from a field of the best players in the Middle Atlantic states. Opposed to Hamann were R. L. Frye, Virginia state champion, Dale Carson, former Pennsylvania state champion, John Fulton, Pennsylvania farmers champion, Vito Felleccia, New York state champion, and many other well known players from New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and the District of Columbia.

John Fulton, last year's title holder, finished fifth, his ringer percentage dropping to 56.5 this year. Dale Carson and R. L. Frye, competing for the first time in this championship, furnished Hamann with plenty of trouble but were unable to beat him. Carson scored better than 40 points in each of the games he lost. Hamann lost his one game to Puglise of Paterson in the seventh round, 50-26, when Puglise pitched his best game of the day, averaging 66.6 per cent ringers.

Classes B and C honors were won by players pitching better than 50 per cent ringers. In class B the first three places went to Pittsburgh players, with F. V. Mazur winning the trophy. In class C Walter McCneghy, of Scranton, Pa., proved too good for Paul Staub, of York, Pa., in their play-off for first place, Staub losing 23-50.

Class D trophy went to M. Bell, of Peekskill, N. Y., who came thru without a loss. In Class E 28 players started and elimination of best two out of three games. The final four players met in round robin with F. Bonner, of Lewisbury, Pa., winning the trophy.

The meet was sponsored by E. E. Feohl, manager of the park, and promoted by D. E. Brown, president of the New Jersey Association. The management provided 15 nice courts, refreshments, and a trophy for the winner of each class. A large crowd enjoyed each round as every round was packed with thrills. Among the spectators were many of the outstanding boosters of horseshoes in the East, including Harry Woodfield, Director of Promotion for Washington, D. C., H. S. Gamble, of Pittsburgh, secretary of the Penn State Association; E. E. MacFarland, of Tavern Almac, the center of horseshoe pitching in Baltimore and vicinity. J. D. Klingerman, president of the West End Club, of Norristown, Pa.

Frank Gamble, of Staten Island, directed the tournament, assisted by Bruno Hamann, father of the winner. Handling the various classes were A. J. Dunbar and Ed Halligan, of Philadelphia, and "Pop" Schavel, of Brooklyn, N. Y. To these men go many thanks for the smooth and efficient manner in which the tournament was conducted.

Osborne Alford, of Cold Spring, Ky., won the Class B tournament of Greater Cincinnati at the Riverview Courts, Newport, Ky., Sunday, Sept. 4. John Thomas, Orwill Goodwin and Art Lanham tied for second money and the pitch-off ended in a tie, each winning one game and losing one, so it was decided to take the ringer percentage which gave Thomas second, Goodwin third and Lanham fourth. Then for the fifth and sixth prize, the tie between Bill Detherage, Chas. Barnes and Carl Smith was pitched off, Detherage winning two games to take fifth prize, Barnes winning one to take sixth prize, a pair of horseshoes, and Smith seventh place. He pitched the best in the pinches when he had to bear down and came out the winner each time.

Joe Clore, star pitcher of Fairmount, finished second although he pitched more ringers than any man in the tournament, and gave Henn a hard fight for the title. The championship was virtually decided in the seventh round when Henn and Clore met, each losing one game when Henn defeated Clore 38 to 31, Henn pitching 68 per cent ringers, Clore 60 per cent, and went into the lead which he held to the end.

Chas. Eha, of Covington, Ky., runner-up in 1937 Kentucky State Tournament, finished third.

TWO-STATE MEET

September 25 was the date of the initial Interstate Kansas and Missouri Tournament held at the Grove in Kansas City, Mo. Gold, silver and bronze medals were awarded the first three places, which were won by Kansas entrants.

It is anticipated there will be some cash prizes of considerable amounts for the tournament next year, at approximately the same date.

Alvin Gandy of Topeka, took first prize; Alvin Dahlene, of Lawrence, Kansas, took second prize, and Robert Kraft, of Lacompton, Kansas, third prize.

Gandy and Dahlene were tied for first place; Kraft, Robert Bales and Oscar Bozich tied for third, which Kraft won in the pitch-off.

The feature game of the tournament was between Gandy and Dahlene, which went to 120 shoes. With the score Gandy 44, and Dahlene 43, it took 36 shoes to finish, Gandy tossing 31 ringers out of 36 shoes, and Dahlene 32 ringers out of 36 shoes.

After Dahlene had 49 points he tossed 28 ringers before he could score the final point.

All four shoes were on the pegs 22 times during the game. Gandy had a string of eight consecutive doubles, while Dahlene had seven straight doubles.

We hope Missouri will be better represented next year. Henry Lomax sponsored the tournament; Burton Mitchell, assisted by Walter Griffel, kept the scores and records and before the ties were pitched off each player had his card showing his games won and lost, shoes pitched, points, opponents' points; ringers, opponents' ringers and percentage of each game played. My hat is off to the worthy score keeper and record keeper of these tournaments. I have been there and know their labors.

This was only a 12-man round robin, but we hope to have 16 men next year. More power to Missouri.

Missouri has the pitchers but they live so far from Kansas City it is hard for them to attend these tournaments. Let's see some tossers from St. Louis, St. Joseph, Springfield, Anderson, Stella and Marysville, in the affair next year.

Yours for more tournaments and leagues among the slipper tossers.
 FRED TROST.

CENTER CLUB BEATS STATE CLUB

In a hotly contested match game played at Lincoln Park, Chicago, on September 18th, the Center Club won from their South Side rivals, the State Club, by a score of 22-14. The game was not as one-sided as the score indicates, as the losing pitcher in 11 of the 36 games had at least 40 points and the Center Club won eight of these games to clinch the match. The State Club also had a higher percentage than Center as they had three more ringers.

The following are some of the outstanding games of the match:

Woodhouse led Neff 28-5, but Neff climbed up to 46 before losing out. Woodhouse had a lead of 48-27 over Wilbur, who then put on a barrage of ringers to bring the score to 49-45. He then pitched a ringer and had the stake blocked with the other shoe, but Woodhouse calmly tossed a double to win the game.

Phelan was losing to Mitchell 43-22, but put on a spurt to bring the score to 43-42. Mitchell then tossed five out of six to win 50-42. Time after time Center Club players built up big leads only to have the State boys come tearing down the stretch and almost beating them. This was the third victory for Center in four games with the State Club. The State Club was the only club to defeat Center this year. Summary:

MOORE RETAINS CHAMPIONSHIP OF KENTUCKY

George Moore, Dayton, Ky., retained his title as Kentucky champion at the Riverview courts, Newport, Ky. Sunday, August 28. Moore out-classed the group of pitchers with 61 per cent ringer and lost his only game to Ray Wright, the runner-up. Wright also pitched one of the best games of his career.

Chas. Eha, last year's runner-up, and Harold McPherson, were tied for third; in the pitch-off Eha won, giving him third place.

Harry Henn, 1938 Greater Cincinnati champion, and former Kentucky champion, didn't do so well, due to a serious illness, and loss of strength; he could not stand the long grind and weakened the last part of the tournament.

HENYON IS VCTOR

Paul Henyon, rising young Washington horseshoe star, scored with a clean sweep in the second annual Harry Woodfield Invitation Sweepstakes on the McMillan Park courts, in Washington, D .C.

Henyon defeated seven rivals in a round robin battle of pitchers who failed to win awards in The Evening Star championships, but were invited by Woodfield, promotional director of the Washington-Suburban Horseshoe Pitchers' Association and sponsor of the tournament, because of the service to the sport and promise of stardom.

Walter Haley, who finished second, lost only to Henyon. Gus Brailer and Ed Baranowski tied for third, with four wins and three losses each, and Francis Battiste, George C. Thompson, Jr., and Mel Johnson, defending title holder, came next, with two wins and five losses each. Bill Woodfield was last, with one and six.

All Receive Prizes

Henyon received a trophy, Haley a pair of Gordon horseshoes *donated by S. R. Hill, Brailer, who took third prize on a coin toss-up, a pair of Ted Allen horseshoes given by Ted Allen, the world champion; Baranowski, a pie, baked by Woodfield, and Thompson, who won a pitch-off for fifth place, a cake baked by the host. Johnson, Battiste, and Bill Woodfield received souvenirs given by the Giant Grip Co. Thus every pitcher in the tournament was in the pay-off.

In an intercity team match the Metropolitan B League flippers of Washington dropped only one individual game to a team from Richmond, Va., tutored by Ray Frye, former Star tournament champ. C. O. Jones, Richmond champion, trimmed Bill Woodfield for the invaders' lone win.

Qualifying play in the Lee Fleshman Sweepstakes at Rogers Heights, Md., will end at 8 o'clock tonight. Those who have fired so far and their scores, including ringers: Joe Walsh, 52-196; Mel Johnson, 44-186;

MISSOURI HORSESHOE NEWS

The third annual horseshoe tournament, held in conjunction with the Weston, Missouri Agriculture and Tobacco Exhibit, was won by Alvin Dahlene, of Lawrence, Kans. Luse, of Jarbalo, Kansas, leading with 114 points, and Dahlene next with 112. Ground conditions were such that high scores were next to impossible. In the finals the total number of points scored decided the championship. This was done to eliminate the chance of there being a play-off.

How they finished: Out of a possible 350—

Alvin Dahlene, Lawrence, Kans.	348
Omer Luse, Jarbalo, Kans.	337
C. D. Luse, Jarbalo, Kans.	324

Notes of the Tournament

Highest percentage game, Dahlene, 44 ringers out of 50; 88 per cent.

Longest string of doubles, Dahlene eight.

Largest victory margin, Omer Luse over Miller, 50-3.

First prize, Dahlene, $5; second prize, O. Luse, $3; third prize, C. Luse, $2.

Hublitz vs. O'Gara

The feature game of the day was the battle of 88 shoes pitched by George Hublitz, 67 years old, retired lieutenant of the fire department, and T. P. O'Gara, of the county clerk's office. At 58 shoes pitched the score was 35 to 27 in favor of Hublitz. O'Gara was forced to pitch 18 ringers in the next 30 shoes to defeat his opponent by a score of 50 to 47. What a battle. Good work, George.

O'Gara Defeats Wiegand

On Saturday, September 24th, Philip Wiegand, of the treasurer's office, Department of Finance, opposed T. P. O'Gara of the county clerk's office, Division of Jurors, in a home and home series for the best four out of seven games. The first match was rained out on the 17th, after O'Gara won the first game. The series was continued on Saturday and O'Gara took three in a row to win the series of four straight games played. It is expected that these two rivals will meet in the tourney to be held on October 15th and 16th when the City Employees will contest for the horseshoe pitching championship of the City of New York, with the finals at Circle Lawn, 106th Street, and West Drive in Central Park. All five boroughs will be represented in this battle of champions. It is expected that more than 75 ringer artists, employees of the City of New York, will enter from the various departments of the greater city.

WELLES PARK WINS

Welles Park Club, of Chicago, won its final match from the Aurora Horseshoe Club August 28, at the Aurora courts. The only matches these two teams lost in the Windy City League were to each other. Thus this final contest was a highly spirited affair. The high team ringer percentages show in the box score shows the equality of the players.

Many of the games were over 80 per cent, and one of 90 per cent, pitched by Aden Swinehamer, of the Aurora Club, throwing 41 ringers out of 46 shoes pitched for the highest game of the season.

Bill Dannhauer of the Welles club averaged an even 75 per cent, losing but one game and that to Swinehamer. Dannhauer, 28 points, 52 ringers, 19 double ringers, 72 shoes pitched for 72 per cent. A. Swinehamer, 51 points, 59 ringers, 22 double ringers, 72 shoes pitched, for 82 per cent.

WINS COUNTY CROWN

Ernie Recht, slender young ringer tossing wizard, from Fort Wayne, Ind., celebrated his nineteenth birthday on August 18, by annexing first place in the Allen County All-Star Singles League with the splendid ringer average of 74.8 per cent and 31 games won out of 35.

The league, comprised of the eight high men in a 100-shoe qualifying round held at the start of the season, plays every Thursday night under floodlights in Swinney Park in Fort Wayne. Each man meets a different opponent every week in a five-game match. The brand of shoe displayed in the loop has been so sensational that crowds of 700 and 800 are not unusual. This coupled with the fact that the same eight men play on the undefeated Fort Wayne Horseshoe Club team in matches with other cities every week end has brought interest in horseshoes to a high pitch in this territory.

Six of the eight men live in Fort Wayne, a city of 100,000, while the remaining two live in a small rural town a few miles away. They are all members of the Indiana division of the National Horseshoe Pitchers' Association.

For two weeks three men, Recht, Ed Rohlfing and Honer Maxwell, were deadlocked for first place in the circuit. Maxwell then took the lead when Recht and Rohlfing split their series 3-2. On August 4, Recht and Maxwell split their match 3-2, and Bob Pence jumped into a three-way tie with them by sweeping his five tilts with Rohlfing. The last two weeks was all Recht, while Pence faded to third, leaving Maxwell in second.

BARNYARD GOLF

Of all the sports that call for brawn and skill,

Improving health with wholesome exercise,

There's none produce or boast a greater thrill,

Than Barnyard Golf, the horse-shoe game I prize.

'Tis ringers, ringers that I'm striving for,

And when a double's made, I'm truly bless'd;

No player is so keen mere points to score,

In Barnyard Golf you've got to do your best.

Yu aim, you pitch and watch the shoes alight,

And if they reach the peg, and wrap around,

You have the line and range, they're falling right,

And ringers, subtle ringers will abound;

You walk, you stoop, you're always on your toes.

You strengthen nerves, and loosen stiffen'd joints,

You're out to win, and vanquish friendly foes,

Which must be done to get your fifty points.

No game is ever won with careless ease,

Or trusting on a meager chance of fate;

The game requires all your faculties, Your energies, and you must concentrate;

Some patient practice does a world of good,

And might surprise you how you can improve.

For every ringer cheers a sinking mood,

And shows that Barnyard Golf's a game to love.

If you feel glum, don't lay around and mope;

That's not a remedy to ease the mind;

Go pitch a game of Barnyard Golf and hope

Returns with joy and gladness all combined;

Or, if rheumatics get into your bones Or other horrid aches or pain assails,

Don't look for sympathy with moan and groans,

When Barnyard Golf's the cure that seldom fails.

Mr. R. B. Howard,
London, Ohio.

Just a line in reply to the quit record made by Fred Stepeton, of Melbourne, Australia. It took me 8 years to throw 1339 ringers at the distance of 50 feet or better. This lad threw 1691 ringers out of 1600 quoits for a percentage of 105. How could this happen?

The present design will be kept practically the same.

We are holding up manufacture of any more shoes while three changes are being made to strengthen the shoe. Besides two at the side notches to give added strength, which is proven the weakest part of the shoe, we are putting in an absolutely new and better grade of steel.

The records being made and broken by this shoe is far beyond our expectations. Everyone comments on how beautifully it handles and so perfectly balanced. We believe we have passed the first stage of a new shoe as other shoe manufacturers did before us.
