In Memoriam

Mr. Levi Brumbaugh of Greenville, Darke County, Ohio, passed away on January 7, 1966 at the age of 78 years. In his early life he was a schoolteacher. Later he entered the U.S. Mail service as a railway mail clerk and continued in the postal service until his retirement a few years ago.

At an early age Mr. Brumbaugh manifested an interest in horseshoe pitching and followed the sport as a participant, and later as a promoter and organizer, until his death. He was a charter member and past president of the Darke County, Ohio Horseshoe Club.

For many years he was very active in County, District and State Tournaments, and in 1962 was instrumental, to a large part, in securing the World Horseshoe Pitching Tournament for Greenville, Ohio. In 1964 the World Tournament was again held in the beautiful City Park at Greenville, Ohio where 18 splendid courts were available for competition.

Mr. Brumbaugh had a host of friends not only in the area of his home but state and nationwide as well. His counsel and help was much sought and he was always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone interested in the sport.

He will be greatly missed by his wife, family, the Darke County, Ohio Horseshoe Club, the State Association and his many friends throughout the country.

The Ultimate . . . in Horseshoe Pitching Equipment

DIXON PORTABLE HORSESHOE COURTS (Patent Pending) are now available at an attractive price. The new nylon suspension system has eliminated some cost and improves the efficiency of the rubber pad greatly. The life of these pads should be at least ten years and are guaranteed for two years. These courts will make you a better horseshoe pitcher and we guarantee the ringers you throw will stay there. Every shoe will feel the same every time you pitch it.

Complete Single Court Ready For Use
Length of pad 36" x 27" wide x 5/8" thick.

Single Court Without Rubber Pad
Length of box 32" x 21 1/2" wide x 4" deep.

Each end of the court is boxed separately and weighs approximately 38 pounds — 76 pounds for the complete court. A conversion court that can be used to set over your present clay court is also available. The same pad is used on all styles and is interchangeable, which means that it can be used on clay and boxed in the portable for mobility.

The portable is stored easily in the trunk of your car, and can be set up ready to go in 5 minutes in your yard, on your drive, at the park, on the beach, at the lake, in your basement (if you have enough room), in the barn (if you are on the farm), in gymnasiums at school, or anyplace where there is enough room.

The Michigan Report — A Success Story

Final Installment — Continued From Last Issue

The high point of Saturday evening events were the recognition of the state and local level, of the magnificent achievement of the Irwin Carlbergs. This was the Stokes award. They received this at the National and world's tournament at Keene, N. H. This world wide recognition of the Carlbergs' unselfish promotion of horseshoe pitching interest in Michigan, was so notable, that the W.S.H.P.A. was anxious to further impress the state and local people, of the importance of this tremendous honor that was bestowed on this enthusiastic and dedicated couple.

The W.S.H.P.A. also extended to Lee and Helen Jacobs of Belleville, Michigan, a special trophy award for the almost 40 years of dedicated effort and unswerving devotion to horseshoe promotional interest in the state of Michigan.

Michigan can certainly be justifiably proud of the honors that have come to these members of its' many outstanding people in the fast developing W.S.H.P.A. organization.

Sunday, September 5th was a beautiful sunny day and the tournament proceeded with unbelievable smoothness. We would like to digress a moment back to Saturday opening day. Channel 6, WJIM TV from Lansing, had a cameraman there at 10 a.m. to start some television shots of the opening festivities.

Sunday evening in an effort to get the schedules up to date, tournament-wise, the Class E finals were started at 10:00 p.m., this of course resulted in another midnight nocturnal pitching session. A newcomer to Michigan horseshoe pitching circles emerged the victor. Al Aspinson of Portland, Michigan wrapped up the class E State Championship about 1:30 a.m. Monday morning.

Monday morning September 6th, Labor Day, got under way as usual, with the flag raising by the Boy Scouts. The weather was very nice, but a few sleepy individuals were a little slow showing up, due to the nocturnal Class E competition of the previous night.

Channel 10 TV of Jackson, Michigan had Bill Backus there taking some TV pictures, which appeared on their Monday evening TV program. You will remember the Lansing Channel 6 TV cameraman had made two or three trips back and forth from Lansing to Dimondale until he got the shots to his satisfaction. These pictures appeared on Mark Ahmands' sports program at 11:15 p.m. on channel 6, on Saturday night.

Monday was a continual panorama of interesting events, many of which were transpiring for the first time.

At one o'clock Pat Smith prevailed upon Jim Compton, Vic Benson and Fred Smith to meet Dick Black the cameraman for Mort Neffs' "Michigan Outdoors" program.

Dick Black a tremendous workman in the TV field, flew into Lansing Municipal Airport at 1 p.m. on Monday afternoon. The plans for Channel 7's televising procedures were finalized on the previous Saturday evening in a conversation between Dick and Pat through long distance telephoning from Dick's residence in Newago, Michigan.

Ruth Hammond, who had won the world's Women's Class B Championship in Keene, N.H., was televised in an interview. Pat Smith also was involved in an introductory televised prelude on the development of the horseshoe pitching sport.

Several other prominent association people such as Roy Smith, present and four times State Champion and Earl Grable, Dimondale Horseshoe Club president and State Class B Champion of 1964, were involved in pitching competition and consequently were not available.

Roy Smith waded through the usual rugged Class A competition. He was definitely at his best. The last ringer Roy put on came off or he would have had a new record percentage of over 90% for a State Championship record.

Bob Sibson of Adrian had a very good final day and emerged the victor over Earl Grable the class B title holder.

Class C witnessed the triumphal culmination of a tremendous season for the popular Claude West of Sturgis. Claude started out the season rather slow and easy, but he kept picking up momentum. He certainly left a trail of wrecked hopes along the seasons way. Claude throws a complete reverse two turn shoe, no mean feat in itself to achieve.

Class D saw another new comer to State horseshoe circles in the person of Oscar Hape of Lansing. Oscar pitched serenely through the state tournament and wound up with the class D Trophy. Oscar incidentally is a Dimondale Horseshoe Club member.

Al Aspinson of Portland as previously stated, took the Class E title, his first year in organized competition.

Marge Buehler of Byron Center, Michigan, took home the ladies Class A championship. Marge was certainly deserving of this diadem, she prepared all last winter for it.

May we digress for a moment back to the week end preceding the state championships. An executive board meeting was held to classify the pitchers in the groups that their percentages dictated, tournament rules and procedures were discussed and finalized.

Pat Smith suggested to the board for consideration, his idea to film the highlights and interesting games which would merit recording. This idea was received with considerable approval by the group. The W.S.H.P.A. decided to furnish the 8 millimeter film and Irene Grable a photographer of considerable experience, was designated as official photographer for the three day tournament. This worked out exceptionally well and Mrs. Grable received numerous words of praise and commendation for her superior work. The films were showed by Earl Grable at the annual meeting of the W.S.-H.P.A. held in Dimondale on Saturday, November 6th. they undoubtedly will be shown many times at various subsequent meetings. The election of officers resulted in Earl Grable as the new President, Vic Benson as Vice-President, Marge Buehler was voted in as general Secretary and Irene Grable was elected Treasurer.

A word about Ray's Recreation indoor horseshoe pitching emporium. These extensive deluxe facilities make the Dimondale area the envy of the greater Michigan territory. It has pool tables, shuffleboard games, pinball machines, an excellent lunch counter in addition to the horseshoe courts. Pitchers from Detroit, Battle Creek, Grand Rapids, Muskegon and other localities make frequent visits there to pitch in comfort. Tuesday night the Dimondale Club conducts its regular weekly tournament. This is games of 50 shoes, count all points. Friday night each week is termed Battle Creek night.

Special thank you acknowledgements regarding the 1965 Michigan State Horseshoe Tournaments.

Miniature Horseshoe Tournament

By ALLAN BERTSCHY

Conducting a miniature horseshoe tournament can be an interesting challenge. Occasionally, informal pitching tourneys are advertised or created spontaneously as part of the recreational activities at various social outings. For those who become involved with their planning, the degree of work, success and satisfaction is largely determined by the application of a well organized playing schedule. Although basic information for conducting formal horseshoe tournaments exist, many of the time consuming small details remain for the difficult-to-find and hard working management group. By streamlining a playing schedule the director and all committee members can effectively participate in the tournament. This objective can be achieved when the managing, playing and scoring responsibilities are evenly distributed to all the contestants.

The miniature schedule shown was used for several planned and impromptu minor tournaments during the past summer. It is compact and was designed for immediate self regulating use by casual players in the Oxon Hill, Maryland area. Several variations in the playing methods in addition to enlargement possibilities are available depending on the desires of the pitching group. The availability of standardized schedule tournament guides may encourage group playing functions with the ultimate objective of boosting the game of horseshoes.

A general survey regarding the customs of how the game of horseshoe is commonly played in this locality is indicated by the following conditions:

- (1) A game is won by scoring 21 points. The methods and values used for counting points and ringers are numerous.
- (2) A comfortable workout would in all probability consist of playing 5 to 10 games or pitching 100 to 200 horseshoes.
- (3) Playing as doubles or 4 players to a court is the most desirable way because it minimizes physical taxation and is more social prone.
- (4) The recording of scores is seldom done. Very few players are familiar with the ringer percentage relationship. As this classification or goal minded feature becomes known, interest in the game appears to be more intense.
- (5) When a group of players assemble, two pitchers having the most skill quickly gain control of a single court. If a rapid elimination system is used, the losing and non-playing onlookers unfortunately, may not get to participate in many games.

In view of the foregoing information, a modified, yet simple, 6 player round robin horseshoe pitching schedule was developed to include some of these traditions. It is outlined on 2 charts that are designated as schedule 1 (for stake 1) and schedule 2 (for stake 2). The schedules remain near a stake, while the players move to their assigned posts. The tournament is basically limited to pitching 100 horseshoes or 20 shoes per game. Players can either walk between stakes or remain at one stake during the innings. The games are interspersed with several periods of score keeping or referee duties, so each player plays 5 games and referees 2 or 3 times. For score calling purposes and also for easier identification, the calks of the shoes were sprayed with a colored paint. A straight edge was used to measure close ringers. The width of the narrowest pair of shoes falling at a stake was used as a gauge for measuring shoes that were disqualified by being too far from the stake. The winner of a game was the player having highest point count or ringer percentage in case there was a tie. Similarly this rule held true for the tournament winner.

The non-walking more leisurely tournament appeared to be the most popular and will be described first. It requires the use of just 1 court and lasts about 2½ hours. Since the games are played with 4 players, 2 games are in progress simultaneously. The contestants are the 2 players at each stake.

Players standing at the opposite stake return the horseshoes and play a game at the same time.

The tourney is initiated by assembling 6 players to a court where they are given a number from 1 to 6. A key position is player No. 5 which should be taken by the tournament director because of his experience or knowledge of the schedule. During the first game, No. 5 is a referee and is in the best position to start the playing activities. In the 8th or last game, No. 5 is free of assignment and can use this time to assist No. 2 (referee on duty) in tallying the FINALS. The referees are in charge of their respective games and sit near a stake that is opposite the 2 players they keep score for. Referees 5 & 6 start the tournament by attaching schedule sheets to clip boards and writing the players names beside a number at the top right and correspondingly to the left side of the schedules. Each referee and his 2 scheduled judges (players) go to their proper stake. Players 1, 4, 2 and 3 can start their practice pitching immediately. By mutual agreement or unless specified the players inform the referees when they are ready to start the game. During game 1, referee 5 and judges (players) 1 and 4 are located near stake 1. When players 2 and 3 pitch their shoes from stake 2 to stake 1, players 1 and 4 act as judges and call the score (in terms of color) to referee 5 for recording. To complete this inning players 1 and 4 pick up the shoes and play their game by pitching the shoes back to stake 2. Players 2 and 3 now act as judges and call the score to referee 6. At the conclusion of the game the referees summarize and transfer the scoring data to the proper right hand columns. The highest point score is circled to indicate the winner. By multiplying the total ringers by 5 the percent ringers per game are figured, while the sum of the FINAL ringers are in percent values. The FINALS is a section added to schedule 1. It shows an up-to-date summary of the tournament's progress. The referee who has charge of schedule 1 maintains the FINALS together with the assistance of schedule 2 referee after each game. The last duty of the referees is to position the group for the next game so the tournament can proceed smoothly.

The walking tournament uses the same schedule sheets, requires 2 courts and takes about 1¼ hours depending on the length of the practice session. By setting the number of practice shoes to be pitched, the time of the practice variable is eliminated which in turn improves the progress of the tournament. If 5 turns are permitted for practice before each game, the tournament would consist of pitching 150 horseshoes. Besides the timing benefit, this limiting factor may be of interest to casual players prior to entering a possible physical endurance contest.

Under the walking plan the referees generally sit together at one end and between adjacent court stakes. The referee and his players are now together as a playing group. For example, referee 5 with his schedule and players 2 and 3 go to stake 1 at court 1. They play a walking game with the players calling their own scores. Similarly, referee 6 and players 1 and 4 go to stake 1 at a second court and play their game using schedule 2. When the games are over, the referees are in a convenient location to figure the results and arrange the positions for the next games.

Although the schedules are based on 6 players performing a round robin tournament, multiple groups are able to participate. These would include both walking and non-walking groups playing at the same time but at different courts. The winners of each group would have a final play-off to determine the winner. In order to have all games terminate more uniformly (if mixed groups are used) an adjustment should be made for the walkers game time to equal that of the non-walkers. The number of practice shoes by the walkers accordingly, should be increased or their games expanded to 30 innings. Ringer percentages for 30 inning games are figured by dividing the number of ringers by 0.3 The FINAL ringer percentage is figured by multiplying the total number of ringers by 2/3. Spaces are only available for 30 innings, however, there are also numerous enlargement provisions. If the SP column is extended, an unlimited number of innings can be added to each game for appealing to more active horseshoe pitchers who prefer longer games.

Washington's "Winter Open Class" Tournament

Washington's third series took place Sunday Feb. 6, 1966 at the Seattle Woodland Park's 14 covered courts with 18 energetic horseshoe pitchers in 4 classes defying winter temperatures of which 4 ringer flingers proved their mastery over man as well as mother nature to win laurels.

Herb Pidde, Seattle's Class "A" Horseshoe Champion dethroned Wine-trout in the opening round to breeze through the 6 man round robin with ease. Bill Van Egdorn, after missing the second series, traveled again over 100 miles to resume his winning ways to take home his second trophy only after some stiff competition from Ken Elvig in a play-off. Norman Hansen, found Class "C" competition to his liking by winning enough games to claim his first trophy in this winter tournament. For the first time, Class "D" got started thanks to Marion Smith; Les Alvord and his son Mark who played a double round robin with Smith winning from "Pop" Alvord in a play-off.

This "Winter Open Classic" tournament, which is to be State and National sanctioned will continue to be played every other Sunday, through May 15.

Other major tournaments in our state will be State and National sanctioned such as the Seattle Memorial held in Seattle, May 29 and 30th; The Omak Open, July 17; Monasmith Open; Washington's State Meet and The Northwest Open. More tournament details to be announced later.

Glorious sunshine and a record high temperature for this date brought out a record number of pitchers including our State President, Howard Shatto who left his snow-bound country-side over 200 miles distant to play and bask in what appeared to be springtime weather.

Our new Class "A" Champion for this series was won by Paul Snow, a

TED ALLEN HORSESHOES

This brand of shoe enabled Ted Allen in his long pitching career to establish most of the World's tournament records over and over again, many of which still stand. Used in his professional show-life. It, too, played a big role in helping to bring out the greatest, one-year improvement in the history of the field, in the 1964 World tournament.

Local Clubs

Brownstown, Illinois — We organized a club here in Brownstown last season, signing up 33 members, 30 of them being active. We held four open tournaments during the season. After our members learned how to keep score and how to help conduct a tournament, our last meet was a real success. We had several top notch players from Illinois, Indiana and Missouri which added very much to our success. It is hoped to hold at least four tournaments during this coming season.

Seaside, California — Jack Pipe of Salinas, California was recently elected president of this growing and enthusiastic club. Capt. H. O. Hanson was elected secretary-treasurer. They have a 7 court layout, with clay. Also scoring machines of the Greenville World tournament type made by Captain Hansen. He is also the president of the Northern California Association.

Los Gatos, Calif. Club—A Smooth Working Organization

The Los Gatos Club, ably led by President CAL CHILDRESS, surged forward in 1965 to significantly increase participation in Northern California Horseshoe Pitching Assn. (NCHPA) activities by 33% over 1964. Membership held close to 40, and 68% of the club members participated in No. Calif. Class tournaments, and in the new No. Calif. team leagues.

Highlights of the season included: The Spring Roundup Weekend to kick off the season; winning four No. Calif. Assn. (NCHPA) tournaments; the terrific job that STAN MAC CARTY did serving as Sec-Treas. for the NCHPA; the Second Annual Los Gatos Open; four club members qualifying for the California State Tourney; four Los Gatos juniors in State; the "A" team winning the NCHPA League Title; CONNIE HENDERSON'S consistent pitching; and the continued improvement of our pitchers due in part to the "FIGHT LIKE TIGERS" spirit carried into all contests, be it tournament or a "friendly" game at Oak Meadow Park.

Our Spring Horseshoe Roundup was held to promote interest in Horseshoes in the Santa Clara Valley. Several beginners turned out, a short tourney was held, and two trophies were awarded to the winner in each of two classes.

BOB GARCIA, Los Gatos southpaw, won the 1965 NCHPA Class "E" title May 9th, losing only once in eight games. This was the first of 3 straight tournament wins for the club. TAL TURNER won the Sacramento B "Added" May 23rd, winning 8 straight games. VERDAN ZELMAR compiled a 13 won 2 lost record to win the 16-man Golden Gate Memorial Classic "OPEN" at San Francisco May 30-31.

Our Second Annual Los Gatos Open, June 12-13, was again held in conjunction with the Los Gatos Lion's Club Annual Steak Barbecue. Extensive advance publicity brought out a large number of spectators, and all the Tournament Chairmen and committees worked hard to ensure a highly successful tourney. BILL BLEXRUDE of Mosswood (Oakland) repeated as OPEN winner defeating Los Gatan JESSE GONZALES in a playoff. Six club members qualified for the 16-man field.

DICK THOMAS took the Los Gatos D "Added" by defeating teammate MARTIN LASICH in the playoff winning 8 of 9 games in the 22-man field.

Los Gatos — (Continued)

The hard work of CAL CHILDRESS made this "Invitational" go, and 12 fledgling Los Gatons cut their eyeteeth in this tourney to gain valuable pitching experience under fire.

Hard working Los Gatan, STAN MAC CARTY, took over the NCHPA Sec-Treas. chores in 1965 and did an outstanding job. He was instrumental in organizing the NCHPA Team League competition and worked long hours to keep ahead of the mountains of paper work. With STAN again at the reins for the 1966 season, the NCHPA can look forward to another banner year.

The Los Gatos 4-man team of CONNIE HENDERSON, JESSE GONZALES, VERDAN ZELMAR, and STAN MAC CARTY won the 1965 NCHPA Class A Team Championship with 6 match wins, no losses, and 1 tie, averaging 62.6% as a team. Sacramento was second and other league entrants were Arroyo Viejo (Oakland), Mosswood (Oakland), and Golden Gate (San Francisco). The Los Gatos B's wound up 3rd in their 6-team league. KIM LUDLOW, Joe Sadowski, MIKE SANITATE, and BOYD WALKER carried most of the load with substitute help from MARTIN LASICH, BILL FIDDLER, and others.

CONNIE HENDERSON was the club's outstanding pitcher of the year. His achievements included: placing second in the Northern Calif. A Championship; winning the NCHPA "A" team league's top pitcher award with 68.1% (winning 20 of 24 games); and repeating as Los Gatos Club Champion.

Four new club members (CONNIE HENDERSON, JESSE GONZALES, TAL TURNER, and VERDAN ZELMAR) pitched qualifying rounds of 70% or better to make the 14-man field for the California State Championship held September 18-19 at San Jose. HENDERSON placed 6th as BILL BLEXRUDE regained the State Championship lost to BILL FRASER of San Francisco in 1964. Four Los Gatos juniors pitched in the State Junior Division: MONTE and KEVIN TURNER, KEN JENSEN, and GREG ZELMAR. JENSEN won 4 of 5 games to place near the top.

In the hotly contested club tournament held in October, CONNIE HENDERSON pitched consistent 75.1% horseshoe to win 7 straight games and retain his Club Championship. JESSE GONZALES was second with 67.4%, STAN MAC CARTY 3rd, 65.2%, VERDAN ZELMAR 4th, 63.8%; TAL TURNER 5th, 62.9%; KIM LUDLOW 6th, MIKE SANITATE 7th, and BOYD WALKER 8th. WILLARD LAMPKIN won the Club "B" title, and the Class "C" went to BOB SWENSON.

Vanport, Penna. Spring Warmup Open Tournament

This event will be held at Vanport, Pa. (near Beaver) during May 28 and 29. The tournament is a sanctioned event and open to anyone belonging to the NHPA.

To qualify the pitcher is to use the home club "honor system". He is to throw 100 shoes under the auspices of a club official, have it signed by the official, and mail with $3.00 to Herman Boyer, R. D. No. 2, Beaver, Pa. 15009, no later than May 17, 1966. The actual qualifying should take place on or near May 14 or 15. If a second chance is desired in the qualifying, an additional $2.00 is to be sent in. Under no circumstances is there to be more than two qualifying attempts. All qualifying is to be done out of doors for uniformity reasons. Pitchers will then be notified of pitching time and classes. In case a pitcher does not make the competition his qualifying fee will not be refunded.

There will be 8 classes, 6 men in a class, resulting in a total of 48 contestants. Trophies will be awarded to the winner and runner-up of all classes as prizes.

The Horseshoe Pitcher's News Digest
1307 Solfisburg Avenue
Aurora, Illinois 60505

Dear Mr. Cobb:

It is the opinion of nearly every horseshoe pitcher that I have talked with, that the player having first pitch in every inning has a definite advantage. The rule which states that the player that scores in the inning, shall have first pitch in the next inning, was, I believe, intended to give both players equal advantage.

However, there are times when the rule seems to work a hardship on the player that is behind in the score. I am sure that anyone who has played in tournament competition, has had the experience of not being able to stop an opponents "hot streak" of ringers, until he, the player who is behind in the score, had finally gained first pitch again. The player who is ahead is usually a little more relaxed and quite often is able to put one or both shoes on the stake because of this fact. Immediately the player who is behind has the task of trying to cancel the ringers before he can hope to catch his opponent. Then of course, the player pitching last sometimes has the "golden opportunity" of pitching at an open stake, thereby gaining an advantage.

In almost all games or contests, on a man to man basis, such as bowling, archery, golf, etc., every effort is made to have each player compete under the same conditions as his opponent. However, because of the nature of horseshoes, this is not always possible. The first shoes on the stake will often cause the opponents shoes to either bounce or slide off, a condition that the first player does not have to contend with.

I believe, that if the player winning the points, was to pitch last in the next inning, the net results would be more evenly contested games. To put it a different way, let us assume that the primary gain to be made in an inning, is to increase a player's score. A secondary gain is the right to pitch first in the next inning. I think that giving the loser of the points, the opportunity to pitch first in the next inning, could result in smaller differences in the winner's and loser's ringer percentages.

I am not suggesting that the rule should be changed at this time, but I would be interested in reading other player's views on this subject in a future issue of the News Digest.

Yours sincerely,

Edward S. Partridge, Jr.

There is a great amount of renewed horseshoe activity in this section of the state. Fred Lutter has begun action in and around New Freedom, Penna., the Brown boys at Felton and Milt Beck and others are active at Wrightsville.

HOW TO CONDUCT LEAGUE AND TEAM MATCH PLAY

A horseshoe club to be successful should have some type of weekly or bi-weekly organized competition and the most satisfactory is a team league with the teams playing a round robin schedule of matches.

Smaller clubs or groups can organize their competition on an individual basis playing either doubles or singles, but larger clubs should organize the competition with teams represented by three or more players each.

When the number of courts available are insufficient to accommodate all the players in singles play, the competition should be built around doubles or partners play thereby doubling the number of players that can be accommodated at one time.

If doubles or partners play is used it simply means that two players act as a unit, one pitching to one stake and the partner pitching to the other stake. Scores of the partners are added together, but the records of shoes pitched and ringers thrown should be kept separate.

It is also possible to play two singles matches on one court at the same time with one pair of opponents pitching from one stake and the other pair of opponents pitching from the other.

The number of teams, players on a team, and games per match depend upon the number of courts and the amount of time available for play.

The type of play and other details should depend upon the wishes of the players. The officers of the club should be given power to plan a co-ordinated program taking all elements and wishes of the players into consideration. The final plan seldom meets with everyone's full approval because that is impossible, but the wishes of the majority should be followed as long as they are compatible with the conditions under which the league must operate.

Care must be taken that the average strength of the teams is fairly even in order to promote keen competition and sustain interest. When one or two teams are far superior to the others and if one or two teams are completely outclassed interest soon dwindles and the result is detrimental to the club.

This sometimes happens when teams come from different organizations as in the case of industrial, fraternal or church leagues. In this case it is well to use some type of handicap system to keep the league in balance. If there are a few unaffiliated players in the club they can be assigned to the various teams by the officers in such a way as to balance the strength of the teams.

The number of games in a match should be an odd number in order to eliminate the possibility of ties. All the players or doubles combinations on one team should play all the other players or doubles combinations on the other team in a match. Consequently it is best to employ an odd number of players or doubles combinations per team such as three, five or seven.

It is better to keep the number of players on a team to a minimum and thereby have more teams. The greater the number of players per team the harder it is for each captain to have his full strength available for each match due to unavoidable absences.

The league schedule should be drawn up at the start of the season and all rules and provisions of play listed. Once the rules and provisions are agreed upon they should be rigidly adhered to or the league will disintegrate in the bickering that follows when rules are not enforced properly and fairly.

The league schedule should designate a home team and a visiting team for each match. Arrangements should be made for having the groundskeeping chores taken care of and one way to do this is to make the home team responsible.

Substitute or alternate players of each team can act as scorekeepers and turn the results in to the league secretary at the end of each game. It is a good idea to mount a plywood blackboard at one end of each court with the blackboard lined to resemble a regulation scoresheet. Score can then be kept with chalk by the players.

At the start of each match the team captains will place their players on the courts and at the end of each game the visiting team players will hold their courts for the next game while the home team players will move over one court for their next game, all players moving in the same direction. This process is continued at the end of each game until the match is completed.

Games won and lost will determine the winner of the match and the league standings will be determined on the basis of matches won and lost.
