Reno, Nevada Pacific States Open Won By Bob West

The fates were kind to the Nevada State Association, and we were favored with beautiful 80 degree weather for the inaugural event on our new 14 court layout. The local membership barely completed the construction on the morning of the first competitions.

Bob West, of Scappoose, Oregon turned in his usual fine performance and out-paced the field of fine competitors who came to Reno to help us initiate our new facilities. He was closely followed by Sam Jensen, of Salinas, California who lost only to West, and the always tough competitor, Fred "Flash" Lavett, of Seaside, California edged Lee Bousfield of Nevada City, California. West's 78.8 per cent performance was featured by games with 12, 9, 7, and 7 four deads. Group one: Bob West, Scappoose, Oregon, 78.8 per cent; Sam Jensen, Salinas, California, 53.9 per cent; "Flash" Lavett, Seaside, California, 52.9 per cent; Lee Bousfield, Nevada City, California, 50.5 per cent; Monty Jones, Grass Valley, California, 48.8 per cent; George Palmer, Omo Ranch, California 46.9 per cent; Boyce Miller, Reno, Nevada, 35.6 per cent; Oscar Statham, Sacramento, California, 36.2 per cent.

Former California champion Stella Gates of Pacific Grove, California, out-classed the field in the women's competition with 32.7 per cent followed by Ester Jensen, Salinas, California, 20 per cent; Alice Bousfield, Nevada City,

Burgess In Clean Sweep Of Texas Shamrock Open

A total of 59 men, women and junior horseshoe pitchers from throughout the state came to the courts of the Lakeside Club in San Antonio to help usher in the 1970 horseshoe pitching season.

Marvin Burgess, 1969 state champion came through the Class AA games without a loss. Rod Hatton and Jim Woodson followed with identical 4 wins and 2 losses, with Rod being awarded second place on the strength of a higher ringer percentage.

Bob Findley came down from El Paso for a taste of competitive horseshoe pitching. When his competitive day was over he found himself the proud owner of the Class A trophy for first place.

In Class B, Jimmy Gonzales ran away from his competition by averaging over 42 percent in his five games.

John Busby started off the new season right by winning the C event.

Class D was something else again. Eighteen fired up members came to compete in this class. To resolve the congestion, the tournament committee changed the event to a doubles contest. Jesse Hoover and Red McGuffin took the top place.

In Class E Danny Foy showed the way with a record of 9 wins and 1 loss.

Linda McGuffin continued her victory streak by topping the Ladies class again.

Einar Larson, Minnesota Pitcher, Fatally Injured

Einar Larson, 54, of the Minneapolis Horseshoe Club was fatally injured in a car accident April 21, 1970. Born and raised in Hibbing, Minnesota, a diligent and willing worker in projecting the game of horseshoe, his knack of making ringers quickly advanced him from the lower classes to class A within a period of three years. He will be sadly missed by all members of the horseshoe game.

"Want A 1970 World Tournament Brochure?"

Southern California Association is happy to announce that we are making our Program Brochure available to those unfortunate members who cannot come to California.
