Curt Day Regains World Horseshoe Title

Wins All 35 Games: Averages 84.95

Curt Day swept through all 35 games to win the 1971 World Horseshoe title at Mountain View Park in Middlesex, N. J., thereby regaining the crown he won back in 1966 at Murray, Utah.

The Hoosier ringer artist from Frankfort, Ind. with a reverse ¾ turn dominated the field from the start to become the ninth player to win the title without loss of a single game. Only twice did an opponent reach the 40 point mark against Curt and both times came in the final night after he had clinched the championship.

The champ was remarkable in his consistency. Only three times did he dip below the 80% ringer level and then by only a whisker. Four times he went over the 90% barrier, his best game being 67 ringers in 72 shoes for 93.06.

Only three players went through the opening night of the 35 game schedule undefeated and this was a sign of things to come for they eventually finished one, two, three, Elmer Hohl of Canada placing 2nd and John Walker of California annexing 3rd place.

Walker dropped his first game to Day on the second night of play and Hohl suffered his first reverse on the third evening at the hands of Clyde Martz.

Elmer Hohl posted the highest single game ringer percentage in the final game of the tourney with 71 ringers in 78 pitches for 94.67 against Mark Seibold.

The longest game was 164 shoes in which Bob West of Oregon defeated former World Champ Paul Focht of Ohio 52-43, West tossing 144 ringers and Focht 140.

Seventeen year old lefthanded Mark Seibold of Huntington, Ind. was the big surprise of the tourney. In his first year of competition in the Men's division after having won two World Junior titles Mark qualified with 518 points, won 28 of his 35 games with an overall ringer average of 78.92 to place 4th, thereby winning the award for the outstanding first year entrant. Three of his losses came on the first night of play and three more on the final evening. Only the loss to Curt Day marred his record on the other four nights. He also had the most shoes pitched overall, 3122. Clyde Martz of Pittsburgh finished strong with 12 consecutive wins to place 5th with an average of just over 80%.

Former champ Harold Reno took 6th while Ray Martin of Illinois, Bob West of Oregon, defending champ Danny Kuchcinski and Doc Maison of Michigan completed the top ten, each winning 25 and losing 10.

Defending champion Dan Kuchcinski with only one competitive tourney under his belt prior to the World Tourney was somewhat off his pace of the past two years. He suffered from the effects of a strenuous exhibition and demonstration schedule and was ten pounds underweight.

Ray Martin was the high qualifier with 540 points in his 200 shoes, but got off to a bad start in his games, nevertheless he finished with better than 80 percent ringers and tossed more ringers than any other player.

Jim Knisley of Ohio in 11th spot had the second highest single game ringer percentage, 94.23.

Paul Focht of Ohio, a former World champion, finished in the 13th slot, but he was the only one to push the champion down to the wire, scoring 46 points against Curt Day and pushing Bob West to the tournament's longest game, 164 shoes.

Rich Maroni of Pennsylvania who won Class C in the 1969 tournament at Erie, and Burl Taylor of Greencastle, Ind. made the championship 36 man division for the first time.

Ted Allen of Colorado, one of horseshoe's all time greats finished far down the list and is only a shadow of his former self. Nevertheless Ted enjoys the respect and admiration of all, players and fans alike and is still capable of tossing plenty of ringers as his 82 ringers in 102 shoes against Curt Day will testify.

Jack Giddes of the Middlesex club was the only New Jersey player in the top 36 and gave an excellent account of himself.

Jerry Schneider, the hard working California player, qualified with 529 points, but was forced to retire due to illness at the end of his third game the opening night. He had won two of these games, averaging 77.4 in the process. Jim Knisley of Ohio ended his game with Seibold by tossing 40 consecutive

Find Kinsley of only ended insignine with Schuber by bissing to consecutive ringers, the high run of the tournament. Curl Day's long string was 34, while Elmer Hohl ended one game with 26 and started the next with 14. Carl Steinfeldt of New York and Dale Dixon of Iowa both qualified high

Carl Steinfeldt of New York and Dale Dixon of Iowa both qualified high enough for the championship class with 525 and 502 points respectively, but Steinfeldt withdrew because of leg cramps and Dixon took his option of playing in the Intermediate division.

World Tournament Highlights

Apart from ringers made and missed, the big story of the 1971 World Tournament at Mountain View Park in Middlesex, N. J. was the weather or to be more specific, the deluge of rain which hit the courts the first few days.

The day the tourney opened a Middlesex paper ran a picture of the courts, the NHPA office trailer and surrounding areas, showing the entire area under more than a foot of water, calling it Mountain View Lake.

Rain made a shambles of qualifying on the first two days, Saturday and Sunday. Tuesday night rain interrupted both qualifying and the Junior tournament. Wednesday night the Seniors and Intermediates were rained out half way through their schedule and had to come back the next afternoon to complete the schedule.

On Friday, the day before the tournament opened, the courts were flooded with a downpour of four inches of rain in an hour. It rained all night and much of the next day.

The excellent construction of the Middlesex courts enabled the grounds crew headed by Ron Vogel to get the courts in shape for play very quickly after each downpour. No grounds crew ever did more or better work under difficult circumstances, so hats off to Ron Vogel and his entire crew.

Also in the hats off category is Al Price who handled publicity and public relations.

A famous New York City pair of TV sportscasters (Rick Barry, the famous pro basketball player and Jim Bouton of Big League baseball fame) filmed and broadcast five segments on "Eyewitness Sports."

CBS evening news did shots of Curt Day, Elmer Hohl and the tournament in general on the final day.

Another TV chain of 127 stations showed portions of the tournament and interviews.

Ruth Hangen, the Women's champ appeared on a special TV show.

Little "Deadeye" Walter Ray Williams, the Junior champ appeared on the nationally televised Dick Cavett show and was a real hit.

The prestigious New York Times, best known newspaper in the entire country has always been impossible to crack as far as horseshoe is concerned, but they sent reporters to the tournament twice and ran a half page feature story.

Every night the bleachers were filled to overflowing with fans and there was not enough standing room to accommodate the remainder of the fans.

Herb Boseker was in charge of the Middlesex Club's souvenir and concession stand which was the largest in World tourney history. Herb was one busy man for he was also the right hand man for Hal Hanania and served NHPA Secretary Bob Pence in many ways. Ben Thevenant and Vince Yannetti of the Housing Committee also found

Ben Thevenant and Vince Yannetti of the Housing Committee also found plenty to keep them occupied as did Paul Puglise of the New Jersey association who rendered much service to NHPA Secretary Bob Pence.

The office force who did the statistical work for NHPA president Ralph Dykes and Secretary Bob Pence consisted of Sam Goodlander of Ohio, Gil Kimball of Michigan, Genevieve McNally of California and Lois Pence of Indiana. They did a smooth, efficient job and enabled Ralph Dykes to keep his big information board up to date with results throughout the tourney.

The judges on the courts were under the direction of Leo McGrath and consisted of Walt Wilhoite of Indiana, Roger Bolduc and Al Lord of Maine, and Vince Yannetti of New Jersey throughout most of the tournament.

Vince Yannetti of New Jersey throughout most of the tournament. For those interested in qualifying scores after Steinfeldt and Dixon withdrew it took 489 points to make the championship 36 man class. Twenty-eight men bettered 500 points in the 200 shoe qualifying.

After the withdrawals of Stan Manker, Dale Carson, Henry Franke, Floyd Toole, Lee Jacobs, Lee Davis and Norris Shepherd in order to play in the Senior and Intermediate Divisions it took 444 points in the qualifying round to make Class B, 406 points to make Class C and after several other dropouts, 379 points to make Class D.

There were 341 entries in the tournament of which 232 participated in round robin finals which means that 109 players failed to make a class.

NHPA Awards To Eberhart, Sheppard, Saari

Special NHPA Awards were given at the World tournament to Dale Eberhart, Pete Sheppard and Jim Saari in recognition of their outstanding contributions to the game and the national association on the state or local level.

Dale Eberhart, president of the Middlesex Horseshoe Club did an outstanding piece of work guiding the 1971 World Tournament host club and also in putting together the program brochure for the tournament — a 64 page publication attractive in its format and full of vital information about the game, the NHPA and the World Tournament.

Pete Sheppard, of Worcester, Mass. has been Regional Director for the New England States for the past year, where he has not only worked with all the state associations but has also helped organize a number of new local clubs. Horseshoe is on the upswing in the New England area and Pete is just the man to help put it all together in that area. He has also been of tremendous aid to NHPA president Ralph Dykes and Secretary Bob Pence in the past two World Tournaments.

Jim Saari is the young and energetic school teacher who has served as Secretary-Treasurer of the big Washington State Horseshoe Pitchers' Association for the past several years where he has built up a big, active and well co-ordinated organization that is challenging Indiana and Ohio for the most NHPA members. The NHPA needs more young blood of the type Jim Saari has to offer.

Hall Of Fame Inducts Leland Mortenson, Jimmy Risk, Fred Brust, John Gordon, Mrs. Lanham

Five famous horseshoe personalities of yesteryear and the distant past were inducted into the Horseshoe Pitching Hall of Fame in ceremonies during the 1971 World Tournament in Middlesex.

The voting procedures were changed for this one year in order to honor figures of the past before they were forgotten.

Only two of the five inducted this year are still living and of these only Jimmy Risk of Montpelier, Ind. and St. Petersburg, Fla. was able to be on hand for the ceremonies. Leland Mortenson of Des Moines, Iowa was unable to attend because of poor health while the other three are all deceased; Fred Brust of Columbus, Ohio, John Gordon of Los Angeles, Calif. and Mrs. C. A. Lanham of Bloomington, Ill.

JIMMY RISK, now living in St. Petersburg, Fla., who started his horseshoe pitching career as a "boy wonder" in Montpelier, Ind. back in 1926 never won the World title, but he came within a whisker several times and went on to become the best known and most accomplished exhibition and trick shot horseshoe pitcher in the history of the game.

Jimmy's first World tourney was as a 14 year old in 1927 at St. Petersburg Sunshine Pleasure Club courts in Florida. He won 25 straight games to lead the prelims and then finished 2nd to Charlie Davis in the finals, winning 28 and losing five games.

Risk continued to be a top contender each year thereafter through 1935. Meanwhile Jimmy had built up a reputation and following by his exhibitions featuring trick and fancy ringer tossing. Performing on the stage, at fairs, local horseshoe clubs, schools, YMCAs and the like Jimmy traveled the entire country including Canada and became a great ambassador of the game. He had personality and a flair for showmanship that made him extremely popular with horseshoe players, fans and spectators alike. Meanwhile in 1930 he won a national meet conducted by the soon to be defunct American Horseshoe Association and he also won the Indiana state tournament year after year.

With the coming of World War II, Jimmy joined a USO entertainment troupe and gave horseshoe exhibitions for the armed services all over the world including Europe, Japan, the Philippines, Africa and Asia.

During this period he helped the NHPA President install horseshoe courts at the White House for President Harry S. Truman and gave exhibitions there. Admiral Chester K. Nimitz was a great follower of the game and a friend of Jimmy's and arranged this White House exhibition and many others.

Following World War II Jimmy continued to give exhibitions and returned to USO shows to entertain the troops in Korea in the 1950s.

During the past few years Jimmy has continued to be an NHPA member and maintained contact with the game through the Florida State Association. Suffering a heart attack a few months ago he was hospitalized for two weeks, but his doctor allowed him to come to Middlesex for the Hall of Fame ceremonies where he renewed many old friendships.

LELAND MORTENSON of Des Moines, Iowa became connected with the game and the NHPA back in 1921 and soon made his mark as a promoter, organizer and director of big tournaments in the Hawkeye state, which was the center of horseshoe activity in those years. He also became the recognized historian of the game in the early years and his articles and writings have enabled the organization to keep track of events of the early years which would have otherwise been lost.

For years he conducted the tournaments at the huge Iowa State Fair and when the NHPA was unable to hold official World Tournaments in the years 1936 through 1939 he organized, promoted and conducted the annual Midwest National in Des Moines. These tournaments were in every respect true World Tournaments except for official sanction. They provided a focus and prestige for the game which was vitally necessary and enabled the national organization to continue.

All of the top pitchers in the country attended these Midwest Nationals. Ted Allen won the 1936, 1938 and 1939 events and Fernando Isais the 1937 tourney. 80 percent ringers was bettered by the winners each year.

The success of the Midwest National during these years made it possible for an official World Tournament to be conducted on the same courts in 1940 and again Leland Mortenson was a moving spirit behind the scene.

Leland continued to promote and conduct tournaments in Iowa after World War II and was active in the game until failing health in recent years has forced him to curtail his activities. However, all the old time horseshoe pitching greats remember him with affection.

Unable to attend the Hall of Fame ceremonies in Middlesex, his plaque was accepted in his name by Ted Allen.

FRED BRUST of Columbus, Ohio, who died only a short time ago, had many things to qualify him for the Hall of Fame. He won the World title in St. Petersburg, Fla. in the 1919 tournament, became one of the founding fathers of the NHPA when it was organized and incorported as a non-profit association in 1921, was an NHPA vice-president and then went on to become the first to manufacture drop forged shoes for the express purpose of playing the game, thereby forming the present Ohio Horseshoe Company.

World Champion, founding father of the national association, NHPA official, promoter of the game in Ohio, pioneer in the manufacture of playing shoes and founder of the Ohio Horseshoe Company, Fred Brust is the only individual to qualify for the Hall of Fame both as a player and as a promoter and organizer. Thus he is eminently qualified and his Hall of Fame plaque was accepted for his family by Stan Manker, representative of the Ohio Horseshoe Company at Middlesex.

JOHN GORDON of California was for many years not only a promoter and organizer of horseshoe tournaments and clubs in California but he became the best known patron and sponsor of the game. His aid enabled many top players from California to make their mark in the game back in the years before World War II.

John Gordon is perhaps best known to modern players as the original designer and manufacturer of the Gordon Spin On Horseshoe, which has been and is still used by so many players from coast to coast.

Mr. Gordon died a few years ago and his plaque was accepted for his family by Jim Weeks, Secretary of the Southern California Association.

MRS. C. A. LANHAM of Bloomington, Ill. becomes the second woman to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. A lefthanded player, she completely dominated the Women's division all through the 1920s.

Entering seven World Tournaments, Mrs. Lanham won six of them and lost the other one by a one game margin. In this time she averaged better than 50 percent ringers which was a noteworthy feat considering the type of shoes and courts in use during those years.

Mrs. Lanham won a total of 69 games and lost only four in the seven World tournaments she took part in — a truly remarkable record worthy of Hall of Fame honors.

The Hall of Fame ceremonies at Middlesex were conducted by Carl von der Lancken of New York, who served as chairman of the selection committee.

Thus the Horseshoe Pitching Hall of Fame now has 24 members, 11 of whom are deceased and whose records in the game date all the way back from the current champion, Curt Day, to Frank Jackson of Iowa, winner of the first World Tournament 62 years ago in 1909.

Wilbur Kabel Wins Another Class B Title

Back in the 1960 World tourney in Muncie, Ind., Wilbur Kabel of Ohio narrowly missed qualifying for the championship division and went on to win Class B. This year at Middlesex he did the same thing, winning Class B with the loss of only one game in both finals and preliminaries.

Kabel thus joins Harry Page of Iowa as the only players to ever win the Class B title two different years.

Another Buckeye who is usually in the championship division, Glenn Riffle, took runner-up honors. A newcomer to World tournament play, Al Stockholm of New York placed 3rd and Russ DeHart of Indiana took 4th.

Curt Over of Pennsylvania was the only one to defeat Kabel, winning 50-41 in the finals.

Kabel's ringer average was 76.3 in the prelims and 78.8 in the finals. The ringer averages for the entire class were extremely high with no setups in the entire field of 36 players.

Girls' Crown To Jenny Reno of Ohio

Jenny Reno of Lucasville, Ohio, daughter of Ottie Reno, grabbed the championship of the Girl's division in the World tournament at Middlesex, N. J. by edging out a fellow Buckeye Connie Cool of Greenville.

Jennifer, to use her full name, won all five games in the finals and averaged 39.7 percent ringers. Connie's only loss was to Jenny in a game which was a replay due to a scoring "snafu" when the two met in the first round. The "scoring snafu" game had been a ding dong battle which could have gone either way.

Former champion Mary Lee of New York City placed 3rd and led the qualifiers with 83 points and 22 ringers in her 50 shoes. Once again Mary Lee handicapped herself by pitching the full men's distance of 40 feet.

Wally Shipley won the award last year while serving in the same capacity at the tournament in South Gate, Calif. Others who have won the Stokes Memorial Award in past years are Elmer Beller, Archie and Katie Gregson of California, Bob Pence and Harold and Mary Craig, all of Indiana, Ottie Reno and Leo McGrath, both of Ohio, Ted Allen of Colorado, Ellis Cobb of Illinois, Reinhard Backer of Utah, Irvin Carlberg of Michigan, Will Gullickson of North Dakota and NHPA President Ralph Dykes of Illinois.

New England Director Reports

By Peter Shepard

At the outset, I wish to take this opportunity to thank the Horseshoe Pitchers News Digest for the excellent coverage they have given us of the tournaments held in the New England states in the past month. Our state secretaries and tournament directors are to be commended for the wonderful job they have done in getting the information in to the Digest. We trust they shall continue their good work as I am certain we all enjoy the articles submitted.

On June 20th and 27th I was at the West Side Horseshoe Club for the Massachusetts Open tournaments. The weather was just beautiful, clear, sunny and enjoyable. On July 10th and 11th it was my pleasure to receive an invitation to attend the Maine Open tournaments. I wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Herfurth for the extra prizes they donated, and once again I must comment about the great weather we had. I personally wish to thank the Keene Horseshoe Club for their excellently planned tournament. Also, I wish to thank Mr. Roger Bolduc, New England tournament director for the excellent prizes he donated for tournament use.

We are setting horseshoe courts up at West Boylston American Legion in West Boylston, Massachusetts. They have 5 courts ready to play on. The Elks Club in Hudson, Massachusetts is beginning to move into the horseshoe world as their plans call for 4 courts, and already work has begun.

It was a pleasure to talk with Mr. Sweeney, state secretary from Massachusetts, Walter Pilitz from New Hampshire, Thompson from Rhode Island, Wood from Maine, and Van Dyne from Connecticut in the past month. We discussed ways and means of improving our sport so that we all can get the most out of it.

New England horseshoe pitchers had better keep an eye on our Class A Juniors, Pepin, Kinia and Thibeault from Maine. These three gentlemen have had playoffs at the Maine and New Hampshire Open and to them I say, "A wonderful accomplishment, keep up with this great effort in horseshoe pitching."

We have been blessed with such tremendous weather in the past eight weeks in New England we should all take time out to thank the good Lord for looking after us in such a fine manner that we may better enjoy our horseshoe activities. Ours is a sport that can only take place outdoors at the present time, so let's all give thanks.

McVicar Loses Playoff To Lou Pitney In Seaside (No. Calif.) Class C

Seaside's Lou Pitney pulled out a spine tingling 52-46 playoff win over Bruce McVicar of Oakland's Arroyo Viejo club after the tourney title went up for grabs with the first place tie. McVicar, a young 75 years, rallied time and time again in the playoff but finally bowed to Pitney's ringer barrage. New pitcher Don Wheeler of Oakland was third. Al Crossman of Vallejo was tops in Group II, winning six straight matches.

Clyde Martz Wins The Dormont, Pennsylvania Open

After several years of coming close, Clyde Martz, Pennsylvania champion, was finally able to win the Dormont Open Horseshoe Tournament. While many of the pitchers were having an off day, Clyde had an exceptional tournament. He almost had a perfect game against Clair Bruce, throwing 31 ringers out of 32 shoes, and was in the near '90's against Zadroga and Engle. However, you guessed it! The 67 year old gentleman from Baltimore, Dale Carson, stepped up and thumped 37 year old Cyde good and proper in the seventh round when it looked like no one could beat him. Dale looked every bit the champion he truly is during that game.

It looked like he one could be game. truly is during that game. In Class B Frank Kilinsky edged out Charles Semans, Ed Blum, and Clyde Falk in the play-off of a class that ended in a four way tie. Although Frank did not average as high as he normally does, he was getting the ringers when they counted.

In Class C Jake Fiore of Wexford, Pennsylvania defeated Cyril Enders which also ended in a tie. George Fichter emerged the victor in Class D which again had ended in a tie after the normal round-robin play. The success of this tournament was due in large part to the fine organization of Michael Riedl, president of the Dormont Horseshoe Club, and his staff of able workers.

Gonzales Gallops To Golden Gate Classic Title

Jesse Gonzales extended his consecutive win streak to 34 games and pitched at a 75.7% clip in fashioning seven straight wins at Golden Gate Park, San Francisco. Fred Lavett, Monty Latino and Rueben Lee were all bunched at 3 games back with Lavett of Seaside grabbing the second place trophy by percentage. Defending champion, John Pratt of Sacramento, was fifth. Les Anderson of Oakland missed the top group in qualifying rounds, but that was all Les did wrong as he annexed seven straight wins in the Class A round-robin. Bill McNally of Oakland's Arroyo Viejo club was second and Clarence Cummins of the Santa Clara County Club was third.

In Memoriam

Word has been received of the passing of Harvey Clear, past secretary of the NHPA and also past president and secretary of the Northern California Horseshoe Pitchers Association. Harvey started his pitching career with the Mosswood Horseshoe Club of Oakland in 1934. He was a staunch supporter of the game and in the 1930's organized and held many tournaments in the Bay area. Unable to pitch in later years, he became very active in supporting tournaments in Northern California, receiving much recognition.

Harvey finally moved to Bradenton, Florida where he also became very active in the tournaments and activities in that state. Very popular with all pitchers, he was an honorable mention for the Hall of Fame a few years ago.

The sympathy of the NHPA, the Northern California Association and all of his Florida friends are extended to his loved ones.

Loren Crooks of Cumberland, Ohio died on July 5, 1971. Loren was a wellknown and respected veteran tournament pitcher. He had been employed as a strip coal mining crane operator and until several years ago when he suffered a heart attack, he had been a strong competitor yet had a most friendly attitude in all his ways.

The Ohio Buckeye State officers and members extend sincere sympathy to his widow and family. We will cherish his memory.
