NHPA PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By Wally Shipley

Joe Goldstein reports on his publicity results concerning the 1977 World Tournament as follows:

Dear Wally:

"Many additional clips have come in since the report I sent you on August 15, primarily results from the world championships sent out by United Press International, with David providing the copy, and Associated Press, which I arranged prior to the tournament.

By combining the results indicated in the initial report, and this week's additions, it is evident the stories prior to the tournament received very strong coverage. Here, then, is the complete tally.

United Press International story for July 24... New York Times, Richmond Times-Dispatch, St. Louis Post-Dispatch, Wheeling W. Va. Herald, Arlington Heights, Ill., Herald and vie inter-connected papers in Chicago area, Lisbon Ohio Journal, Naples Fla. News, Portland, Maine Telegram.

Associated Press story for July 31... Rochester Democrat-Chronicle, Baltimore News-American, Youngstown Vindicator, Fort Wayne, Ind. Post Tribune, Binghamton NY Press, Detroit Free Press, Reading Pa. Eagle, Norwich NY Sun, Rockford, Ill. Register-Star, Asbury Park, N.J. Press, Willingboro, N.J. Times, Springfield, Ohio News-Sun, Chattanooga, Tenn. Times, Panama City, Fla. News-Herald.

The story we mailed prior to the tournament start ran in the Cleveland Plain Dealer, Jackson, Tenn. Sun and Columbus Dispatch.

The how-to diagram we mailed ran in the Chicago Sun-Times, East Palestine (these are Ohio sites) Leader, Lancaster Eagle-Gazette, Niles Times, Hamilton Journal-News, Sandusky Register, Logan News, Akron Beacon Journal, Seattle Wash. Times, St. Louis Post-Dispatch, Winston-Salem, N.C. Journal.

The Chicago Tribune ran a story on material we provided that went out on their news service and appeared in Bradenton, Fla. as well as in the Tribune.

The story we arranged in the New York News went out on their wire service as well and appeared, in addition to the News, in the Detroit Free Press, the Easton, Pa. Express.

The Associated Press story for August 1, which was done with material we provided, ran in the Baltimore Evening Sun, Columbus Dispatch, Binghamton Press, Chicago Sun-Times, Bridgeport, Conn. Tribune, Mayfield, Ky. Messenger, Auburn, N.Y. Citizen, St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Valdosta, Ga. Times, Colorado Springs Telegraph, Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, Batavia, N.Y. News, Utica, N.Y. Observer-Dispatch, Bangor, Maine News, Gloversville, N.Y. Leader-Herald, Jamestown, N.Y. Post-Journal, Asbury Park, N.J. Press and Erie, Pa. News.

Results stories, both during the event and at its conclusion, ran in the Richmond, Ind. Palladium-Item, the Sayre, Pa. Times, Knoxville Journal (Dave called this one in, among a large group in this category), Portland, Maine News, Dunkirk, N.Y. Observer, Wellsville, N.Y. Spectator, Amsterdam, N.Y. Recorder, Jamestown, N.Y. Post-Journal, Terre Haute, Ind. Tribune, Erie, Pa. Times, McKeesport, Pa. News, Anderson, Ind. Herald, Kansas City Star, Buffalo Evening News, N.Y. Post, Buffalo Courier-Express, Boston Globe, Providence Bulletin, Boston Herald-American, Torrington, Conn. Register, Courtland,

CORRECTION:

ART TYSON NEW TITLEHOLDER OVER NEW YORK STATE HORSESHOE PITCHERS FOR 1977

Due to a mis-interpretation of the 1977 New York state tournament results sent into the News Digest and published in the November issue, full championship honors should have gone to Art Tyson of Mt. Vernon, New York as being the 1977 New York state champion. He won the title after defeating Carl Steinfeldt of Rochester, two straight games in a playoff match for the championship.

Art started his pitching career back in 1969 and has improved steadily through the years, finalizing his efforts by winning the 1977 New York state championship. This was the first time he ever entered the New York state tournament.

He formerly lived in Connecticut and is a former Connecticut state champion having won that state title in 1973.

He has played in six World tournaments with his best effort being in 1974 when he finished 16th.

His other 1977 accomplishments are winning the Joe Zichella Open championship and later taking first place in the 1977 Joe Hardwick Extravaganza in which he again won over Carl Steinfeldt.

N.Y. Standard, Madisonville, Ky. Messenger, Attleboro, Mass. Sun Chronicle, Middletown, N.Y. Record, Ogdensburg, N.Y. Journal, Butler, Pa. Eagle, and Milwaukee, Journal.

Other than in the diagram mailing, I have not listed the dozens upon dozens of Ohio places that ran the above.

When all the stories are combined, I feel it adds up to an impressive list of cities that ran material." Unquote.

Best,

Joe Goldstein

Your President's personal comment:

It appears that we might have received more coverage in the newspapers in 1977 than we did in 1976. However, I was very disappointed that we did not receive any TV coverage as Goldstein thought we would. We did receive TV coverage in 1976. His excuse was that Greenville was not close to a metropolitan area.

If that is the case, then time will tell as to whether Goldstein can get Horseshoes some real TV and news media coverage and results in 1978 at Des Moines, Iowa.

Northern California was the winner for the second year for having the largest NHPA membership. We did not have the tabulation while at Greenville so we could not make the award at that time. I am happy to report that it has been sent and received by Lloyd Potter, president of the Northern California Association. My congratulations.

Don't forget to get your entry fee and reservations in early for the Valley of the Sun tournament in Mesa, Arizona on February 17-18-19. See you all there.

Sincerely,

Wally Shipley

COVER PICTURE... The idea for the design of the rocking chair shown this month belongs to Vernon Valdois of Derby, Kansas. Mr. Valdois discussed his idea with another avid horseshoe pitcher, Mr. Marines Tamboer of Wichita, Kansas. Mr. Tamboer is well known in horseshoe pitching circles, as he has been Kansas State Champion ten (10) times and has pitched in approximately ten (10) of twelve (12) World Tournaments. With Mr. Valdois' talent for coming up with the idea for constructing the rocking chair from horseshoes — and the welding ability possessed by Mr. Tamboer, the cover picture is the end result.

In Memoriam

The Balboa Park Horseshoe Club of San Diego was saddened by the recent passing of Edward Scheidt, aged 91. He served in the Navy for 30 years and was employed for 20 years by the city of San Diego as a street repair foreman. He was a charger member of the Balboa horseshoe club, a former city champion in the 1930's and an enthusiastic, dedicated pitcher. He continued playing until he was in his 80's, and whenever he was able to he would drop around to watch the tournaments and talk horseshoes.

Veteran members of the club recall that Scheidt was a fine gentleman both on and off the courts and that it was a pleasure to play the game with him and be in his company. The horseshoe club extends its sympathy to his wife, his son and grandchildren in their bereavement.

KOHLBERGER REGAINS ST. LOUIS FALL OPEN TITLE

The St. Louis Fall Open tournament was held on the Carondelet park courts in St. Louis, Missouri under ideal weather conditions and was a tremendous success. Harvey Kohlenberger from Millstadt, Illinois came on strong to regain the title that he once held having 7 straight victories. Ronald Wittlick, also from Illinois, took second place. Henry Franke, that fine old gentleman from Centralia, Illinois and a member of the NHPA Hall of Fame, wrapped up first place in Class B.

The last place man in class will drop a class for the next tournament. The first place man will advance a class. This makes for a better tournament plus it gives other people a chance to advance and get in the tournament. The main reason for the first forty-eight shooting and not by qualification alone is to give other pitchers, especially the new ones, a chance to get to pitch in the tournament.

All interested pitchers get their entry in early, the first forty-eight get to pitch. Already we have twenty-three entries paid up for the Spring Tourney. Each year this same tournament is held one Sunday after Mother's Day and one Sunday after Labor Day. If interested send 100 shoe score and five bucks to Al Arunski, 5914 Leona St., St. Louis, Mo. 63116. Thanks everyone.

RIoux REPEATS AS NEW ENGLAND CHAMP — FULFORD UPSETS WORLD CHAMP — KIENIA & DOMEY JUNIOR CHAMPS

Normand Rioux successfully defended his New England title with a perfect 15-0 record by defeating previously unbeaten Al Lord in his final match, 51-44. Lord led most of the way but Rioux overcame an eight-point deficit late in the game to pull away at the end. Rioux suffered through some disappointing tournaments earlier in the year, due mainly to long working hours and lack of practice. He was ready for this one, however. His quote for each opponent was, "See me after the game", followed by an 'all business' 76.5% average and high game of 93.3%. Lord was not far behind, at 75.2%, with five games in the 80's.

Debbie Fulford pulled off the major upset of the New England Championships by soundly defeating World Champion Debby Michaud 51-21 to take the Womens' title. She pitched 78.8% in that game, averaged 74.7% for the tournament, and pitched a high game of 82.1%, both personal new highs. All this while six months pregnant!

Bruce Kienia has taken up where his brother left off three years ago and captured the Boys' title with a 7-0-77.3% record. Earlier in the year Bruce pitched a perfect game. Included in his wins was a 51-48 marathon 118-shoe game against runnerup and defending champ Brian Simmons.

Janice Domey successfully defended her Girls' title with a playoff victory over Lisa Sumner. Earlier, the girls had traded wins in the twice-around schedule.

In ceremonies held during the membership meeting Percy Howe and Donald Kaddy, both from Massachusetts, were inducted into the New England Hall of Fame. New Hampshire's Larry Croteau and Pat Tarallo were honored as the year's Most Improved Pitchers.

For the first time in many years the tournament was held in Vermont, at the Springfield Horseshoe Club courts. The Vermont weather was perfect, the hosts were gracious, and the tournament was run smoothly. Thanks go to the entire club membership for doing a marvelous job.

BROOKLYN BRINGS A NEW "SWING" TO HORSESHOES

By Marge Ouellette

October 24th marked a new happening in the horseshoe pitching circle of entertainment. The Brooklyn Horseshoe Pitching Club held its First Annual Fund-Raising Dinner Dance at the Masonic Hall with over 150 in attendance from all over New York and New Jersey.

Helen Hager, president of the new up-and-coming club had the great honor to award a special plaque to our honored guest, the 1977 New York State Champion, Art Tyson and his Special Trainer, on and off the courts, Regina, both of Mount Vernon, New York.

On the list of other prestigious guests attending were Leo Ouellette, newly elected Vice President of the New York State Association, Bill McLeod, newly elected Tournament Director and Louis Gancos, Secretary-Treasurer, both of the New York State Association. Bill McLeod and Joseph Zichella will have the pleasure of hosting the 1978 N.Y.S. Championship Tournament at their New Rochelle Horseshoe Club courts.

The big event of the evening and a "first" in horseshoe pitching entertainment occurred when the mystical and enchanting Elaina performed her professional Belly Dancing for the attendance. The atmosphere of "Arabian Nights" was further enhanced when Elaina captured Phil Zozzaro, president of the New Jersey State Association, and dressed him in veils teaching him the art of Belly Dancing. She picked an excellent pupil, for it was not long before Phil was swaying and swiggling around the dance floor like Aladdin himself.

We were not going to let Phil have all the fun. Right after his magic carpet ride, the five-piece band did an hour special on those Fabulous Fifties. You would be surprised to see how many horseshoe pitchers can Rock 'N Roll Around the Clock. Everyone played the part of Elvis Presley, Chubby Checker and Brenda Lee. The dancing and singing turned the hands of the clock for one fun-filled evening.

Now you can see why the Club's slogan is "The Brooklyn Horseshoe Pitching Club — Home of the Ringer Swingers!!!"

For just a little history of our club we began in September of 1976 with only six members. . . Helen Hager, President, Tom Reitz, 1st Vice President, Louis Gancos, 2nd Vice President, Marge Ouellette, Secretary-Treasurer, Leo Ouellette, Tournament Director and Carmine Simeone, Publicity Committee. Through their efforts, time and devotion, the Brooklyn Club is proud to announce that we now have over 80 members and our goal is to obtain indoor horseshoe pitching facilities for our members. Over 50% of these members hold N.H.P.A. and State membership cards. 100% membership is our next goal.

A special note of thanks is given to the above members as well as the following members who gave of themselves to make our club and Dinner Dance a true success. . . Joseph Albano, Eddie Edwards, Frank Gatto, Frank Mitchell, their wives and the Simeone Family.

BOB TRAQUAIR RETAINS NEW HAMPSHIRE STATE TITLE; DEBBIE FULFORD TOPS LADIES — MIKE KIBBIE WINS JUNIORS SHERRY BROCHU JUNIOR GIRLS' CHAMP

By Tom Blake

Bob Traquair of the Keene Horseshoe Club won his second straight Class A state championship at Wheelock Park in Keene, N.H. sweeping all nine games averaging 73.5 per cent ringers in nearly six hours of competition showing his best form of the season.

Traquair's best percentage game was against Saunders when he carded 79.3 or 46 ringers out of 58 shoes pitched including 18 doubles.

Had not Debbie Fulford been reminded by her father, Don Pickering, of the impending State Tourney, she would have otherwise missed winning the 1977 New Hampshire Ladies Championship.

Using her low turn and a quarter pitch which worked to perfection from the 30-foot playing distance, she defeated all six Class A contestants rather easily. Her best game of the day was against Syble Stoddard, 50-31 with 28 ringers in 42 shoes for 70 percent.

In the Junior Class, Mike Kibbee proved that he had the right stuff champions are made of when he came from way behind in the final game to win his second Junior Boys State Championship. Ed Traquair won the Class B Title.

Sherry Brochu won the Junior Girls' state title by defeating Michelle Brochu and Monique Baillargeon.
