No. 10

FROM YOUR PRESIDENT . . . DAVE LOUCKS

It is difficult, if not impossible, to run a tournament, especially a World Tournament, that will please everyone. Ainsworth was no exception. While we tried a slightly different format that reduced the opportunity to move up in class and did away with preliminary round trophies, the NHPA Council felt that the addition of more than $12,000 in prize money, much of it going to the lower classes, would offset the natural reluctance of pitchers to try and accept change. To a large degree, I feel the format was a step in the right direction as the positive comments far outweighed the negative ones. However, for those who voiced their displeasure with the format, I did say that the Council would consider their comments and perhaps make some adjustments for Eau Claire. The NHPA Council plans to meet in November and will discuss this and several other important issues. Our decision will be published early next year in the News Digest.

At the Convention in Ainsworth, we undertook a new method of delegate voting that saved time and enabled us to develop a list of actual vote count by Charter. One of the purposes was to be able to inform all members and Digest readers of how their charter delegates and other states, voted on the issues. As I indicated in the Sept. Digest, six of the seven proposals passed. Surprisingly, the one that most people thought beforehand had the best chance, was the lone proposal to fail. It was the proposal to divide the country into three sections and allow for rotating world tournaments as well as setting up the divisions for Regional Championship Play. It failed to get the required two-thirds by a mere 2 votes. I found it interesting that of the 10 charters whose majority delegates voted against, 7 were contiguous states and 5 of them are located in what would have been the Central Region, the area that would have had the least amount of travel. For your interest, actual voting results by Charter follow:

RINGERS REMEMBERED

By KEVIN CONE

The youngest woman to ever win the World Title is Sue Gillespie Kuchcinski. Her first World Championship came in 1962 when she was a mere 15 years old in which she averaged 65.3%. A superb effort since she had taken the game up just two years previously when 13 years old. Kuchcinski won the title in 1964 averaging 81.1% and also in 1965 averaging 75.9%, thus winning it three times by age 18.

There were two world Tournament records broken at this year's event in Ainsworth, Nebraska. The first being in the Girl's division when Sandy McLachlin of Canada and Debby Bestul of Wisconsin played the final game for the world title. They had a combined ringer Pct. of 71.6%. The old record was 71.4% by Sue Williams, Mi and Audrey Reno, OH in 1980. Sandy won 40-26 pitching 57 ringers out of 76 shoes for an even 75% compared to Debby's 52 of 76 for 68.4%. McLachlin became the first Canadian to win the Girl's World Championship and also stopped Bestul from becoming the first girl to win the title three consecutive years. They had 10 four deads just missing the record of 13 four deads in a game.

The other World Tournament record was set by Willard "Spud" Napier, the new Senior Mens World Champion. He averaged 70.6% setting a record for an 11 game complete tournament average.

I am starting to gather information together to come up with All Time World Records in sanctioned tournaments instead of just having World Tournament records. I would appreciate it if anyone that has access to statistics you think might be a world record would send me a copy to help this project.

Trivia question: What man's career has spanned the longest in regards to when he first made the championship group to his last time?

PECAN FESTIVAL HORSESHOE TOURNAMENT

The National Pecan Festival's Sesquicentennial Horseshoe Tournament will be held at Tift Park and the Albany Civic Center on Saturday, October 18, starting at 9 A.M. Pitchers entering the tournament will be divided into four groups and will pitch a round robin handicap to determine the winner of each group. Under the handicap system, anyone can win.

The four group winners will advance to the finals which will be held at the Civic Center at 7:30 P.M. in the Boy Scouts 'Pitch for the Scouts' area. Festival goers will thus have a chance to see some good horseshoe pitching and receive tips on 'how to do it'. Those wishing to enter the tournament must send name, address, phone number, ringer percentage, and $12 to Charles Peterson, 2107B Sherwood Ct., Albany, GA 31707, Ph. 912/883-7387 to arrive not later than October 14.

The Albany Club is aiding the Scouts in a money raising effort to further 'scouting'. State horseshoe pitching champions will give pitching exhibitions at various times. Two courts will be set up and be available Friday and Saturday at the Civic Center and Sesquicentennial celebrators can pitch 10 shoes for 50¢... with a chance to win one or more valuable prizes. So, practice up! Make a pitch for the Scouts... and you'll always be a winner! Each contestant MUST sign this liability release or will not be allowed to pitch:

I hereby waive and release any and all members of the Albany Horseshoe Club, the National Pecan Festival, Inc., the Albany Chamber of Commerce, the County of Dougherty, the Albany Civic Center, all officers, employees, agents and servants of the afore stated organizations, and all fellow participants of this event, for any and all action, causes of loss, injury which I may suffer as a participant in the National Pecan Festival's Sesquicentennial Horseshoe Pitching Tournament. I further state that I have trained properly and that I am physically able to participate.

NHPA REGIONAL DIRECTOR'S REPORT

By GENE VAN SANT

"Promoting the game of horseshoes is an important function of the Regional Directors and Assistants. George Engelmann, from Storm Lake, Iowa, an Assistant Regional Director for Region #14 more than fills the bill. Space does not permit me to list all of the tournaments and leagues that George has been instrumental in starting and running. George was born in 1913 in Illinois. He started pitching castoff shoes for work horses. He moved to the Storm Lake area in 1930 bringing horseshoe pitching enthusiasm to northwest Iowa.

In 1961 George organized horseshoes in Alta, Iowa. In 1963 he joined his eight man Alta team with 13 other eight-man teams to form the five county horseshoe league. He has directed this league for the past 22 years. In 1963 he got the Buena Vista Fair Board to put in six courts at the Alta Fair grounds. From that time on he has been Tournament Director of Horseshoes at the Fair. From 1963 to 1984 there have been 82 events with 2800 entrants to date.

In 1965 he organized the Clay County Fair Tournament in Spencer, Iowa. There has been a total of 5135 entries from 75 different towns. He has always set aside two separate days for junior pitchers, teaching them the game. The Tournament has averaged 45 junior pitchers each day of the Fair. George also started horseshoes at the Sac County Fair in Sac City, Iowa. For the past seven years he has held junior events on two of the three Fair days. In 1984 junior pitchers numbered 104.

In all, George has organized and promoted 77 tournaments and helped with many others. He has spent at least 297 days at tournament sites, plus countless hours of preparation and miles driven. All this because he loves the game and people. For your service to horseshoes, the NHPA, and the Regional Director Program, thank you, George."

"John Grohol is the Regional Director for Region #32, Alaska. John is a newcomer to the NHPA and horseshoes compared to George Engelman, but his efforts in promoting horseshoes in Alaska is just as outstanding. John was introduced to organized horseshoes in Austin, Texas while competing in the Police Olympics. At that time the then President of the NHPA, Wally Shipley, asked John to try and organize horseshoes in Alaska. He joined the NHPA and returned to Alaska. There was no organized horseshoes in Alaska, but with the help of Donnie Roberts and Wally, he recruited members and Alaska was granted a charter. The next two summers saw them grow to over 100 members. They had no regulation courts to start with but in less than three years John and the members in Alaska have constructed 12 courts at the Eagle River Lions Park, and 12 at the Alaska State Fair grounds in Palmer, Alaska, 8 at Mountain View Lions Park in Anchorage, and most recently the new courts on the Delany Park strip in downtown Anchorage. The biggest problem in Alaska is the short season. Three months, maybe four at the most. Members who would like to compete in events are very often unable to do so because of their work schedules. Construction booms in the summer. John feels there are many things that can be done to promote horseshoes but the summer seems to vanish before he knows it. With court construction of the way, more time can be spent on promoting and organizing. Press coverage has been excellent on activities with new articles appearing in the Anchorage Daily News, Alaska's largest daily paper.

In Alaska they start off the season with the 'Ice Classic' but have to wait till the ground thaws: end of May. Two tournaments are held in July along with the state doubles championships. Another tournament in August with the state tournament being held the 23rd and 24th of August. The weather in September is very uncertain so no tournaments are scheduled.

As one of the NHPA's newest charters we should have John and all of his fellow members take a bow for their efforts in the promotion of our game in the state of Alaska."

HERE AND THERE . . . AT THE W. T.

By GLEN PORTT

Ainsworth, Nebraska... great people... wide open spaces... and a great World Tournament. So "horseshoes" is boring? Not exciting? Baloney!

How could anyone watching the Women's finals not be sitting on the edge of his or her seat? Three time World's Champion Phyllis Negaard and two time champion Debbie Michaud appeared headed for a playoff when they went into their final game tied at 13-1. Negaard defeated Lois Bolstad, S.D. in an easy 41-11 match. However, Debbie was having her troubles with California's ace, Sharon Paddock, who was pitching in her first W.T. event. In a hard fought game, Paddock emerged the winner, thus handing Negaard her 4th World Championship.

In the men's division, Kevin Cone, playing Mark Siebold in the next to last game, needed a win to tie Mark and possibly go on and win the title... but it was not to be. In a game where both players gave their all, Mark pulled ahead, won, and clinched his 2nd world title.

The Junior Boys put on a great show and, if you weren't there, let me say the NHPA has some real TIGERS coming along. Although most of the crowd was disappointed that Alan Francis did not set a new world record with 5 consecutive world championships, he pitched well and will be pitching in the men's division next year. And who's to say he won't make it all the way? 18 year old Walter Ray did it in '78... it can be done!

Did you notice... that Merlin Potts beat Walter Ray in a crucial, thrilling game which put W.R. 2 games behind Seibold... and practically quenched his hopes for a repeat championship? Potts is one of our great pitchers... and does well in the W.T.'s year after year. Son Roger is not doing badly either. Is the "World" going to the Potts? Who knows?

How about these items?... Nebraska coming up with 166 entries with Colorado and Wyoming chipping in with 46 more to give the Tri-State organization a grand total of 212... about 27.2% of the total W.T. entries... 72 year old Leroy Rowe winning 16 games in Class A... Oscar Manns knocking off both Knisley and Williams very early in the tournament.

Canadian stars Diane Cantin and Andre Leclerc not getting their entries postmarked in time to qualify for pitching... prominent pitchers Carl Steinfeldt, Dave Lipovsky, Debbie Pickering and Boni Boser not entering the tournament... Renee Hix (now Cowan) back, pitching great, looking great... and, hey, didn't all the ladies?

NHPA PROMOTION COMMITTEE REPORT

By SOL BERMAN

Copies of the 1986 World Championship video tapes are now available. The Hall of Fame and Awards Ceremony and some footage of the Tournament.

Over the years the importance of the little man was mentioned repeatedly. We're told that his presence and financial support are vital to the success of the World Championship. We're also told repeatedly that he does not receive enough in prize money.

Thus I've tried over the years to find ways of raising money so that we can increase the prize money.

We ran a raffle several years ago, but didn't get much support from the membership. We only sold about $6,000 worth of raffle tickets. (26 states did not participate).

Two years ago we ran the Wheaties Contest, but only 2355 ballots were sent in (raised $2,355.00).

Last year after trying for eight years to interest International Management Group (the largest sports promotion organization in the world) in promoting our sport. They finally agreed to take us on as a client. The executive council decided that we couldn't afford to gamble with the $10,000 required to get the ball rolling.

In 1985 the delegates at the convention voted for Eau Claire, Wisc. over N. California giving up $15,000. In 1986 the delegates voted for N. California over Ohio for the 1988 World Championship giving up $35,000.

That adds up to $50,000 that the delegates gave up. If the delegates represent the little man, then I don't care to hear that the little man's not getting enough prize money. If not, then we need the proxy vote so that the 9,000 members get to vote.

With that extra $50,000 we could hire International Management Group, who could possibly come up with a $100,000 sponsor, or we could rehire Joe Goldstein Public Relations and get some more professional publicity (over 1,000 articles in papers and magazines during his three years with us).

Or we could increase the prize money of the little men as well as the Women's and Men's Championship.

RENO HORSESHOES

NHPA APPROVED TOURNAMENT SHOE

The RENO Horseshoe is manufactured by the Queen City Forging Company of Cincinnati, Ohio. This company has been producing horseshoes for a lot of years.

The RENO Horseshoe has been improved in an effort to produce as durable a product as we possibly can. Although we cannot put a guarantee on breakage, our product has been designed to reduce breakage as much as possible.

The RENO Horseshoe is manufactured from C-1035 steel which is the best steel available to hold temper. All RENO shoes are medium-soft temper.

The caulks on Reno Horseshoes are all hardened so that they will never beat back at the end. This counts for many ringers during a contest.

The RENO Horseshoe has become very popular in recent years. It is pitched by State Champions, by former World Champions, by many top notch professionals, and by pitchers all over the world. Those of you who pitch a flip shoe will find the RENO Horseshoe just perfect. It is well balanced and works well with pitchers who pitch a turn.

Letter to the Editor

Now that we from Sports Enterprises, Inc. have returned from the World Tournament in Ainsworth and are once again back in our normal routine, I am writing to ask you to please place this letter of thanks and congratulations in the NHPA News Digest.

First of all we want to thank all who were responsible for the excellent time we had at the tournament: the NHPA for their excellent skill and organization displayed in the running of the tournament; and, the people of Ainsworth, Nebraska for the thought and preparation put into the tournament and activities organized for both the participants and their guests. The hospitality and enthusiasm shown by this fine community will always be remembered.

Second, but not least, we want to congratulate northern California for being awarded the 1988 World Tournament. We are sure that they will put on an excellent affair and we are looking forward to attending their tournament.

During the 1986 tournament we met many people and made many new friends all of whom we are looking forward to seeing once again in Eau Claire, Wisconsin. At that time we will not only be meeting with all of you once again but we will also be bidding for the 1989 World Tournament. We still feel that our wonderful indoor facilities and our lovely community will be an excellent site for a world tournament.

Thank you once again for a wonderful tournament and great hospitality.

Respectfully,

Victoria A. Wijnberg

News Digest

Dear Friends:

Thanks to those who subscribed to my Double Ringer for 1986 and see the ad in the Digest for ordering the 1987 copies. I had a good time visiting with horseshoe fans and pitchers at Ainsworth and marveled at the way the Nebraskans handled the tourney. I am looking forward to covering, watching and possibly pitching in the 1987 tourney at Eau Claire, Wis. I visited with the Bestuls in Ainsworth and liked their enthusiasm toward the project. Also, saw the California delegation which won the bid for 1988. It was too bad that two-time champion Dave Lipovsky of Minn. couldn't make it to the World this year but I am sure he will be there in 1987. Also, Jerry Black of Fargo is heating up his game for 1987. He is pitching in the mid 70's percentagewise. I had a chance to visit with Bozeman, Mont., shoe tossers while visiting with son Rocky and his wife Terry.

Sincerely,

Will Gullickson

19th DISTRICT VFW CLUB LEAGUE REPORT—SANC.84-c95

By NORMAN E. MARTIN

This has been a fine season for the 19th District VFW Clubs. The increase in membership has made for much more competition in play, and a more interesting movement from club to club.

There has been improvement in court maintenance, as well as some new development of courts. Downers Grove has 2 new courts. Warrenville has added 2 courts complete with cement walkways. Lisle has 2 courts, and will build one more before the new '87 season begins. Lemont has 2 courts and will build one more for the next season.

These additions have increased competition and added to increasing averages for regular players. And this increase has been dramatic, going from 24 members in play during the 1985 season, to 42 in 1986.

The top number of games by a club went to Naperville with a total of 117 games. The total for most members signed for play went to Downers Grove with 14 signed, while the Naperville group had 10 members signed. Even the smaller groups such as 7 in Warrenville, and 5 in Lisle and Lemont did not handicap the players.

Warrenville came in first with an average of 66.26% wins, after heated changes in averages from week to week.

The distribution of awards will occur on Sept. 6, 1986, at a banquet held at the Downers Grove Post.

Thanks for a fine, cooperative season, 19th District! Let's look forward to an even better next season!

NEWS AND NOTES ON NORTHERN CALIF. TOURNAMENTS

GORDON LOVEALL OPEN W—Vallejo, California on July 20 drew 45 northern Cal pitchers to perform in five 9-man classes. Don Titcomb had three 85% games (getting ready for the World Tournament); Early Kynard won A-2 with two 60 percenters, extra good for a "C" pitcher; Bob Blow took class A-3, an E pitcher working with 40 percenters for the day; Sonoma County Club President, Eldon Bryhan, struggled to win class A-4 with a 9-1 record after a playoff with Bill Botelli who had a 40 percenter. In class A-5, Mel Savery lost only one game to take 1st place in his F class after pitching "over his head" for the day.

RIO-DELL-SCOTIA "C" Open W-J on Saturday July 26; Sign-ins numbered 36 men, women and juniors who started pitching in morning fog, customary weather for the Redwood Coastal Region. Four Junior boys fought it out at 30 feet; all showed they could pitch an occasional game far better than their year's average. In this junior group Nick Wanner lost but one to come through on top; next, Justin Terry fired away with confidence to capture second place; Chad Miller and J.B. Terry tied for 3rd place, but Chad had the edge on percentage and hence got the trophy.

Next day; RIO-DELL-SCOTIA OPEN W; a go for 29 men and 6 women pitchers who journeyed to the north coastal courts at Rio Dell to enjoy excellent yellow clay on well kept courts. Closeness of most all matches was evident by several tied games in most classes, particularly in the women's where three had the same win-loss record and had to settle by percentage to determine proper standings.

FRANK CRAVALHO OPEN % MIX at San Francisco's GOLDEN GATE CLUB COURTS August 4: This is NCHPA's 61st tournament with 29 left for the season. Some summertime games have been played on cool Pacific Coast courts, some in hot lowland valleys and a few high in cool Sierra Nevada mountains. All have been remarkably well attended by men and women, but conspicuously few Juniors—Where are the kids who are badly needed to replace oldsters who have dropped off the line for one reason or another. This mixed tournament went well with women holding their own in respective classes A-C-D and F.

HARLEY SWANDER OPEN W J took place August 2 at Golden Gate Courts in San Francisco. Forty eight men, 4 women and 8 juniors participated. Sixteen tie games for 1st, 2nd and 3rd places in 8-man classes gives indication of closeness of matching pitchers. Each will pitch another day and perhaps reverse the decision. Juniors exhibited a wide spread in percentages, but in time with practice and perseverance, this gap is sure to close. Women could muster only a four-pitcher class; three wound up so close in percentage that any one would have deserved 1st place, but instead, the placement went as usual, 1st, 2nd & 3rd.

SONOMA COUNTRY CLUB at their Santa Rosa, Doyle Park Courts on August 9, featured their second Annual Picnic with a respectable turnout, and lots to eat—Lots to eat brought forth poignant recollection of the author, Jack London's takes in "People of the Abyss", a story scopped out of London's East End (England) in 1902 where, for a threepenny bit, a hungry soul could purchase a six-ounce loaf of hard bread and a cup of tea—all the food many "down and outers" lived on day after day—if they had a three penny piece (or three individual coins) in their pocket with which to make the purchase.

On picnic day, oddly enough, there was not much pitching, but women and juniors, in short-handed classes, had a few games—pitching horseshoes was second purpose this day. But on August 10, day after the picnic, the ARNIE PETERS OPEN Tournament was held on the Santa Rosa Courts. Fifty two men, pitchers from all parts of Northern California, squared away in two sequences, one in the morning filled all twelve courts, and the same in the afternoon group. Arie was there; enjoyed the enthusiastic pitching of his old club mates and many new comers whom he welcomed to this, the tournament dedicated to him, one of Sonoma County Club's staunch supporters and a leading pitcher for years and years.

Horseshoe Digest
P.O. Box 1606
Aurora, Ill. 60507

Dear Mr. Cobb:

Having enjoyed the Horseshoe Digest for a number of years, I've noticed the ongoing struggle to attract and retain interest in the game. Baseball attained its position in sports by the use of statistics. Millions of people never saw a Major League game before TV, but Johnny grabbed the sports page before the funnies back in the 40's to find out how many hits Ted Williams got yesterday!

Assuming that every state has a statistician, why not a National "stat" person to compile a list of the top 100 or 200 pitchers semi-annually for the Digest? Computers were made for this game! Keep the list current by requiring a minimum of tournament participation.

There are thousands of pitchers who will never make the list, but don't tell me that they won't try. We all like a challenge...especially young people! What I'm suggesting may have been tried in the past, but was it done at uniform intervals? And did we have computers then?

How often we read about the need to publicize horseshoes in the local paper. I believe most newspapers are hungry for sports events and would be happy to publish a list semi-annually without charge.

Sincerely,

Bob Thompson

News Digest
Aurora, Ill. 60507

Dear Ellis:

The sport of horseshoe pitching is unique in that it is the only sport that is played using the cancellation method. It is also unique in that it is somewhat unpopular among the low percentage pitchers and beginners because they do not get credit for what they do. Also because the spectators do not understand the scoring method to create interest.

I have long been an advocate of the 50-shoe count-all game using the alternate pitch and in case of a tie, the first to break the tie is the winner.

This would increase the ringer percentage averages and greatly enhance spectator interest and enthusiasm. Games can be played on schedule and more players can be accommodated in a tournament.

I believe it is up to us as NHPA members to look to the future of our sport.

Sincerely,

Bill Vandergriff
