MEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP

by Dalton Rakestraw

The Men's Championship was shaping up to be a great class from the beginning. Of the sweet 16 who made the cut, 12 states were represented. Those pitchers who made the cut were: Alan Francis, Ohio; Brian Simmons, Vermont; Dan Watson, Alabama; Jim Walters, Ohio; Tony Hankins, Kentucky; Gary Bearpaw, Oklahoma; Tom Williams, Michigan; Rick Howe, Massachusetts; Gale Greene, Vermont; Austin Bailey, Illinois; Steve Johnson, Missouri; Marcus Santillana, California; Marcus Thomsen, Nebraska; Stan Griggs, Missouri; Drew Becker, Ontario and Michael Bowman, Missouri.

From the early games of the prelims to the first shoes of the championship games, Alan Francis was looking to make his mark again, pitching 90 percent and more in the championship class. His earlier performance of 90 percent for the prelims was remarkable, but the time had come for a title to be put on the line. He was tested from the very beginning by Marcus Santillana, who pushed him to 66 shoes, scoring 21 points – the highest we had seen someone press Alan thus far. On the second day, Gary Bearpaw would push Alan to 60 shoes while scoring 23 points himself. Jim Walters would get 21 points and push Alan to an almost 100-shoe game ... 94 shoes to be exact.

Brian Simmons would get tested as well. Brian had an abnormal amount of losses this year with three, but still didn't give up the fight for a world title. Having three consecutive 80-shoe games, he won two of the three. Brian would await his final match, that with his toughest and best opponent – one he faces annually in this class.

Dan Watson was looking smooth, averaging 80 percent right before the World Tournament, and having some great games and tournaments earlier. Dan also won the Hall of Fame Invitational in early May. Even with those early victories and championship titles, he would get skunked by Alan in the final day of competition. Smooth, slow and steady Gale Greene from Vermont would be a "little devil," as Rick Howe called him, pitching his best horseshoes ever! Despite likely being the oldest 40-footer in the championship class, at just over 70, Gale can still throw those shoes and sneak past a few people, placing well this year.

Jimmy Walters would have some bounce-offs this year, costing him some brutal games. He was an odds-on favorite to beat Alan, but the bounce-offs got the best of him. Jim would prove worthy of the title by pitching an 85-percent game against Kentucky's Tony Hankins.

Gary Bearpaw from Oklahoma would bring up his shoes and pitch outstanding! The battle of the "flippers" would have him lose, but we all know that next year Gary is going to be even tougher to compete against.

Tom Williams from Michigan sat quiet for a while, until he made his move, letting people know he was there by defeating Brian Simmons.

Austin Bailey of Illinois made his mark this year too, averaging just under 70 percent for the championship class. Look for Austin to "stir the pot" and shake up the standings next year in Alabama.

Marcus Santillana and Drew Becker would not go unnoticed either. Marcus gave Alan some trouble in the beginning. And he had an 82-percent game against Stan Griggs. Drew Becker was the only Canadian to make the cut and pitched 74 percent against Marcus, and 75 percent against Rick Howe.

Michael Bowman, Steve Johnson, Rick Howe, Stan Griggs and Marcus Thomsen pitched great, as well, but rounded out the bottom of the standings in this year's Men's Championship Class.

The final game we were all looking forward to saw Brian leading Alan early, 29-21 at one point. Pit 1 showed no mercy all tournament, as Brian would have three bounce-offs in the later game, eventually costing him the game. Even if Brian did beat Alan, Alan would still be the world champion. Even with all of the obstacles he's faced physically and health-wise, Brian still pitched over 80 percent and placed second! To him, a job well done!

Congratulations, Alan Francis, on your 20th world title!

We look forward to next year. Who knows? Will we have a new champion? See for yourself in Montgomery, Alabama in 2016!

ELDERS' CHAMPIONSHIP

by Dalton Rakestraw

From the beginning, it was impossible to pinpoint a winner in the Elder Men's Championship class. There were many upsets. Looking to defend his title was David Holmes of Charleston, West Virginia, but Virgil Rife of Ohio and Roger Vogel of Kansas were in the mix as odds-on favorites to win.

This year's cut had to be above 66.67 percent, the highest cut we have seen in years. Many pitchers who normally make the cut were not able to hit that mark this year.

Pitchers making the cut were: JD Drake, Michigan; Jim Ellison, Alabama; Dan Dunn, Indiana; Roy Dugger, Ohio; Bert Logsdon, Iowa; Jim Culver, Kentucky; James Cooper, Tennessee; Howard Barnett, West Virginia; Ron LeGrand, Missouri; David Holmes, West Virginia; Gregg Craven, Missouri; Rich Altis, Missouri; Ted Sprinkle, Indiana; Virgil Rife, Ohio; Rich Pintor, Colorado; and Roger Vogel, Kansas.

To recap day one, Ted Sprinkle was the only undefeated pitcher. He had a 90-shoe game. Against who, you might ask? A neighbor, Daniel Dunn also from Kokomo, Indiana. Ted pulled out the win over Dan 40-34. After that game, Dan Dunn turned right around and had a 108-shoe game against Ohio's Roy Dugger. Dugger pulled out a win there, 42-38. Even with Dunn averaging 81 percent and then 75 percent, he lost both games. Kuddos to him for pitching so well in these high-shoe games. Tired of all those losses and long games, Dan turned up the heat in round five, beating Missouri's Rich Altis, 41-27 in 68 shoes.

Elders' Championship Class

Here are some additional upsets from the first day:

- JD Drake from Michigan upset Virgil Rife in round 5.
- Jim Culver beat David Holmes in round 3.
- Gregg Craven suffered a loss in the first round to Dan Dunn.
- Bert Logsdon beat Rich Pintor in the first round.
- Roger Vogel dropped his first two games to Jim Ellison and Dan Dunn.

The second day started out with David Holmes beating Dan Dunn. Gregg Craven snuck past Jim Culver. Richard Altis slips versus JD Drake, while Ted Sprinkle got his first loss against Ronald LeGrand. Howard Barnett grabbed a victory over Virgil Rife, and Jim Ellison was victorious over Rich Pintor. Roger Vogel beat James Cooper. Roy Dugger slammed Logsdon.

Again, as you can see, there still wasn't a clear winner. The second day of competition comes to a close and the arena awaited the crowing of a world champion on courts 17-24 in the Elders' Class.

The final day, David Holmes and Virgil Rife go head-to-head for 98 shoes. Virgil was coming from behind and pulled out the victory. Then, the Ohioans go at it, and in a come-from-behind win, Roy Dugger beats Virgil Rife. David Holmes would have had to beat Rich Altis to force a playoff, which he did, beating Rich 41-22 in 54 shoes. With that loss, Rich Altis was bumped down to third place. Gregg Craven got the win over Roger Vogel, putting him at second place. Ted Sprinkle would slip up a little on his last day, placing him in fourth.

This was an awesome Elders' Championship class this year! We look forward to the competition getting better and better each year. Look for these men and maybe more to be "keeping calm and pitching on" in Montgomery 2016!

WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP

by Phyl Quist

Sixteen of the world's best women horse-shoe pitchers took the stage in Topeka, Kansas to compete for the title of World Champion.

They were Joan Elmore, Tennessee; Sue Snyder, Indiana; Debra Brown, Vermont; Debra Odum, Texas; Marlene Ray, Tennessee; Jen Speakman, Colorado; Terry Beagle, Michigan; Sara Otto, Minnesota; Shalee Cason, Florida; Aleena Lepak, Wisconsin; Jane Cordingley, Alberta; Vicki Kunde, Maryland; Janet Larson, Minnesota; Amy Francis, Ohio; Karen Graham, New York; and Doris Hieden, Texas.

The end of the first day found Debra Odum and Sue Snyder undefeated with 5-0 records. Four stood at 4-1: Joan Elmore with a loss to Vicki Kunde; Debra Brown with a loss to Janet Larson; Marlene Ray with a loss to Aleena Lepak; and Terry Beagle with a loss to Shalee Cason.

The first day also saw the longest game of the tournament at 88 shoes between Jane Cordingley and Jen Speakman, with Jane winning 42-28. Also, Jen had the day's high game of 88.10 percent, against Karen Graham.

On day two of competition, Joan Elmore and Debra Odum were on top with a 9-1 record, followed closely by Debra Brown and Sue Snyder at 8-2. The longest game that day went 80 shoes with Debra Odum defeating Terry Beagle 45-35.

Joan Elmore started off day three with a 91.67 percent game (33 ringers of 36 shoes) against Terry Beagle, which was the high game of the tournament. And Shalee Cason started her day with 29 out of 32 for a 90.63 percent win against Karen Graham. The competition became very intense on all fronts.

In the 14th game, Debra Brown defeated Joan Elmore which left them each with two losses. So, it came down to the last game where Debra Brown won 42-36 in a hard-fought battle with Debra Odum, and Sue Snyder won 42-31 over Joan Elmore.

When Debra Brown realized she was the World Champion, she went to her knees and the tears flowed. It was an exciting victory.

All 16 women showcase the very best in the world, and congratulations to all.

Very special congratulations to Debra Brown – she may be small in stature, but she stands tall as the Women's World Champion of 2015!

Elders' Champ David Holmes, Women's Champ Debra Brown, and Men's Champ Alan Francis

CADETS' AND JUNIORS' CHAMPIONSHIPS

by Aleena Lepak

This year's World Tournament was a whirlwind of excitement for all who attended. It was particularly special as we had a record number of attendees for the Cadet and Junior divisions -- a total of 77 juniors and 58 cadets.

Sixty-two of these juniors and cadets started off the tournament by attending the meet-and-greet party held at Gage Park. They toured the zoo, splashed at the waterpark, and played games while rekindling old friendships and making many new ones.

As the next two days of competition commenced, there was excitement and tension mixed with comradery. Many ringers were pitched as everyone tried their hardest for the first place trophy in their class. Pressure was on as six classes needed playoff games to decide the winners.

Malcolm Clark from Iowa won Cadet A averaging an amazing 60.83 percent.

From Pennsylvania, Aaron Hanes won Cadet B with 57.5 percent.

Walker Forrester from Oklahoma won Cadet C with no losses.

Also with no losses, Cadet D champion was Pablo Modesto Lone Bear from North Dakota.

Cadet E was conquered by Lily Strong from Kansas.

Quadrupling his entry average, Kane Kuester from Wisconsin won Cadet F in a playoff game with Bodie Benortham from Kansas.

Cadets' Championship Class

All spectators had their eyes on these young cadets with smiles on their faces. Each was an inspiration to our sport.

The junior classes enhanced the excitement and tension of the tournament. Junior A was a battle from Kentucky, as Ben Webb and Tyler Howard needed a playoff game, with Ben coming out the winner averaging 75.25 percent.

Junior B also had a playoff with two juniors from the same state of Missouri; Savannah Johnson won against Devin Wetzel with less than a percent separating the two.

Junior C boasted a four-way tie for first. Luke Ray from Texas lost to Noah Gabel from North Dakota. Noah then proceeded to play Emily Lazaris from Wisconsin, and won again. Cameron Edwards, from Pennsylvania, defeated Noah in the third game of the playoff.

Junior D was won by Bo Mullis from Georgia as he defeated Megan McLeod from Missouri, also in a playoff game.

Junior F was a battle from Oklahoma as Damon Beatty, almost doubling his entry average, won against Lexi Taylor, rounding out our last playoff.

Junior G was won by Tyler Brakhane from Illinois, with no losses.

Shyene Clemens, from South Dakota, also had no losses as she won Junior H.

With such intense class play, we knew that the championships were going to be just as exciting, but first, we had to relax and party.

The host site had an extra junior party for all players. Eighty-one participants carpooled to a nearby bowling alley. Black lights were glowing as everyone bowled and danced the night away. A highlight was winning as many tickets as possible in the arcade with jackpots up to 1,000 tickets. The most popular and longest line was for the laser maze to see who could be the best secret agent and get through the maze the fastest. Everyone left with full bellies and smiling faces to get ready for the upcoming day.

As ESPN Sports Center broadcast live on Saturday morning, each of our finalists proved they were the best and did our sport proud during the coverage. Positioned closest to the stage, our Cadet Championship class got the best coverage, as Malcolm Clark became the 2015 Cadets' World Champion averaging 67.27 percent with only half a loss. Each Cadet in this class had games above 50 percent, impressing the crowd with every shoe.

The Junior Girls' Championship was exhilarating to watch. Hugs were given and tears were shed, as Denise Daly from Illinois dominated the class. Averaging 64.2 percent, Denise didn't allow any opponent to score more than 16 points against her. Winning her first world title on her last year as a junior was a bitter sweet moment and one that she will remember forever.

The Junior Boys' Championship was as intense as ever! With a three-way tie for first, it was clear that no one was going down without a fight.

Brandon Pearl from New Hampshire and Tyler Howard from Kentucky were first to play. Winning 40 to 3, Tyler had his best game of the championship round with an astounding 89.2 percent. Silence fell as the Kentucky boys, Ben Webb and Tyler battled it out once more. With everyone on the edge of their seats, pitching 106 shoes, Tyler earned the title of 2015 Junior Boys' World Champion. He is looking forward to defending his title next year.

The junior party on Sunday was the perfect end to a great tournament. Fifty-nine juniors and cadets went to a different bowling alley where they could bowl, ride go-karts, play mini golf, and enjoy the arcade.

Throughout the tournament, I heard nothing but praise about the juniors and cadets. They were all on their best behavior and were impressive to watch. The passion they have for this sport is a flame that I hope will never die. The support they receive from fans, parents, and family is overwhelming, and I hope to see each and every one of these 135 young adults, plus more, next year in Alabama!

JUNIOR GIRLS' CHAMPIONSHIP

SENIOR WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP

by Phyl Quist

Eight very focused and determined ladies took the courts to vie for the title of Senior Women's World Champion this year in Topeka, Kansas. They were: Sheila Shepard, Colorado; Ruth Rife, Ohio; Ora Lee Jeardoe, Kansas; Marlene Cooper, Ohio; Peggy Stitt, Michigan; Vicki Marteney, Florida; Deborah Michaud, Massachusetts; and Linda Avrell, Connecticut.

Day one came to a close with Sheila and Ruth having 4-0 records. Ora Lee stood at 3-1. Ruth pitched the high game of the tournament against Vicki with a 79.17 percent. Peggy had the next high tournament game of 77.27 percent against Sheila.

Day two started off with fierce competition. Ora Lee beat Ruth the first game, giving her one loss, and she beat Sheila in the second game, also giving her one loss. This set up a three-way tie for the championship on the last game.

In talking with Ora Lee prior, I asked about practice. She said she practices in her sleep! I don't think she was sleeping during those two games.

However, Marlene defeated Ora Lee the last game, and Ruth defeated Sheila, giving Ruth her second Senior Women's World Championship.

The longest game of the tournament was 70 shoes thrown by Deborah and Peggy. Marlene threw the most shoes at 374.

Senior Women's Championship Class

Both Deborah and Vicki had changed their pitch this year and Linda was excited to be in this great group.

All of the ladies are champions and we congratulate them all. One does stand at the top, however, and displayed to all what focus and determination accomplishes – and that one is Ruth Rife our 2015 Senior Women's World Champion, and very special congratulations to you.

SENIOR WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP

SENIOR MEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP

by Dalton Rakestraw

Raymond Bedard from Massachusetts was on the quest for another Senior Men's World Championship title. Those also on the quest for victory were: James Dunlap, Michigan; Randy Rein, Wisconsin; Ron Deckard, Florida; Tom Gallina, Ontario; Larry McAfee, Missouri; James Driver, Missouri; Gary Roberts, Ohio; Dennis Wilson, Pennsylvania; Gary Kollmann, Idaho; Tom Westbrook, South Carolina; and Virgle McCown, Missouri.

Normally, we would see Tom Gallina and Ron Deckard battle it out later, in the last day of competition, but this year would be different. They played the first game. Ron was steady and easily beat Tom, 41-13 in 48 shoes.

James Dunlap would slam Virgle McCown, pitching a 70 percent game against him. Later in game 5, James would beat Dennis Wilson and pitch a 73 percent game. James was bound and determined to win this year since he had an early preliminaries win. Tom Gallina had something to say about that though. In the last game of the first day, Tom gave James his first loss.

Randy Rein had a 70 percent game against Virgle McCown later in day one. Larry McAfee had a 71 percent game on Tom Westbrook. Tom Gallina had a 73 percent game versus James Dunlap. Gary Roberts had a 71 percent game while playing Tom Gallina. The senior men showed no mercy, as each was vying for the title and not giving up easily.

On the final day of competition, Ron Deckard suffered a loss in the opening game to James Dunlap. That loss did not stop him; he won all the rest of his remaining games to secure his spot again as the Senior Men's World Champion.

Congratulations to all the Senior Men, and we look for you to be pitching in Alabama next year! Until then, good luck at your state tournaments and all future tournaments!
