With Old Man Winter keeping us off the courts in these parts where these lines are written, we are content now to settle back and review the past year . . . it was a pretty good horseshoe year . . . it brought a new national champion and a number of new state champions . . . this issue is crammed with news of summer and fall tournaments . . . printed a bit late but they make good winter reading . . . we are indebted to former National Secretary Tompkin for an interesting account of the national mail tournament . . . it is most interesting and the Horseshoe World believes it is worth repeating next year . . . there were some weak spots in this year's mail derby according to Mr. Tompkin who tells us how to avoid them next year . . . and this month's issue gives the figures on the National A. A. U. Championships in Chicago—doubles and singles . . . we will be back next issue in time to wish you a Merry Christmas!

November, 1941

THE HOLIDAY SEASON

We are coming to the best season of the year—the holiday season.

Perhaps we are out of line in getting “commercial” at this time, but we just can't help but suggest to our readers that the Christmas season is the best time in the world to do the horseshoe manufacturer — your friend, the friend of the game—as well as some friend or relative, a good turn.

Buy him (or her) a pair of horseshoes as a Christmas gift. In fact, buy a set of horseshoes. Steel may become very short and it may be that horseshoes will be scarce one of these days.

Just turn to the pages of this issue and pick out your favorite company and send for prices on shoes sent as a gift to some friend or relative.

U. S. Mail Tournament Results Are Announced

By J. Robert Tompkin
Former National Secretary
1351 28th St., Des Moines, Ia.

The response to this National Mail Tournament was fairly gratifying. Ninety-three contestants participated, and, judging from the promises of club officials and state secretaries, we can expect better than 500 next year if such a meet can again be held.

In addition to trophies, medals and ribbons, each finalist received a year's subscription to the Horseshoe World. The champions of the three classes received an official certificate of championship. Every contestant was given a complimentary copy of the Horseshoe Compendium. Over $200 worth of prizes were given.

The most discouraging feature of the tourney was the failure of the Class D pitchers to enter. Only fourteen players under 41.67 per cent participated in the event. Consequently all of them were finalists. Should a similar meet be held next season, this year should serve as a lesson to those who were afraid they were not good enough. If anybody wants to see whether or not they should have entered, just look at the records of the winners.

Several scores are not shown as they were sent in. In many cases I discovered errors in the score sheets which I corrected. All corrections were made in red pencil, so that if any contestant wishes to check his scoresheets he can readily note the corrections. Score sheets will be returned upon receipt of a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

NEW JERSEY WHIRLWIND

Bill Kolb, of Newark, N. J., recently crowned State Champion, and present Eastern United States Open Champion, has proved beyond a doubt that he has really "arrived" among the nation's top-flight horseshoe pitchers.

At a recent get-together, he soundly trimmed Joe McCrink, the No. 5 man in the State Championship Finals, 3 games to 0, and averaged a phenomenal 90 per cent while doing the job.

He opened the set of 50-shoe games with a mild 84 per cent game, dropping on 42 ringers in 50 shoes pitched, with 27 in the first 30. The score was 44-18, as McCrink averaged 68 per cent.

The second game was something to watch, but little did we know what was to come in the third game. Kolb counted with 45 ringers in 50 shoes pitched for a beautiful 90 per cent game, tossing 34 ringers out of the first 36 shoes pitched. This time the score was 41-4 as McCrink averaged 64 per cent.

The last game was a masterpiece. Kolb started off with 17 consecutive double ringers, and finished with 48 ringers in 50 shoes pitched for a 96 per cent game. Poor Joe McCrink averaged almost 70 per cent in this game and didn't score a single point. The score of this game was 47-0.

As a sidelight, I found that Kolb finished the second game with a string of 12 straight ringers, and these added to the 34 straight in the last game makes a string of 46 consecutive ringers. This is real pitching in any man's league.

The box score of this series, played at the courts of the West Orange Horseshoe Club in West Orange, N. J., follows:

	W	L	P	R	DR	SP	Pct.
Kolb	3	0	132	135	62	150	90
McCrink	0	3	22	100	28	150	66

NEW MEXICO MEET

John Newell won the state championship in the Class A meets, and Paul Mackey was the winner in Class B in the New Mexico State Horseshoe Tournament held in Albuquerque, November 2.

Tournament day turned out to be a nice day, although it had been raining for two weeks and most of the pitchers were off form. It might have been "bench fever" not being able to get on the courts, or it might have really been lack of practice.

Mr. Mackey is secretary of the state association.

HORSESHOE BOOM IN PATERSON HIGH SCHOOL

Due mainly to the enthusiasm and leadership of young Art Scolari, Paterson's horseshoe pitching ace, and recent third place winner in the State Championship Tournament, the grand old game of horseshoe pitching is taking root in East Side High School of Paterson, N. J.

There have been two clay courts constructed under Scolari's direction, and he has drawn to him about 30 horseshoe fans to whom he is teaching the finer points of the game.

From all reports coming my way, these fellows are practicing like mad for the forthcoming School Championship Tournament. Prizes will be awarded to the first three winners of the tournament. The club is awarding small lapel pins to qualifiers for achievement shown on the courts, and the boys are really working for the pins.

It is indeed gratifying for me to see some of the younger fellows taking a hand in organizing horseshoe clubs. Some of our older men could well take a lesson, and profit by it. These young boys who are pitching in high school will be the base upon which a stronger and more powerful National Association may eventually be built.

ELGIN, ILL., NEWS

The Watch City Horseshoe Club has just finished one of its best horseshoe pitching seasons. The club has not lost a match this year, and one of its members, Frank Breen, took second in the National A.A.U. tournament held in Chicago. In this tournament he broke a national amateur tournament qualifying record with 256 points and 82 ringers out of 100 shoes pitched.

Mr. Breen, paired with Edgar Schmoldt of the same club, took second in the National A.A.U. doubles. Among the records Mr. Breen now holds are: County singles and doubles, Fox Valley champion, Northern Illinois champion, past 11 years Elgin City champion, holder of world's endurance record with 2346 ringers in 10 hours of continuous pitching.

Mr. Breen played an 11-game match with John Lindmeier, present A.A.U. champion, and lost in the 11th game 50-45.

The club would like to book match games with teams within a radius of 200 miles of Elgin. That is for next season's bookings. Five-man team. Only amateur teams.

DE LEARY, HOPI INDIAN, WINS N. E. TITLE

Stanley DeLeary, of Amesbury, Hopi Indian, won the New England horseshoe pitching championship at the all-day round robin event at General Plate Co. courts in Attleboro, Mass. DeLeary was presented with a gold medal by James Ramsey, tourney director, and will retain the trophy given by the Connecticut State Association for one year.

Winner of the title in 1939, 13-year-old Kenneth Hurst, of Providence, was defeated, 50-31, by Bernard Herfurth, of Northampton in a playoff match for second place. Herfurth is a three time winner of the New England crown, having won the championship in 1931, 1933 and 1934. He and Hurst were awarded silver and bronze medals and all three top finishers received cash prizes.

The field was narrowed to 12 contestants as the result of morning qualification play in which James O'Shea, of Brockton, present state champion, topped the field with a score of 257 points. DeLeary amassed 243 tallies and Donald Jackson, of Dartmouth, finished third with 242 points.

Of the 11 matches played by the champion in the round robin series, DeLeary met defeat but once. Herfurth was the only man to triumph over the Indian but lost a chance to tie for first place in his last match to Carl Larson, of Melrose, former New England champion.

Assisting Ramsey were Charles Heather, Fred Meier, of Foxboro, past president of the Massachusetts Horseshoe Pitching Association, and Ralph Forsstrom of Springfield, secretary of the association.

Referees were Ed Hawkins of Framingham, and Frank Bristol of Medford.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, Horseshoe World:

Northern California takes its hat off to Ted Allen. He's a champion we can be proud of. He unexpectedly walked onto the courts at Santa Cruz Sunday, August 10, 1941, while the Golden Gate Club of San Francisco was playing the Santa Cruz Club a scheduled game of our Northern California League. He came in not as Ted Allen, world's champion, but as Ted Allen, a horseshoe pitcher. After all the contests were over he stepped onto the courts and started to pitch. When someone on the bench cried out, "Ted Allen is going to put on an exhibition," Ted turned around and remarked, "I'm not going to put on an exhibition, I want a game."

Paul Mori, of the Golden Gate Club, stepped up to play Ted and was defeated. Next, Marty Fourcade of Santa Cruz Club stepped in to play the champion, and he also was defeated. Then, Ted's brother, Ira, after some coaxing from the crowd, warmed up and pitched with Ted one of the best games Northern California has ever witnessed. Ira "beat the socks" off Ted; the score was 46-50, and the game ran to 110 shoes.

To us, Ted Allen and Guy Zimmerman are always welcome out here. They are capable of wearing a hat that fits their head.

GAME IN CANAL ZONE

The Horseshoe World has received a letter from Charles A. Durbin, who formerly lived in New Orleans, now stationed at Corozal, Canal Zone, stating he has been teaching a number of persons how to pitch horseshoes. He expects to go into the interior of the Canal Zone soon and is taking horseshoe pitching equipment with him.

WABASH VALLEY LEAGUE TEAMS

This picture shows the teams in the play-off of the Wabash Valley Horseshoe League. The teams represented are: Jericho, Jasonville, Evansville and Terre Haute—all good Indiana tossers. Jericho won the first place with Jasonville second and Terre Haute third. Evansville finished fourth. A. A. Davis, secretary of the Wabash Valley Association, 1519 So. 17th St., Terre Haute, kindly furnished this picture. He is in the top row, right hand corner.

WASHINGTON NOTES

I am sending you the report of the Washington State Horseshoe Tournament held in Woodlawn Park, Seattle.

We had a very small turnout this year because it rained all three days of the tournament. We were somewhat fortunate because we had roofs over the stakes, but still the boys got wet walking from stake to stake.

John Davis, of Spokane, won the championship from Prescott Kauffman who held it last year. The averages of the tournament were as follows:

	W	L	P	R	DR	SP	Pct.
Kauffman, Seattle	11	0	563	433	136	632	69.7
Davis, Spokane	8	3	521	403	107	694	56.8

McLeod, Naches	1	10	349	261	56	658	39.2

John Davis, Spokane; Clarence Ross, Mt. Vernon, and Oscar Lee, Mt. Vernon, were tied for second place. In the playoff which was round robin John Davis won. Scores follow:

	P	R	DR	SP	Pct.
Ross	51	46	12	82	56.0
Lee	47	46	14	82	56.0

Davis	51	45	11	74	60.8
Lee	44	45	13	74	60.8

For fifth and sixth places Ken Smith, Hoquiam, and Jay Elliott, Cowiche, were tied. In the playoff

Smith won. Scoring follows:
 Smith53 37 10 68 54.4
 Elliott48 37 13 68 54.4

In the final playoff for state championship, Davis played Kauffman the best two games out of three. Davis won. Results as follows:

DAHLENE WINS MEET

Alvin Dahlene and Roland Kraft, horseshoe pals of the same club, and the two "travelinist" pitchers the Sunflower State has ever had descended on the courts of the Wichita Club Sunday, August 31, about 7:30 a. m. and after a few minutes warm-up the news soon got around that here were the two men that had to be taken into camp. Having just returned from the national meet in Des Moines where they finished fifth and sixth respectively, it was rather to be expected that they would be tough in the pinches.

Kraft set a new Kansas qualifying record for the 100 shoes pitched when he hung 75 ringers on the stakes for a neat score of 248. Dahlene was close behind with 76 ringers and a score of 247. Hard-packed clay kept them from a much higher score as both men lost several clean ringers. Twelve men qualified for the Class A round robin and at 9:30 Monday morning the race for the Kansas ringer title was on for good. Kraft drew Melvin Sites of Wichita in the first round.

Now Sites is one swell ringer tosser and has long been known as the "Giant Killer" of the Kansas tournaments. He is forever throwing the monkey wrench into someone's championship aspirations. However, on this certain morning Mr. Kraft was as cool as a "Colgate shave" and his shoes were as hot as a depot stove. The result of the game was never in doubt as the one-armed ace from up Lawrence way banged the stakes for 17 consecutive ringers to start the melee. Mr. Sites got the grand total of eight points for the game. So much for that.

Could it be that Kraft was going through the tournament like a whirlwind? Kraft is a very popular man in Kansas shoe circles so more power to him if he could win it.

The next man Sites had to face was Dahlene, also from Lawrence—out of the frying pan into the fire it proved to be as Dahlene cracked Sites with a neat 80 percenter and the Wichita ace was definitely out of the picture for this tourney.

Marines Tamboer also of Wichita proved to be the tough boy of the host city. He defeated Kraft late in the tournament and incidentally lost only on game and that to Dahlene, who turned out to be champion.

Dahlene never lost a game in the 12-man round robin, and thereby became one of the few pitchers of Kansas to go through a meet undefeated. The other men in the past to have this distinction are Gandy, of To-

PITCH OFFICIAL HORSESHOES!

RETAINS TITLE

John Fulton, of Carlisle, Pa., retained his title, making a clean sweep of seven games in the Cumberland County Tournament.

Fulton's ringer percentage was 66.7, although he was not up to his usual standard. He will compete at the Pennsylvania Farm Show in January, in which he won the title in 1936, 1938 and 1940.

Fulton used to use the 1 1/4 turn, but in a game in New York one time he changed to the 1 1/2 turn and did so well he has used that style of pitching ever since.

From what they say Fulton will be the man the boys have to beat at Harrisburg in January.

Here are scores on three exhibition games he recently played:

	P	R	DR	SP	Pct.
John Fulton	50	24	11	28	85.7
B. Garrett	7	9	2	28	32.1
John Fulton	50	44	13	62	70.9

peka, Duryee of Wichita, McCollam of Kincaid.

As a general rule when a man wins all of his games he is declared champion, but this year a new system was tried out for spectator appeal. The champ and the runner-up met in a special match under the lights for the title, by playing a three-best-out-of-five series. This almost proved fatal to the new champion as he lost his first two games and was behind in the third one when he put on a rally to win it and stay in the running for the title. In the fourth game, with the score 47 to 46, in favor of Tamboer, Dahlene had first pitch. He tossed one ringer and a very close shoe. Now all Tamboer had to do was toss a double and win the title. He tossed just one ringer and the Lawrence man got the point. There was a situation for Dahlene—he must double or maybe lose the title. He promptly smacked on a double clear to the hilt; Tamboer missed and the series was two to two.

By this time Dahlene had got the bit in his teeth and was heading for the promised land. Tamboer never had a chance in this game as Dahlene ran up a 21 to 0 lead.

So Alvin Gandy, who had held the title since 1938, relinquished it to one of his closest friends and arch rival. Gandy has been a fine champion and went down fighting even though he was not in the best of pitching condition.

Class B was won by Jess Knowles, a Wichita man and ardent booster for the game.

PLAY DART BALL

Rudolph Abram, 2814 N. Booth street, Milwaukee, writes that the Green Bay Avenue Horseshoe Club, of which he is a member, plays dartball in the winter.

Honestly we don't know much about dartball, but it sounds O.K. It helps keep the club intact during the winter season.

What does your club do in the winter? Write the Horseshoe World and tell us. Other clubs will be interested. Especially do we want to hear about indoor courts.

ELKINS-TEFFT MATCH

Following are the scores of a four-game match between Uriah A. Tefft of Carthage, Mo., and John Elkins, of Stella, Mo. The games were played in the new municipal park in Carthage, Mo., recently.

Tefft moved to Carthage recently from Chanute, Kansas, and has played in several Kansas meets. Elkins is a native of Stella, and has played in several Missouri meets. He pitches a 1 1/4 turn, while Tefft is a southpaw and hurls a beautiful 1 3/4 turn.

IOWA MATCHES

The Eldora team played Des Moines horseshoe team at Eldora on Labor Day and the latter won 19 games to 13 for Eldora. Eldora threw 851 ringers and Des Moines threw 887. In one game of 50 points Raymon Teske, of Eldora, threw 46 ringers, with 16 doubles, against Dixon with 41 ringers, 11 doubles.

In another game Klatt of Eldora threw 73.8 per cent ringers.

Dale Dixon, state champion, and Ted Harlan led the winners, while Eldora played the following men: Carl Cordes, Max Klatt, Conrad Wickers, M. Babcock, M. N. Clark, Raymond Teske, M. M. Williams, Claus C. Hoojer, Arthur Daleske.

Then on the return match in Des Moines, Sept. 28, Eldora won 60 games to four for Des Moines. Five of Eldora's pitchers won all eight games played. With Max Klatt and Clifford Hansen each "skunking" their opponent once. Members of the team were Hansen, Klatt, Hurst, Grelder, Teske, Daleske, Kauffman, Cordes.

The losers played without the services of Dale Dixon, state champion, who led the Des Moines team to victory in the first meeting of the two teams.

FACTORY "E" WINS

The Insilco Inter-factory horseshoe pitching tournament honors went to Factory E when the team of Mike Vecchitto and Sebastian DiMauro defeated the Factory N of Arthur Breen Jr. and Frank Pappallo, 21-16 and 21-14. The losers won the championship trophy in 1939. Last year there was no tourney.

The victory gave "E" the third leg needed to gain permanent possession of the trophy.

Andy K. Moehn is president of the St. Paul, Minn., Horseshoe Club.

Bill Brinkley won the Class A Utah championship for 1941. Congratulations!

New officials of the Utah Association are: Arch Stokes, president; John Chapman, vice president; Vic Dahlin and E. W. Wahten, directors, and Ray Ohm, secretary treasurer.
