DIXON PORTABLE HORSESHOE COURTS (Patent Pending) are now available at an attractive price. The new nylon suspension system has eliminated some cost and improves the efficiency of the rubber pad greatly. The life of these pads should be at least ten years and are guaranteed for two years. These courts will make you a better horseshoe pitcher and we guarantee the ringers you throw will stay there. Every shoe will feel the same every time you pitch it.

Complete Single Court Ready For Use
Length of pad 36" x 27" wide x $\frac{5}{8}$ " thick.

Single Court Without Rubber Pad

Lewiston-Auburn, Maine Club Dedicates New Courts

By Bill Hood, Maine Association, Publicity Chairman

Lewiston, Maine has 20 of the finest horseshoe pitching courts in the East. These courts are a duplicate of the Keene, N. H. set-up, where the World Championship Tournament was held last year. Roger W. Bolduc, Auburn, president of the State Association, spearheaded the drive and planning for completion of the "big league" courts. Assisting Bolduc were Porter Clark, president of the Lewiston and Auburn Horseshoe Club, and Frank Torrey, head of the Lewiston Recreation Department.

The courts, through the kindness of the Lewiston city government, are located in Marcotte Park, Lewiston, Maine, and cover an area of 250 feet in length by 100 feet in width. This accommodates twenty individual courts, a clubhouse, and bleachers, with the entire area circled by a cyclone wire fence. Another lower fence runs along the courts between the bleachers and the concrete encircled stake pits. This lower fence prevents spectators from being injured by a shoe that might accidentally strike the concrete and bounce towards the bleachers. The clubhouse includes a concession booth and headquarters room. The pits are filled with a special clay, and surrounded by a six foot square concrete platform with a 40 foot black top walk extending between each pair of pits.

Subscriptions and donations have been collected to finance this attractive plant, with associate memberships in the Lewiston and Auburn Horseshoe Club being awarded all donors. Donations have been acquired by the Lewiston and Auburn Club and State association members, as well as other horseshoe enthusiasts throughout New England. Many of the Lewiston and Auburn Club members have given much of their time performing various operations for completion of these courts.

With these regulation size courts the local plant will be eligible for Maine, New England, Eastern Nationals and World tournaments. Last year the World Tournament contests drew over 25,000 fans at Keene, New Hampshire. The Lewiston and Auburn Club, which has doubled its membership for the 1966 season, will be hosts and direct all major tournaments.

The first tournament was played on June 5, at which time the new courts were dedicated. Sixty-four contestants participated in this Invitational Tournament.

The courts will be open during the day for Lewiston Recreation Department use and the general public at no charge. The Lewiston and Auburn Club will have their summer league matches scheduled two nights a week.

Officials of the Lewiston-Auburn Club are: Porter Clark, president, and Dominic Pepin, secretary-treasurer. State Association officers are: Roger Bolduc, president; Herman Chick, secretary; Clarence Modery, treasurer; and Executive Committeeman Rene Doyon of Lewiston who served as director of the first Lewiston and Auburn Invitational tournament. Official scorer for the club was Robert Sirois, and publicity, Bill Hood. It is expected that horseshoe pitching will soar to new heights in Maine with the new courts as has been experienced in several other states.

Red River Valley Open Tournament — Fargo, N. D.

One of the largest Red River Valley Open horseshoe tournaments in the history of the event is scheduled Saturday and Sunday, July 2 and 3, at the Fargo, North Dakota Park District's Oak Grove Park courts.

Tourney officials expect an enlarged turnout of pitchers since Fargo-Moorhead is making a strong drive to become the site of the 1967 world tournament.

The 17th annual tourney — one of the largest in the Upper Midwest — will consist of four or more divisions. There will be 10-man Class A and B divisions and eight in the other divisions. A junior tourney for boys from 10 to 16 years of age will be held if there are a sufficient number of participants.

The RRV Open has drawn leading pitchers from eight states since it was originated in 1948. The condition of the courts reached an all-time peak last year when veteran pitchers praised the improvement.

Defending champion Art Engebretson of Fargo will be seeking his seventh RRV title. He is also the North Dakota state champion. Frank Stinson of Minneapolis, runnerup here last year, will be one of the top contenders. He won the Minnesota state and Northwest titles last year and made his strongest bid in the world tournament at Keene, N.H. Leigh Dunker of Warner, S.D., a 17-time South Dakota state champion, will be bidding for his third RRV crown. He won in 1959 and 1962.

Other leading pitchers expected are Gene Lykken of Kindred, N.D., Andy Paglarini of Hibbing, Minn., Joe Anzaldi of St. Paul and John Yernberg of St. Paul.

The cutoff for qualifying will be 2 p.m., July 2. Lower classes will start competition at 2 p.m., with Class A and B scheduled July 3. There will be a three-time limit for qualifying.

The Oak Grove courts are used by the RRV League, which was expanded to 10 teams for the first time this year. Team sponsors are Black Co., Blackhawk, Bob Fritz Sporting Goods, Fettes Moving and Storage, Grandin Garage, Lorny's Terminal Bar, Sons of Norway, C&C Market and Hammond Music. League play opened early in May and will extend into September.

Will Gullickson, regional NHPA director and secretary of the RRV League, extends a welcome to pitchers throughout the nation to the RRV Open.

Other league officers are Henry Wisness, president; Wes Myhre, vice president; and Gust Magnuson, treasurer. Directors are Harold McDonald, George Nordstrom and Wally Arndt.

Meanwhile, interest in the 1967 world tourney bid is running high. If the bid is successful, the tourney will be held in Fargo. But Moorhead (located across the Red River) is anxious to lend a hand.

Bob Seigel, manager of the Moorhead Chamber of Commerce, is enthusiastic over the venture. He has met with horseshoe officials and highlighted one of his television programs on the project.

Roy Peterson, promotion director of WDAY TV in Fargo, has indicated he will give the project a hand through his media.

A press night is planned at one of the league sessions at which members of press, radio and television will be able to get a look at the pitchers in action. They will be invited to throw a few shoes themselves.

From Here and There

From Leo McGrath of the Ohio Buckeye Association comes a news item informing us that W. J. Woods, publicity director for the Buckeye Association, has been confined in the Good Samaritan Hospital in Cincinnati, Ohio, where he underwent surgery. He would welcome a card. His home address is 2475 Madison Road, Apt. #52, Cincinnati, Ohio 45208.

In the same note, Roy McClure of Ohio was stated as being confined in a hospital in Bradenton, Florida, following a heart ailment. Latest report is that he is at home, Rt. #3, Van Wert, Ohio. Remember him with a get-well card.

Fargo, North Dakota, Bubbling with 1967 World Tournament Enthusiasm

Fargo's bid for the 1967 world horseshoe tournament gained momentum at the spring meeting of the Red River Valley League held April 18.

League members gave unanimous backing to the effort of landing the tourney in North Dakota for the first time. They also voted to join the NHPA 100 per cent for 1966.

A drive to raise money for the guarantee will start soon with several projects planned, according to Henry Wisness, who was re-elected president of the RRV association.

Will Gullickson, who was re-named secretary, outlined plans for the world tourney bid. He expressed his confidence in the loyal horseshoe participants and backers in the league and area. He announced the Fargo Park District has assured the officials of six additional courts at Oak Grove Park for the 1967 tourney. This will make an 18-court layout, one of the finest in the nation.

Brownstown, Illinois Open Tournament, July 9

The Brownstown Open tournament will get underway at the Brownstown Fairgrounds on Saturday, July 9. Qualifying scores may be sent in or pitcher may qualify on courts, until 11 a.m. Saturday. Entry fee is $2.00 and should accompany scores. Those sending in scores should send them to Del Maroon or Lester Miller, Brownstown, Ill. There will be four 8-man classes with three trophies being awarded in each class. Round Robin starts at 12:30 p.m.

In Memoriam

Members of the Illinois state association and others were shocked to learn of the passing of one of its most active members, James H. Hart of Winchester, Illinois. He passed away Thursday, May 12 in Winchester. He is survived by two sisters, and a niece, all of Winchester. Services were held at the Lynnville Methodist church and he was laid to rest in Winchester City cemetery.

Jim as he was fondly known could be seen in almost any tournament within driving range of his home and was a very strong pitcher. He always participated in the Illinois state tournament at Springfield and finished high in the championship flight many times. He was a familiar figure at the Corn Belt Open tournament, and at the Galesburg Open tournament along with many others. He was a very friendly person and was well thought of by all who competed with him.

The sympathy of the Illinois state association, of which he was a member of many years standing, together with that of the National Horseshoe Pitchers' Association, is extended to his loved ones in their hour of bereavement.

"He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High, shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty."

* * * * *

The sudden passing of Walter "Bud" Horner, who spent the winters in his Florida home and summered in Farmersburg, Indiana, creates a void in the circle of horseshoe friends that leaves us with the realization that we have lost more than a friend, because he was a symbol of a true way of life. Bud, as he was affectionately known, was a quiet man, a kindly man, living every minute of his life. To him there was too much goodness in the world about him, to ever cause him to be downcast. He was the sort of person that you wanted your friends and loved ones to know about.

He was active in horseshoe pitching for many years. He lived most of his life in or around Farmersburg, Indiana, as a farmer and a most successful one. His most memorable experience in the sport came in 1961 when he finished in 21st place in championship bracket of that year's World Tournament held at Muncie, Indiana. He won 15 games with a ringer percentage of 70 per cent.

To those of his bereaved family in the loss of their loved one, whom God in his infinite goodness has taken to live with him on High, we extend the sympathy of the Indiana association and that of the National Horseshoe Pitchers' association. He will be sadly missed wherever he was associated.

"For he shall give his angels charge Over thee, to keep thee forever, and ever."

Notes From Dimondale, Michigan Club

The Lansing, Michigan Parks Department tournament Saturday, May 14, at Potter Park's courts turned out to be a nice success. Oscar Hope, the general chairman, and Earl Grable of the Wolverine State Association, and president, jointly expressed satisfaction at the 38 entries. Twenty-six inexperienced pitchers participated with considerable enthusiastic interest. Riz Risdon of this group joined the Dimondale Horseshoe Club at the completion of the day's competition.

Sunday, May 15, witnessed Greenville's first tournament of the season under the tutelage of Al Mitchell and Vern Sewell. Forty-two entries were recorded. A very nice turn-out as usual.

However, qualifying rounds will be conducted on the courts all day Saturday and evening until 10 p.m., June 25.

Washington's Winter Open Classic

Paul Snow, a West Seattle barber, who failed to clip all heads that opposed him in the regular round robin of Class A, finally won the 7th series of the Winter Open Classic held Sunday, April 3rd at Seattle's Woodland Park. In the largest field of pitchers to assemble on the courts this year, the barber shaved John Reedy, "the colorful turkey" of Edmonds, of all his feathered ego to win in total points scored 102 to 100 after a 3-way playoff involving Ray Brumfield, also of Edmonds.

John Monasmith of Yakima, the 1963 World's Champion and winner of the State Championship 13 times since 1949, won from the largest field of pitchers (29) to date in the Winter Open Classic. John brought his family to Bremerton as his son in the Navy was to board a ship to do service off Viet Nam. Everyone enjoyed pitching and visiting with John and family and wish young Monasmith bon voyage and a good tour of duty.

In this 8th series, Monasmith reluctantly retrieved his rusty shoes from his car and scoured them to ringer perfection on the Seattle Woodland Park sand courts for a 7 win Class A shine. However, Francis Winetrout of Lummi Island made him earn his trophy with a score of 44 to 50.

Gullickson Speaks Before Moorhead State College Class

Moorhead State College is becoming aware of the game of horseshoe pitching. Dr. T. Edison Smith's physical education class during the past winter spent part of its time pitching horseshoes in the Alex Nemzek Fieldhouse. Smith invited Will Gullickson of Moorhead, regional director of the NHPA, to give an hour-long class on the techniques of the game. Smith was enthusiastic over the way in which the students took to the game. Among those in the class were basketball stars, Jim Jahr and Wally Halbakken.

The Mt. Pleasant Horseshoe Club of Pennsylvania announces they will hold an open horseshoe tournament on July 23 and 24. This event will be open to any player belonging to the NHPA and will be held at the Rainbow Gardens approximately one mile south of Mt. Pleasant on Bridgeport St.

Qualifying for this event shall consist of submitting any two sanctioned published tournament averages since May 1965. If a pitcher does not have two tournament averages since May 1965, he may submit his last tournament average, or if he doesn't want to use the averages he has, he can qualify by throwing 100 shoes at the following places: Erie, under Joseph Peters; Beaver, under Herman Boyer; Washington, under Robert Hummell; Dormont, under Mike Riedl; and Mt. Pleasant, under Robert Myers. A maximum of two attempts will be allowed. Ten ringers will then be subtracted from the qualifiers score to place him in the tournament. All entries must be postmarked by July 11 and sent with the pitcher's address and qualifying fee of $3.00 to Robert Myers, 107 Liberty Avenue, Mt. Pleasant, Pa. 15666.

The tournament will consist of 40 men, 5 classes of eight. Each player will be notified of his pitching time and class. Should a pitcher not be able to make the competition, his entry fee will be refunded. Trophies will be awarded to the winner and runner-up as prizes in all classes.

American Legion Horseshoe Tournament

The American Legion of Indiana is planning a state horseshoe tournament for its members and has called upon the Indiana Chapter of the NHPA for assistance.

The idea of such an event was formulated by Paul Pendry, Indiana NHPA member from Dunkirk who is active in the American Legion and by Frank Myers, Department Adjutant of the Indiana American Legion.

Preliminary plans for the tourney were discussed at a special Legion meeting at the War Memorial building in Indianapolis. The meeting was conducted by Paul Pendry and attended by Frank Myers. Among those in attendance were National officers of the NHPA Bob Pence and Harold Craig as well as Randy McKinnis of Lafayette, Bob McBride of Frankfort and Paul Van Sickle of Indianapolis, all of whom are members of both the NHPA and the American Legion.

The tournament will probably be held at Dorner Park in Frankfort, Ind. August 20-21. The Frankfort American Legion and the Clinton County Horseshoe Pitchers' Association will be the hosts.

Complete details will be announced in the near future, and indications are the event will draw a big entry list, many of whom will be NHPA members.

ATTENTION — Ted Allen Horseshoe Users

The war in Viet Nam has added greatly to the demand for steel and to the demand for time in the forge shops, where the heavy machinery used in making shoes, must be utilized. This has made it extremely difficult to get the materials. We had expected to have shoes at this time, but delivery date of shoes to you is unknown at this time. When news of delivery is definite, this space will carry it. Money is still being spent to do everything possible. There is no intention of going out of business.

Despite the very cold, windy weather, we had 22 pitchers qualify for the three divisions. Each one gave very good account of himself with Robert Toney of Lynchburg winning the championship in the Dogwood Blossom Invitational tourney, sponsored by the Hill City club on the Miller Park courts in Lynchburg, Virginia on Saturday, May 14.

On August 6 and 7 we will hold our Annual Hill City Open which will include not only pitchers from the state of Virginia but from West Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, the Carolinas and other states.

Odd Man Round Robins for two & three courts

By C. W. Martz, Pennsylvania State Secretary

It has come to my attention that throughout the United States there are probably more clubs that have two or three courts than any other number. How to get the maximum use out of the courts, and how to accommodate as many pitchers as possible are problems that must surely plague the tournament and program managers. As far as the author knows, there has been little or no use made of the odd man round robins. These types of round robins have definite advantages over the even, or conventional, round robins for a small number of courts. Two of the obvious are: they allow one more man to compete in comparison with the even round robin, and they free players to keep score (a much needed function in small groups). It is hoped that the following round robin schedules will be of assistance in setting up small tournaments and program activities.
