To the Hall of Fame committee and the N.H.P.A. members. may I extend my deepest thanks for electing me as a member of the Horseshoe Pitching Hall of Fame. The beautiful plague hangs in a prominent place in my home, where it will be cherished more than any trophy I have won, or may win in the future. I realize that other women will be added to the Hall of Fame in years to come, but I am extremely proud to have been given the honor of being first. Thank you all very much.

Sincerely,

VICKI WINSTON

Kuchcinski Wins World Championship for Third Time; Hohl Second, West Third, Knauft Fourth

Danny Kuchcinski, the 21 year old lefthander from Erie, Pennsylvania with the one and a quarter reverse turn, repeated as World Champion with the loss of only one game. It was his third title in four years having previously won at Erie last year and at Fargo in 1967.

DANNY KUCHCINSKI

Danny became stronger as the tournament progressed and ended with an overall ringer average of 84.9. His only loss was to Henry Knauft of Washington in the 24th round, the same round that his closest rival, Elmer Hohl lost to Clyde Martz of Pittsburgh. Knauft hit 113 ringers in 132 shoes to pin the loss on Danny.

The champ had a great win over Martz in the 30th round after trailing by 20 points early and by 10 points late in the game. He clinched the crown in the 34th round with a 50-37 win over Hohl by virtue of Elmer's shakey start and Danny's 114 ringers in 130 shoes. His best single game was 91.2 percent with 62 of 68.

Two days after the tournament, Danny and his wife Sue appeared on the Johnny Carson Tonight Show in New York. They are scheduled for a trip to Japan in the near future for TV and World Fair appearances.

Danny's tremendous skill, youth and appearance coupled with his beautiful wife Sue and their combined exhibition act gives both the champion and the NHPA a golden opportunity to promote the game and place it before the eyes of the general public. Elmer Hohl, the Canadian, placed second for the fifth time to go with the World titles he won in 1965 and 1968. He thus proves that he is one of the most consistent of the game's super stars.

He lost games to Clyde Martz, Bob West and the champion. Their combined ringer averages against Hohl was 87.1, Elmer's average for the 35 games was 84.1.

Bob West of Oregon took third and was in the running until the final night. He averaged 81.6 overall and it was his best ever World tourney finish highlighted by his 51-42 victory over Hohl the final night.

Henry Knauft was a "toughie" all the way and averaged 81.1 to place fourth. His highlights were the 51-44 come-from-behind win to hand Kuchcinski his only loss and the 142 shoe game with Elmer Hohl, longest of the tourney.

John Walker of California won the fifth place trophy by virtue of his 78.7 ringer average, the highest finish of a California player in the past 10 years.

Wilbur Kabel of Ohio took sixth with the same won-lost record as Walker and was the high qualifier with 546 points and 175 ringers in his 200 shoes.

Glen Henton, the red headed left hander from Iowa finished strong to gain seventh. As always he had a lot of good games in his system although he has not been as active in tournament play as formerly.

Dave Baker of Missouri returned to the championship division after losing the class B playoff at Erie last year.

Glen Riffle of Ohio having a good year finished in the top ten for the first time.

Clyde Martz of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania was one of the most feared players in the tourney. In the 23rd round he posted the best single game of the meet, a 94.7 average and in the next game handed Elmer Hohl his first defeat. Later he led Danny Kuchcinski 30 to 7, 35 to 25 and 38 to 34 before losing 50-38. Clyde also posted a string of 50 consecutive ringers - 46 in a row to end his game with Copeland and four more to start his game with Elmer Hohl. A sprinkling of below par games during the schedule kept him from a much higher finish. His overall average was 78.4.

Merlin Potts of Kansas made the championship division for the fifth straight year and barely missed the top ten.

Jesse Gonzales of California made history by being the first "flip" style pitcher to make the finals when he posted 169 ringers and 526 points in the 200 shoe qualifying round. He proved that was no fluke by averaging 76.5 overall for a twelfth place finish. His high one "flip" pitch instead of a conventional turn was smooth as silk and beautiful to watch but very mystifying to the midwestern and eastern players.

Jerry Schneider of California who was chairman of the committee that brought the tourney to South Gate gave a good account of himself as he always does in the World tourney.

Fernando Isais, Hall of Fame member and eight times World champ including six in a row, probably pitched his horseshoe swan song this year. Having been inactive on the courts for some time and not in the necessary physical condition for the 35 game grind, Fernando could not resist one more shot at World Tourney competition. He qualified with 516 points, defeated his old rival Ted Allen in round robin play and as always displayed the most beautiful pitching style the game has ever seen.

Ronnie Simmons of the home South Gate club won the most improved player award when he won 21 games compared to the seven he won at Erie last year.

Roy Smith of Michigan failed to attain the consistency which won him fifth place at Erie last year but still managed 20 wins.

Jim Knisley of Ohio has been having his troubles in competition this year, but he also managed 20 wins, far below his second place finish in 1968.

Gerald "Doc" Maison of Michigan made the top 36 for the first time and gave a good account of himself, being edged out of the Outstanding First Year Entrant award by Gonzales.

Ted Allen is far from the Ted Allen who won 10 World titles and gained a spot in the Hall of Fame, but he is still a great horseshoe player both on and off the courts and can still toss an 80 percent game now and then.

Art Kamman of Arizona had some great games in the early part of the schedule, but slumped in the later stages.

Floyd Toole of Arkansas made the championship division again this year and posted the same record he did at Erie last year, but far below his record in the late '50s and early '60s.

Frank Stinson of Minnesota, one of the games real veterans, failed to come up to his performance at Erie last year although he qualified well with 524 points and 163 ringers in 200 shoes.

Andy Paglarini of Minnesota improved over his record at Erie last year winning 14 games compared to only half as many in 1969.

Stan Manker, the Ohio left hander qualified well and had his best game against the local favorite Jesse Gonzales whom he defeated decisively.

John Rademacher of Florida made the championship division for the third year in a row, but is still looking for the form that placed him so high at Keene in 1968.

Jim Ostrander of Michigan made the championship division for the first time and won 12 games.

Jonas Snyder along with fifth place winner John Walker gave the San Diego club two players in the championship division, both from Chula Vista, Cali-

Ansil Copeland of Ohio was another who made the championship class for the first time and is a rapidly improving player who will be tougher in the future.

Ralph Randall was a surprise qualifier in the championship division, one of eleven Californians in the top class.

Jack Stout, the big man from Illinois made the 36 for the second year in succession and for the third time.

Curt Bestul became the first player from Wisconsin to make the championship class since the days of the famous Casey Jones.

Ned Shaver of California made a comeback after being inactive for several vears.

Ed McFarland of California and formerly of Texas made the top 36 for the first time since the days of the World Tourney in Murray, Utah.

Dale Dixon, "the old Gray Goose" from Iowa has attended every World tourney for 50 years and played in the championship division in most of them. He qualified well this year, but like Ted Allen can not seem to reach his level of past years.

John Pratt of California became the first Indian to qualify for the top class since the days of Stan DeLeary in the early 1950s. He is a Sioux Indian and a member of the Sacramento club.

Monty Latino along with Pratt gave the Sacramento club two entrants in the top division and was a surprise qualifier.

Wally Shipley Wins Stokes Award

The coveted Arch Stokes Memorial Award went to Wally Shipley of Alhambra, California. It is given annually in memory of one of the most beloved figures of the game. The award goes to the person who has contributed the most to the game of horseshoe and the NHPA on a national level during the past year.

Wally, who is president of the South California Horseshoe Pitchers' Association was also co-ordinator of the 1970 World Tournament.

He spent almost two years in preparation for the event, raising funds, and promoting the tourney. His pre-tourney spadework and liaison with NHPA officials during the meet resulted in the best run, smoothest World Tournament in history. There were no wrinkles or hang-ups. The seating accommodations were the best ever.

All in all it was a job extremely well done and Wally Shipley richly deserves the Stokes Memorial Award.

THE NOVEMBER ISSUE OF THE "DIGEST" WILL BE OUR STATE TOURNAMENT ISSUE AND ALL STATE SECRETARIES ARE REQUEST-ED TO FORWARD RESULTS TO EDITOR ELLIS COBB BY OCTOBER 10.

Secretary Bob Pence also requests that each state secretary send him the name of the winner of the state tournament as soon as possible so he can fill requests for a full list of 1970 state champions asked for by various publications, yearbooks, almanacs and encyclopedias.

Horseshoe Hall Of Fame Ceremonies Install Vicki Winston, Ellis Cobb, Blair Nunamaker

Induction into the Horseshoe Pitching Hall of Fame, the ultimate and highest honor which can be bestowed, came to Vicki Winston of Missouri, Ellis Cobb of Illinois and posthumously to Blair Nunamaker of Ohio during the 1970 World Tournament in very impressive ceremonies conducted by Ralph Dykes, acting as proxy for Carl Vonder Lancken, chairman of the selection committee.

BLAIR NUNAMAKER

ELLIS COBB

Vicki Winston of Missouri became the first woman to be so honored. Vicki has won the World title eight times between 1956 and 1969 and is still a contender for more titles. She is truly queen of the horseshoe courts in every respect.

Ellis Cobb, editor of the NHPA publications and secretary of the Illinois State Association, made a flying trip from his home to South Gate in order to be present and receive his plaque.

Blair Nunamaker of Ohio was also honored in the ceremonies. Blair held the Men's title from 1929 through 1932 and died in 1944.

These three individuals join 16 others who have been voted into the Hall of Fame in past years. Since these records date back all the way to 1909 this is a very selective honor indeed.

Other Hall of Fame members present at this year's inductions were Elmer Beller, Ted Allen, Fernando Isais, Elmer Hohl and Bob Pence.

Complete biographies of this year's inductees were in the July issue of the Digest.

Tribute To Scorekeepers

Scorekeeping duties for the Championship Division were handled by the following: Lloyd Frederickson (Minn); Ray Faulkner, Hank Drogemuller, Lee Forest, Fred Burkhardt, Harry Morse and Bill Price (Calif.); Harold Wolfe and Carl Young (Ohio); Levi Miller (Fla.); Frank Campbell (Mich.); Fred Armentrout (Ind.); Bill and Judy Cork (Nevada); Tom Towne (N. Mex.): Al Richardson (Oregon).

Best Ever Trophies And Brochure

No account of the 1970 World Tournament would be complete without mention of the fantastic array of trophies awarded the place winners and by far the best ever program brochure.

Jim Weeks of the Southern California Association was responsible for the trophy selection paid for in part by the NHPA and other donors obtained by the South Gate club. The trophies for all classes and divisions and including special awards were 65 in number and were unbelievable in size, beauty and

The program brochure and tournament schedule insert was put together by Wally Shipley and its features are too numerous to list. It is practically an encyclopedia of the game complete with instructions, rules, records, data of all types, "How To Do It" articles and nearly 100 pictures and charts.

The program brochure sold for $1.00 which was far below its value. Copies may still be obtained while the supply lasts at that price.

A fellow club member and former champion, Lorraine Thomas of Lockport, New York placed second and defending champion Vicki Winston slipped to third.

Other group winners in the preliminaries besides Durr were Lloyd Frederickson of Wayzata, Minnesota, Keith Baker of Des Moines, Iowa and Herb Criss of Bremerton, Washington. #### Bill Holland Takes Junior Title Back To Indiana

Another great Junior tournament saw left handed Bill Holland of Indianapolis take the World title back home again to Indiana, thereby replacing another southpaw from the Hoosier state, Mark Seibold of Huntington who won the tourney last year at Erie but placed only third this year.

It was a great tourney all the way which captured the interest of the fans, and records galore fell before the ringer onslaught of the youngsters.

Little 10 year old Walter Ray Williams of Eureka, California won the hearts of the fans with his unexpected second place finish and truly great pitching. He led the qualifiers with 45 ringers and 140 points in 50 shoes, every shoe being in count and only one ringer and one point shy of Mark Seibold's World record established last year at Erie.

Little "deadeye" Walter Ray then dropped his first game to the new champion 46-55, won a come from behind, cliff-hanger, 50-45 in his next tilt and proceeded to win all remaining games, including two close ones with former champions Mark Seibold and Farron Eisemann in his last two games. The little fellow averaged 78.7 overall and his 507 ringers and 644 shoes pitched in the seven games were both all time records for Junior play.

Bill Holland, the new champ, is only 15 and will be back again next year. He finished his first game with 22 consecutive ringers to pull it out of the fire and then went on to a clean sweep for the title. He qualified with 45 ringers and 139 points in 50 shoes. His high run of consecutive ringers in round robin play was 28.

Mark Seibold, champion in both 1969 and 1966 bowed out of Junior play with a record smashing 83.9 ringer average for seven games and an all time single game high of 44 ringers in 48 pitches for 91.7. Only against Holland did he drop below 80 percent.

The Seibold-Webber duel was a record breaking classic. They tossed nine consecutive "four deads" early in the game and followed that with ten straight later. Their combined ringer average was 84.45, an all time record with 106 and 100 ringers in 122 shoes.

Seibold's 42 consecutive ringers, 34 at the end of his first game and eight at the start of the second round was another new record.

Farron Eisemann of Wyoming, Junior champ in 1967 and 1968, changed from a "flip" to a one and a quarter turn this year and placed fifth. He has one more year remaining in Junior play.

Bill Holland Takes — (Continued)

Class B was won by Paris Seibold for the second straight year and there was also another Holland boy in that class.

Harold Anthony Takes Class "B" Title

Harold Anthony of Arcanum, Ohio, a member of the Darke County Club which won the 1972 World Tournament bid, captured the Class B bunting with a 50-49 come from behind win in his final game with Del Wright of Indiana who finished second.

Midwest players dominated Class B. Nelson Vogel of Illinois was third, being edged from the runner-up spot by ringer percentage and Walt Wilhoite of Indiana placed fourth.

In the preliminaries, Wright tossed 38 ringers in 42 shoes for a high single game percentage of 90.5. The champion, Harold Anthony tossed overall averages of 72.3 percent in the preliminaries and 73.1 in the finals. Al Lord of Maine won a playoff from Eston Brown of California to gain the finals.

Paxton Senior King For Fifth Year

John Paxton of Iowa seems to have a lock on the Senior title for men over 65. He became king of the division again for the fifth time in a row, winning all seven of his games easily with a ringer average of 66.2. John is 73 and shows no signs of slowing his ringer tossing pace.

Bill Jones of California was runner-up and former Intermediate champs, Winetrout of Washington and Wayne Winston of Missouri placed third and ourth.

Joe Foster of Nebraska, also 73, swept to victory in Class B.

Class C with five players over 80, could have been called the Super Seniors. Joe Dubie of Georgia at 85 was the real senior citizen. This class won by Earl Ryner of Illinois was played at the Baldwin Park courts in order to make room for play and qualifiers at South Gate.

World Tournament Highlights

This was by far the smoothest running, best organized and co-ordinated

World Tournament in history.

There was a drop in the number of entries and the overall caliber of the field as is only natural due to geographic distances involved. Many top name players were unable to attend - such as Curt Day, Ray Martin, Paul Focht, Harold Reno, Karl VanSant, Ralph Maddox, Al Zadroga, Ken Jensen and Jim Solomon to name only a few.

However, an unusual number of high caliber California players successfully took up some of the slack and it was a great tournament from start to finish.

The state of Washington's association headed by secretary Jim Saari had a bumper crop of entries in all classes and divisions. The Washington group had a party after the final night's play which turned out to be a birthday celebration for Henry Knauft of Spokane who placed fourth with 81.1 percent ringers.

Al Lord of Maine received an award for being the entrant who traveled the longest distance. He made the finals of Class B.

Joe Dubie of Georgia was the oldest entrant at age 85. Jeffery Williams of Eureka, California at age nine was the youngest.

Highlights — (Continued)

Gunnar Hansen, Norm Smith and Chuck Bailey were the unsung heros of the tournament.

Gunnar had charge of an extremely efficient and hardworking grounds-keeping crew that did their work flawlessly.

Chuck Bailey had charge of the big scoreboard registering the wins and losses of the championship division, always a necessary and hard job.

Norm Smith was Mr. Handyman who had charge of scoring devices, nameplates and all other details that needed doing but are too numerous to itemize. He also brews wonderful coffee which tournament officials used to keep up their energy!

Mrs. Shipley, Mrs. Bell and other wives of Southern California members did an excellent job with the information booth and sale of game related items.

NHPA prexy Ralph Dykes once more performed yoeman service with his big and fancy qualifying board which posted all qualifying scores and round robin results. In this he received invaluable help from Pete Sheppard, who came all the way from Worcester, Massachusetts to represent the manufacturers of American Horseshoes.

The Southern California Association conducted three bus tours for horseshoe players wives and their families. Disneyland, Universal Movie Studios and the Fashion Mart tours were all enjoyed by the horseshoe visitors.

The Southern Association also threw a big party for all horseshoe players and NHPA members and their families at the American Legion Hall where special entertainment of a most unusual nature was provided by a group known as the "Kitchen Kuties". The eats were free and delicious, the entertainment sidesplitting and the attendance overflowing.

Special thanks should be given to all individuals responsible for staging these tours and the party.

Mrs. Eston Brown handled housing accommodations while her husband Eston was busy helping Gunnar Hansen with grounds-keeping duties.

Erma Turner of Los Gatos, California deserves special recognition for the excellent work she did as head NHPA secretary Bob Pence's office staff compiling the qualifying, game and round robin results. Assisted by Lois Pence and Sam Goodlander in the special office trailer at courtside. Mrs. Turner, who is a member of the Northern California Association, was a vital cog in the administration of the tournament.

NHPA vice president Leo McGrath had charge of judges and referees. His staff consisted of Bob Rambo and Walt Wilhoite of Indiana, Al Lord of Maine and Earl Winston of Missouri.

The South Gate Park Department furnished the big trailer used as the tournament office. The NHPA dinner was a "yummy" affair held in the Park Administration building where the NHPA convention was also held. All in all the park officials gave wonderful co-operation.

Trophy presentation and special ceremonies were conducted by Wally Shipley, Ralph Dykes and Bob Pence with assists from South Gate city officials and other local dignitaries.

The Ray Williams family of Eureka, California had seven entrants and took home two trophies. The W. L. Seibold family of Indiana had four entrants and garnered three trophies. The Ottie Reno family of Ohio also collected two trophies.

Missouri Open Tourney — Neosha, Mo. — Sept. 19-20

John Elkins of Neosho, Missouri announces that the Missouri Open tournament will be held on the Phelps Grove courts in Neosho, Missouri on September 19-20. Qualifying on courts on September 12 or 13th or send scores to John Elkins, 1006 Randolph, Neosho, Missouri 64850 not later than September 13th, together with $3.00 entry fee.

There will be trophies in the 3 classes. Class "B" and "C" will play on Saturday, September 19 at 9:30 and 1:30 respectively. Class plays on Sunday, September 20 at 1:30 p. m.

West's Winning Ways Gain Him Tacoma, Wash. Title

Bob West again came out on top in the "A" Division of the Tacoma Open Tournament held at Wright's Park, June 27-28. His closest game came with 2nd place finisher Ed Fishel of Neilton. Bob edged Ed 50-38 in the finale to go undefeated. Again Bob averaged over 80%.

Mark Alvord of Seattle threw the best horseshoes of his life to capture Class "B" over Sig Pederson and Howard Peterson who tied for 2nd. Mark averaged 68.8% enroute to victory.

Oliver Hartzell edged Mac McDaniel in a playoff for Class "C" as both finished regular play with 6 and 1 records.

Mildred Kuhne went undefeated throughout the day in the Women's Division, but had to work hard for her victories against runnerup Sarah Giacommini and Alice Rehard.

Mike Weber of Hoquiam had no difficulty in winning the Juniors as he averaged 74.76% for the day. Lonnie Griggs, also of Hoquiam placed 2nd.
