Kuchcinski Takes B. C. Centennial International

The 1971 British Columbia Centennial and Canadian International Horseshoe Pitching Championships was a highly successful event with an official entry list of 92 participants and $2,800.00 in cash prizes plus trophies. Three Provinces from Canada and four States were represented. About 2,000 spectators attended the three day tournament to watch the largest event of its kind in Western Canada.

World Champion, 22 year old Danny Kuchcinski, took the "Diamond" International Trophy and $500.00 top prize with 80.9% ringers. Bob West of Oregon, in second place with 73.4%, picked up $400.00, while Roger Vogel of California copped third money of $300.00 with 71.8%. High single game of the tournament went to Kuchcinski with 88%, followed closely by Bob West and 4th place finisher Alvin Richardson of Oregon with 86%. The current British Columbia champion, Sid Lash of Burnaby, B. C., took a respectable 5th place with 62.9% and collected $100.00 for his effort.

Class "B" was won by Paul Russell of Washington with 42.8%, with the trophy went $150.00. Second spot was nailed down by Al Johnson of British Columbia, good for $100.00.

Class "C" was won by Elmer Anderson of Washington who never lost a game with an average of 33.8%, good for $150.00. In second place was Alf Dahl of British Columbia, he also went home with $100.00 for his fine performance.

The Seniors class was easily taken by the former World Intermediate Champion, Francis Winetrout of Washington, his percentage of 64.4% won him $75.00. Second place was won by Bob Blunt of British Columbia with 55.5%.

In the Junior event eight year old Louis "Tiger" Hoffard of British Columbia, current B. C. Junior Champ, walked through all seven games to win with an outstanding performance of 52.8% ringers. In Memoriam

Nelson C. Vogel

The sudden passing of Nelson C. Vogel of Rte #1, Manito, Illinois, on May 27, has left the Illinois State Association a void that will be hard to replace.

"Doc" as he was known to all his fellow pitchers and friends was without a doubt one of the finest competitive pitchers in the country. He was one who never conceded until the last shoe was pitched and was ranked as a contender for any title that was at stake in any tournament.

He played in almost every major tournament in the country and was a high finisher in most of them. He competed in several World tournaments, the Eastern National, Corn Belt Open, Galesburg National Open, the Illinois State tournament and many others.

He was truly a fine sportsman and a grand person to have as a friend and neighbor. To all of those who have known "Doc", they will miss his genial greeting and smile. To him we say . . .

*Farewell dear friend,
Such a life as Thine
Has not been lived in vain,
But has shed an influence rare, divine
On lives that here remain.*

He was a member of long standing of the Illinois State Horseshoe Pitchers' Association and the National Association. He also was a member of the Peoria, Illinois Horseshoe Club.

To his loving wife, Margaret, and his two sons, Ronald and Roger and his daughter, Marilee, the sincere sympathy of the Illinois State Association and the National Horseshoe Pitchers' Association with that of the Peoria Horseshoe club, is extended in the loss of a loving husband and father.

* * * *

Lewis Thurman Lynn of Elsmere, Kentucky, passed away June 4 after suffering a heart attack. He was 49 years old and is survived by his wife, three sons and a daughter. Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to each of them in their sorrow.

He was most active in the local leagues in and around Northern Kentucky for over ten years. He was well liked by his fellow horseshoe pitchers and friends for his great personality and his high respect for the game.

He was a veteran of World War II and a member of the Ralph Fuller VFW Post. He also held membership in the National Horseshoe Pitchers' Association.

Galesburg, Illinois National Open — August 15

The Thirteenth Galesburg National Open will be held August 15. As usual, the courts will be open to the national players for practice on Saturday, Aug. 12. Entry fee will be $3 — 100-shoe qualifying score. Entries should be mailed in by July 31 with the fee to Ross Sornberger, Treasurer, 1904 Baird Ave., Galesburg, Ill. 61401. It will be $2 more to play.

The top 32 players will play at 1 p.m. — next 32 players at 9 a.m. All games are 50 points. Three trophies will be presented in each class, with all players receiving prizes. Players will be notified as to the time they play. All those not able to qualify in the top 64 will have their money refunded. The Galesburg Chamber of Commerce is once again donating a trophy for the Best Dressed Player.

Ohio State Championship, Greenville, Ohio, Sept. 3-4-5-6

New England Director Reports

Peter Shepard, Director

It was an extreme pleasure for me to attend the Keene, New Hampshire warm-up where I saw so many familiar faces and viewed the renewed enthusiasm in horseshoe pitching. My congratulations to the Franklin Horseshoe Club for sending 14 members to the tournament and the NHPA. A real great job done.

While attending the Connecticut Open held at New Canaan, Connecticut, I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Ervin Van Dine and discussed many problems of common interest to all horseshoe pitchers. We had perfect weather for the tournament and thoroughly enjoyed meeting so many of the Massachusetts players present. Congratulations are in order to the court keepers for doing such an outstanding job in keeping the pits in such fine condition on that particularly hot day. Congratulations to the winner of the Connecticut Open, Norm Rioux, for a job well done. During this past week, 13th of June, the lower classes also played at New Canaan, Connecticut. I wish to thank Mr. Van Dine for giving me the honor of presenting the trophies on this fine day.

If any NHPA member in the state of New Hampshire is interested in helping the Derry Recreation Department in enlarging their horseshoe courts it would certainly be appreciated. Mr. Cox, the director of recreation, in Derry, N. H., talked with me recently and advised that any and all help that the NHPA members could give would really be appreciated.

It was an added pleasure for me to stop at the West Side Horseshoe Club in West Springfield, Mass., and meet with your former New England Director, Mr. Ralph Forstrom, and also had the opportunity to meet Mr. Herferd.

I am pleased to announce that the Marlboro VFW Horseshoe Club, located in Marlboro, Mass., is now a member of the NHPA and boasts six beautiful courts that anyone is welcome to use. They are sending 15 members to the Massachusetts Open to be held June 20th and 27th.

It was a pleasure to visit the Quincy Horseshoe Club located in Quincy, Mass., and talk with Russ Sweeney. They have beautiful courts in Quincy which indicates a lot of hard work and dedication by the members of the Quincy club.

I would like to also state at this time how nice it was to meet with Roger Bolduc of the New England Horseshoe Pitchers Association.

Your director will be attending the World Horseshoe Tournaments to be held in Middlesex, New Jersey from July 30th through August 10th., and shall be staying at the Ivory Towers Motel in Greenbrook, New Jersey. Looking forward to meeting any and all NHPA members. It shall be my pleasure to serve you in any capacity required.

Ed Holmberg In Successful Defense Of Western Montana Title

Ed Holmberg of Big Timber, Montana, successfully defended his Western Montana title despite losing the final game of the round robin match to Arnie Mosness also of Big Timber. This was the first of eight tournaments to be held in Western Montana. Of particular interest to all Montana pitchers is the fact that the annual Montana state tournament will be held in Billings, Montana over the Labor Day weekend, instead of at Lewistown as previously announced. It is open to all Montana pitchers who have participated in two or more tournaments.

Maylahn Wins Rain Soaked LaPorte, Indiana Open

Ralph Maylahn of Wisconsin was in the lead when high winds, thunder showers and a deluge of rain in the middle of the fifth round washed out the remainder of the LaPorte, Ind. Open. Doc Rookstool of Indiana and Jack Stout were tied for second. Class C was also washed out half way through the schedule.

Located in City Park in the middle of a grove of huge trees the twelve LaPorte courts are letter perfect in their construction, twelve feet apart with double walkways, perfect blue clay making them a horseshoe pitcher's dream come true.

The LaPorte club, headed by Gus Kuk and Del Hough, are in the process of installing lights and a chain link fence and are planning on hosting a couple of big open events each year in the future. This was the courts first formal competition and NHPA President Ralph Dykes said he had never seen better courts or clay.
