Gonzales Takes Third Straight No. California Tourney; Maintains All-Winning Formula

Diminutive Jesse Gonzales continued his undefeated string started at the Western States Open at Eureka in January by larruping seven opponents at the Ole Hansen Open in Seaside, California. Gonzales, pitching for the Santa Clara County Club, averaged 73.7% for the tourney. Fred Lavett of Seaside lost only to Jesse and pitched a fine 63.5% for the tourney. The day was saddened, as Ole Hansen, in whose honor the tourney is held, passed away a few days previous to his Open. ## A Dream Come True

Lance Astor, Tribal Chairman of the Reno-Sparks Indian Colony, Reno, Nevada and President of the Indian Colony Horseshoe League, has finally had a dream come true.

An enthusiastic horseshoe player, he had dreamed about having clay courts in the Anderson Indian Park in Reno one day. He drew up the plans and with the help of Boyce Miller, cement contractor of Reno, who is also a top horseshoe pitcher, work was begun the last week of May to install eight clay courts at the parks.

These are the only permanent clay courts in the Reno Sparks area. With finishing touches being done by volunteers from the Reno Indian Colony, the courts were dedicated on June 24 and 25, when Lance hosted his first tournament.

Congratulations are in order to Lance, his wife, Jessie, and children, who are horseshoe players, and all the Indians for a wonderful job. Photo shows Marge Bower, state secretary-treasurer, congratulating Lance Astor.

New England Director Reports . . . .

By Peter Shepard

Your director had the pleasure to see for the first time the State of Connecticut form a class for the Ladies and also for the Juniors. Mr. Van Dine and Mr. Wagner are to be commended for the great progress their state has made and to be encouraged as they have so much more yet to accomplish.

To all tournament directors, please do not forget the final results of tournaments in your states must be forwarded to Mr. Roger Bolduc, to each state secretary, the News Digest and also to me. We all did a great job in this direction last year, so let's not fall behind. Let us continue in the same way. From the Connecticut warm up I went to the New Hampshire warm up and it was really great to be back to Keene, New Hampshire. This is where I first became interested in horseshoes thanks to Carl Steinfeld and the St. Pierre Manufacturing corporation. From there I travelled on to Springfield, Vermont. As it was, the weather had slowed their tournament down a little, but they were able to finish on schedule. From there I returned to Sutton and the Heritage Recreation Center. An exhibition was held at Leicester, Massachusetts in honor of the 250th Anniversary. We had top NHPA players on hand and your director was really pleased when he was presented a beautiful trophy on this occasion.

I accepted on behalf of all the members of the NHPA because we all work together for the betterment of the sport. It was wonderful to see so many people amassed for such a celebration and to find so many enjoying our sport of pitching horseshoes.

Our sincere thanks to St. Pierre Manufacturing Corporation for donating several sets of pitching horseshoes to the Recreation Department of the Town of Leicester, Massachusetts to be used in their Parks Department summer program.

COVER PICTURE . . . Cyril Enders, age 72, of Vanport, Pennsylvania, has been pitching horseshoes for more than 60 years. Every spring finds "Cy", as he is most commonly known, outdoors pitching on the local Van Buren Park horseshoe courts almost before the robins make their annual arrival from the south.

Mr. Enders has won 16 first and second place trophies since his retirement in 1965 from Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp. He proudly displays his like for horseshoes in this picture with his trophies.

Cy's proudest accomplishment is his first place trophy and victory in the 1969 World's Tournament in the Senior's Class B held at Erie, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Enders is quite active besides horseshoe pitching. He bowls in two leagues during the winter months. He also is an active participant in the local senior citizen's club. Cy loves to work outside in his yard and in his workshop beside his house, where he does many odd jobs for people.

Cy is married and has two sons, three daughters, many grandchildren and great grandchildren and other relatives who all encourage him to continue his pitching escapades.

Fontaine Filches Los Gatos Class C (No. Calif.)

Lou Fontaine of the Santa Clara County Club made the crucial points when he needed to and edged out Don Muenchow, Jim Adams and Pete Quintana to finish with 4 wins in 5 games pitched at beautiful Oak Meadow Park, Los Gatos. Lou, 1971 Northern California champion, grew stronger as the tightly bunched 6-man group ran out the string of games, and clinched victory in the final game. Don Muenchow of the Mosswood club compiled the high tourney percentage, and the high game of 53.6% to place second in this the 18th Northern California tourney of the '72 season. Arnold Coleman of Stockton grabbed Group II honors and Paul Jensen of Seaside topped the Group III gladiators with a perfect 5-0 record. Due to the no-qualifying method of play in Northern California this season, competition has been very keen as it is rare when more than 3 or 4 percentage points separate any 6-man group of contestants in accumulative percentage.

CHAMPIONSHIP — Lou Fontaine, Santa Clara County 4-1-39.9; Don Muenchow, Mosswood 3-2-43.5; Jim Adams, Stanislaus County 3-2-39.8; Pete Quintana, Vallejo 3-2-38.3; Frank Cvitanich, Golden Gate 1-4-37.6; Roy Land, Rio-Dell-Scotia 1-4-33.1.

Maison, Michigan Champ Cops Water Wonderland Meet

When the smoke of fireworks slowly lifted from the battle field, "Doc" Maison, Warren, Michigan, was the tired but triumphant victor. Meet was played at Burr Oak, Michigan, June 17-18.

Not unlike last year, when the Water Wonderland National Open classic finished in a 3-way tie, the same situation nearly developed again. Maison, Smith and Harold Anthony, of Ohio, were all tied with 9 wins and a loss going into the final round. Smith edged Anthony in a very close contest, while Maison staved off a strong challenge from Clarence Bellman of Indiana. Maison, not to be denied, defeated Smith 51 to 35, or a similar margin for championship title.

Ties seemed to dominate the tournament. Howard Johnson, Nashville, having a fine season, eliminated Don Drake of Colon, Michigan in another playoff of a tie situation in Class A.

The canny old veteran, Lee Jacobs of Belleville, Michigan, sailed through 11 games, undefeated, to win Class B honors, while John Hess of Port Huron, Michigan performed the same feat in the Class C.

Casey Moubray of Lansing, Michigan, in his first year of competition, south-pawed his way to an exciting playoff win over Paul Hackman, Burr Oak to take the Class D crown.

Irene Ostrander of Lansing, Michigan, ruled the women's division, winning all 5 games in the handicap competition.

Steve Staley of Piqua, Ohio, won the junior boys title in undefeated fashion.

In Memoriam

The Northern California Association lost one of their most ardent boosters when Capt. Ole Hansen passed away at the age of 64. Ole loved the sport of horseshoe pitching, and although he never excelled, he was instrumental in establishing the NCHPA constitution and by-laws and successfully organized a large club at Seaside, California. He also served as President of the NCHPA. Three years ago, the Seaside Club honored Ole by naming their annual Seaside Open after him. He is survived by his wife Emily of Monterey, California. Ole's enthusiasm for horseshoes will be sorely missed by us all.

* * * *

Word has been received of the passing of Russ Melton in Iowa. Russ was a member of the Northern California Association for several years in the 60's and his many friends here were shocked to hear of his untimely passing. He will be remembered as a fine gentleman who always did his best in every endeavor and was always a tough competitor.

Gonzales Grabs Golden Gate Classic Championship

Jesse Gonzales, flip flop artist extraordinaire, won his 4th straight Northern California title and continued his unbeaten string by chalking up 5 straight wins to reach 32 straight victories. Jesse was challenged only by fast improving Marty Santos, who managed 3 wins on the new clay in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco. Jesse pitched the high percentage game of 83.3% in this the grand-daddy of all Northern California tourneys. Bill McNally had a flawless day to grab still another Class A trophy. Jack Loomis took Class B honors in a playoff over Ed Brazzi. Jim Saunders was tough in the playoff game with John Saxby to cop the Class C-1 title, and Carl Halunen won his first championship insignia in Class C-2. Jim Cooper of Sacramento won the Class D laurels.

Westbrook "Vunderful Vunderful" In Los Gatos Class D (Northern California)

Frank Westbrook had the savvy (and the ringers) to come through in the closing innings of his games to edge out Paul Jensen of Seaside on the newly clayed Oak Meadow Park courts in Los Gatos. Jensen pitched the best tournament percentage of the day but lost a crucial game and had to settle for second spot. John Morehouse won 5 straight contests in Group II competition and Lester Cagle and Bob Chaffin of the new Stockton Club reigned supreme in Groups III and IV. This was the 22nd tourney of the new season in Northern California using the no-qualifying method of play. Courts have been fully utilized in almost every tourney, all tourneys start at 10:00 a. m., and afternoon groups are usually needed to accommodate the large entry list.

Our large Class C and Class D contingents have been able to compete in many more tournaments, and rarely have we had to turn anyone away because of lack of facilities.

Gonzales Pressed, But Wins Arroyo Viejo Open (Northern California)

After two years of frustration, the Northern California Class AA pitchers almost caught up with Jesse Gonzales, but after losing an unheard of two games in one tourney (his first losses this year), Jesse came through in a playoff game to edge out Marty Santos after Marty had disposed of Jack Seymour in a three-way logjam for first. Marty forced the overtime session with a pulsating 50-47 victory in the final game of the closely matched 6-man group on the excellent clay at Arroyo Viejo Park in Oakland. Jesse lost his first game this year to Rueben Lee when Lee tossed a 71.4% game at him in winning 51-42. In the Santos-Gonzales setto, Marty scorched the stake with 13 straight doubles to grab a sizable lead, but had to hang on to thwart Jesse's finishing kick. Marty recorded a sizzling 77.5% effort to Jesse's fine 74.5%. To attest to the quality of the competition, Mel Ristau wound up with a 69.8% for the tourney but won only two games as did Verdan Zelman averaging 67.2%. There were only 4 games under 60% in the 32 games played. Bill McNally continued his mastery of Class A by registering 5 straight on his home courts, however, Ray Nelson finished strong to wind up with only one loss. Mike Lovetere was tops in Class B and Marion Hawley captured the Class C ringerfest.

It was a nice surprise for him when Mr. Len Clark, sports caster, called him up for this show.
