In Memoriam

The death of Samuel B. Goodlander of Reading, Ohio, on December 6, 1971 is an irreplaceable loss to the Ohio Buckeye State Horseshoe Pitcher's Association, and to the game of horseshoes. Sam served as Secretary-Treasurer of the State Association for many years, and had a host of friends both in and out of Ohio. Sam was firm in his convictions but also most kindly and considerate of his fellow men. Much of the growth of the Ohio Association can well be attributed to his untiring efforts and devotion.

To his widow Mrs. Zena R. Goodlander, and his entire family, the Ohio Buckeye State Horseshoe Pitchers extend most sincere sympathy.

Palmer Victor In "Albin Days" Open — Albin, Wyoming

Early in July is festival time in the winter wheat and cow country of South-eastern Wyoming. Farmers and ranchers in the three corner area - Wyoming, Colorado and Nebraska, get together to celebrate the good life, hereabouts, so they have Albin Days.

Main street of Albin is two blocks long, long enough to have a full fledged parade with floats, bands and mobile displays of all sorts. There aren't many spectators because everybody gets into the act and after the parade the planned events, eating, ball games, racing and horseshoe pitching get underway.

This is Charley Palm, Edwin Anderson and Fred and John Freeburg country, which means horseshoe pitching is an Albin Days tradition and it must continue. Charley can't come anymore and Fred had to give up pitching but Ed and John manage every year to hold one of the nation's smallest, but most delightful tournaments.

Ed Anderson, faithfully, served as secretary-treasurer of the Wyoming Horseshoe Pitcher's Association for six years, and although business responsibilities interfere with pitching, he remains a staunch supporter of the sport. John has followed in the footsteps of his dad, Fred, in making many of the arrangements for the tournament. Mrs. Charley Palm finances the Charley Palm award which is given to the most improved player at State tournaments.

This year 17 pitchers participated in the Albin Days Open and in tradition, Merle Palmer, perennial state champ and Lee Laughlin, both from Cheyenne took the honors in Class A while Stew Chester, Laramie, Wyoming and Durham, Nebraska topped Class B.

New England Director Reports

By Peter Shepard

It was a great pleasure for me as your National Director to visit Levittown, Pennsylvania where I had the privilege of welcoming the Eastern Pennsylvania Horseshoe Pitchers Association into the NHPA. When I have the opportunity to organize such a fine group of horseshoe players and sit in at their business meeting, you can believe that it is most gratifying. The members of this newly organized chapter elected Mr. Ray Greenlaw of Levittown, Pennsylvania as their president. A wonderful choice.

As previously stated, these officers will hold office for one year and be comprised of members from all over the Eastern Pennsylvania area. We must work closely with this new chapter and I urge all NHPA members to please do their utmost to assist in every way possible. One can readily see that the W. P. H. A. and the E. P. H. A. would be in a fine position to run some good tournaments. They have many fine enthusiastic new members, plus a good group of juniors, that could round out a healthy program of horseshoe pitching. I know that all the fine people that love this sport of ours will cooperate. Our thanks to the Greenlaw's for opening their home to the NHPA officials. Their hospitality enabled your director to sit down and talk to the officials and explain to them the workings of the NHPA.

At this time we selected a beautiful layout of courts for the E. P. H. A., 24 to be exact, and in the near future they will submit a bid for the World Tournament. We are happy to welcome all the new members in the NHPA.

Ladies and gentlemen, I urge you to please subscribe to the Horseshoe Digest so that you can keep right on top of all the horseshoe news and especially be able to plan your weekend better.

Contact your state secretary and let him renew your subscription to the Horseshoe Digest.

Mr. Robert Pence, our secretary-treasurer, was also able to attend the meeting at Levittown, Pennsylvania. I can always count on his support. Bob gave a wonderful talk on the formation of this new chapter and I wish to thank him publicly for all his help. Bob was going to Middlesex, New Jersey from there which just goes to show you that your officers of the NHPA are constantly striving to strengthen and encourage our sport.

As your National Director I ask you to set your standards high, establish your goals and work towards achieving same. To all the members of the Eastern and Western Pennsylvania Horseshoe Associations I wish you the best in horseshoes for 1972. Call on me anytime for assistance and Good Luck.

South Gate — Southern CaliforniaCHAMPIONSHIP DOUBLES

Southern California wanted to try another kind of doubles tournament that would give the pitchers a chance to select a partner of their choice. The only regulations we put down was how high the total percentage could be for each class. The percentage was set for 'A' at 115%, 'B' at 85%, and 'C' at 60%. Example, if a 70% pitcher selected a 45% pitcher, he could enter in Class A. If he wished, he could select a 15% pitcher and enter in Class B, and etc.

Platte Valley (Nebr.) Horseshoe League Open Winter Singles Tournament

An open tournament will be held during the month of January, a different class on each of the five Sundays of the month. The League officers expect a 100 percent turnout of the Winter League horseshoe pitchers. Funds derived from this tournament will go directly back into prizes and building expenses only. Below is a tentative class listing set up fairly according to past performances. Anyone may contest his classification for this tournament by turning in a scoresheet for 100 shoes before midnight, January 31. Of course, additional entries in each class will be posted as they come in.

Entry fee for Winter League members is $1.50 and must be turned into your respective team captain. There will be three trophies given in each class.

This is, of course, an open tournament. Any Platte Valley League member not participating in the Winter League must pay an entry fee of $6.50. This will also entitle him to full use of the building for the balance of the season as an Associate Member.

Any individual not a member of the Platte Valley League must pay an entry fee of $9.00. This fee will give him full membership in the Platte Valley League and full use of the building for the balance of the season as an Associate Member.

Sam Jensen Repeats As No. Calif. Class "A" Champion

Seaside's Sam Jensen proved to be Mr. Tough once again and parlayed 6 wins in 7 starts to wrap up another tourney win and the Class A Championship for the second straight year. Sam's only loss came at the hands of his nemesis, Bud Lathe, but this time the trophy was already in the bag and the loss didn't affect the tourney outcome. Tal Turner of the Santa Clara County Club returned to action and flashed some of the old time brilliance by coming in second, losing only two games. Al Crabtree, currently one of the hottest pitchers in Northern California, chalked up the second highest ringer percentage, 58.5% and came in third. Al also had the high percentage game of the tourney; 71.7%. The group II laurels went to Marvin Haaland of Oakland's Mosswood Club as he rang up a perfect 6 and 0 record on the excellent clay at the Arroyo Viejo courts.

Noble-Stevenson Win Day-Bell Doubles, Dayton, Ky.

Jimmy Noble of Louisville, Ky. and John Stevenson of Louisville, Ky., found themselves winning the Day-Bell Doubles after defeating Bill Henn, Bellevue, Ky. and Chick Henn, Covington, Ky., in a play-off game to decide the winner.

This first attempt to hold a double tournament at Day-Bell was not as successful as we had hoped, but still surprising as what was thought to be the weakest team came out on top and what was thought to be the strongest team, came in last in Class A. (But that's the wonderful game of horseshoes).

CLASS A — Noble-Stevenson, 4-2; Henn-Henn, 4-2; Lovelace-Reynolds, 3-3; Manker-Johnson, 1-5.

New Jersey Institutes State Hall of Fame

New Jersey has instituted a Hall of Fame. The presentation and induction ceremony took place at our annual State dinner. The following presentation speech was made by our moderator, Art Scalari:

"Success and achievement has never meant to me a large bank account or a lot of ringers. It's something more than that; it's your relationship to your fellow man, how you play the game — how you encourage others to learn, love and live.

And, when you set up that kind of live equation — and, when your Hall of Fame Committee sought "The Horseshoe Man" of this State to honor as the first inductee to it's "Hall of Fame", they did not seek nor did they select

"the first State Champion nor

"the winner of more State Championships than anyone else nor

"the youngest champion, nor

"the record holder for highest game, or highest tournament average"

But, they sought that man who for forty years was equally at ease with a shoe, or a spade, or a pitch and a pencil —

That man who formed, nurtured and pitched in the horseshoe leagues of the thirties —

That man who kept the game alive and vital during the war years of the forties —

That man who picked up the loose ends and promoted the game in the state back to health and expansion in the fifties, and —

That man, who with so many of you in this room, worked so hard in the sixties to expand the game on the State level, culminating with your 1971 World Championship at Middlesex —

That man who built, or caused to be built, more horseshoe courts in the State than any one or group of men —

That man who spent more hours with beginners than all of us put together, teaching, talking and encouraging —

That man who enjoyed the right blend of strength and kindness and used it to his personal hardship and to the benefit of the horseshoe community of this State —

That man who helped me personally to grow into manhood, and whose kindness, guidance and attention to the youth of this State in the thirties and forties, is an immeasurable factor, and whose influence is incalculable.

There are now, and there have been in the past, so many of us in the last forty years who have, and still can, whomp him on the courts — but your Committee was hard pressed to find anyone in the State who did not pale in his shadow.

He has cast in his lifetime, his shadow across the game in this state that will be long remembered and hopefully, never forgotten.

It is for these many reasons expressed, and so many more that time does not permit recounting or relating, that your Hall of Fame Committee has chosen to honor as their first and only inductee for this year, our dear friend:

PAUL PUGLISE

Tonight, the N.J.S.H.P.A. officially opens its doors to its "Hall of Fame", and I've been privileged and honored by your Hall of Fame Committee to make the opening address and first induction.

"Let me first introduce to you the members of the Hall of Fame Committee:

Phil Zozzaro — your Association President for the last three years.

Harry Schmidt — the veteran Jersey City flash, who feels that the more horseshoes you throw, the greater are your chances of making a ringer.

Bill Kolb — a stellar performer in and out of the State for almost forty years, the recent winner of the Class D World Championship, and Doc Berman — another stellar performer for the last thirty years, and the best horseshoe pitching pediatrician in the world.

Your committee advises me that the concept and philosophy of nomination and election to the "Hall of Fame" is not, and will not be, to merely honor excellence in performances, but also dedication and contribution to the game, not just in pitching, but also in pitching-in."

We are proud of our Paul Puglise, and would appreciate the use of your magazine to further herald his achievements, and perhaps inspire others to strive to equal his accomplishments.

Tubbs-Cloutier Can-Am Champions

The NE-OS-CO Horseshoe Club of New York was host to the Arnprior Horseshoe League of Ontario, Canada for the third annual meeting. The event was held at the Dubar horseshoe courts with about 60 people making up the horseshoe pitchers and spectators.

The main contest of the day was a 12 team, eight game round robin for an unsanctioned Can-Am championship. Each team had one NE-OS-CO member representing America and one Arnprior member representing Canada. Winners were determined from the eight game total score, instead of a win-loss record.

However, players didn't know until the start of the last game that they were pitching for a predetermined blind score with the closest team score being the winner. This didn't seem to phase Don Tubbs (NE-OS-CO) and partner Ray Cloutier (Arnprior) as they finished within one point of the blind score. Hal McDougal and partner Edgar Lapierre pitched great shoes throughout the tournament. Bill Reid with his Canadian partner, John Okum, had a good day going 52 points over the blind score. Late in the afternoon there was a mass migration to the American Legion Hall, where Rex and the "lady pitchers" had a meal ready fit for a king (or a tired but happy horseshoe pitcher).

The PHA In Action

by Roger Vogel

There will be a PHA Tournament in Naples, Florida on January 22 and 23. First place will pay $1,100.

Dan and Sue Kuchcinski are working very hard to set up additional tournaments in Florida during January and February. Horseshoe pitching is gaining a new perspective due to their efforts.

Maritime Provinces Organize

Organized and competitive horseshoe is new in the Canadian Maritime Provinces of New Brunswick, Newfoundland, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, but they are now organized and the first Maritime Provincial Horseshoe Tournament has been held.

The organization started seven years ago when Charles Dupius of St. John, New Brunswick gathered eight players together. During the past few years the NHPA has received numerous requests from the area for information about the game.

Last November a meeting was held in St. John for all players in the Maritime Provinces and they were shown an NHPA World Tournament film.

Charles Dupius of St. John is president of the new association and Leo Porter of St. John is secretary-treasurer.

The group has been officially recognized by the New Brunswick Federation of Sports, Physical Education and Recreation and thus became eligible for financial support from the government. Bob Bell of Moncton and Roy Vessey of Sackville have been appointed to the Board of Directors and in the near future other board members will be selected from Nova Scotia, Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island.

Prince Edward Island players already have a meeting set up at which the NHPA World Tournament film will be shown.

Charles Dupius has been appointed NHPA representative in the Maritime Provinces, thereby uniting the group with NHPA officially.

The first annual Maritime Horseshoe Championships were held last September at Centennial Park in Moncton, New Brunswick.
