New Horseshoe Courts In Reno-Sparks, Nevada Area

In the latter part of 1971, plans were in the beginning stage for eighteen permanent clay courts in the Reno-Sparks area. This is in addition to the eight clay courts located at Anderson Indian Park in Reno, Nevada.

With newly elected President of Nevada State, Carey Weaver and the co-operation of the Sparks Park and Recreation Department, land was allotted to the Horseshoe Club at Stempeck Adult Park, which is located on 18th street in Sparks, Nevada.

The local horseshoe clubs donated money and they also held a Spaghetti feed which brought in additional money, and on Saturday, November 11, 1972 work was begun on nine courts. Some of the material was donated and several of the players showed their true horseshoe spirit and gave up their days off to work in the rain. A hot lunch and plenty of coffee, donated by the wives of the workers, kept them going all day.

The nine courts are just a start, and by early spring, nine more pits will be ready for the Nevada State Open Horseshoe Tournament, which will be held May 26th and 27th, 1973. League play will also be held at the new courts according to the President of State.

Congratulations are in order to all that participated in making these new courts a reality.

1973 No. American Plant City Open Won By Elmer Hohl At Plant City, Florida — January 4, 5 and 6

Elmer Hohl, the World Champion, subdued all comers with ease in the 1973 North American Open held at Plant City, Florida fairgrounds on January 4, 5 and 6th. Forty-four pitchers took part during three days of summer-like weather. Qualifying rounds were pitched in groups of six, playing a round robin match of 50 shoes per game. The Greater East Hillsborough Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the event, called this a tremendous success and it is hoped that it will be an annual affair in the future. Cash prizes and trophies were awarded in all classes with the winner receiving $600.00, 2nd prize $250.00 and 3rd prize $150.00. Lights were installed for this tournament and the local club is looking forward to future night pitching events. Eleven states and Canada were represented and good crowds were on hand all days.

Your Director Reports . . .

By Peter Shepard

Congratulations to Ed Domey of Sutton, Mass. who won the New Year's Open at the Heritage Recreation Center in Sutton, Mass. Our local color is ever present at our side and we are indeed proud to pass the news on to our many readers. We were so pleased to see Schultz and Smith from Long Island, N. Y. and sincerely hope there will be many more horseshoe pitchers coming to our February Tournament.

We have just recently added a new look to the NHPA Material and Supplies division which we are certain is going to be very much in demand. I speak of our new neckties with the NHPA emblem beautifully displayed, which may be purchased through the Heritage Recreation Center, Sutton, Mass. We are considering many new items which will soon be available to all.

Your director will be leaving soon to attend the tournaments in South Africa. My going there will show the Jukskei Players of South Africa that the NHPA is indeed an organization that stands by its word. While there I shall extend to them the invitation to be present at our World Tournament in Eureka and also to plan for their visit in "1974" to the World Horseshoe Tournament which will take place that year in New England at Keene, New Hampshire. Since they will be coming from such a long distance, we the members of the NHPA, want to be certain that everything will be Class A for them.

Complaints are still coming in to me regarding the delivery of the Horseshoe Digest. Again let me say, for the additional fee of $1.00 the Digest will be delivered at the first class rate which is much quicker. Be sure to advise the Editor when you are vacationing and you wish a change of address to go through. We are always trying to give our subscribers efficient delivery schedules but we also require your cooperation.

The New England Summer Tournament schedule is complete and you will receive it very shortly. Again this year we will be sending our New England Junior Champion, as well as our New England Men's champion, to the World Tournament.

We of New England have a lot to do this coming year as we approach the year 1974 and the World Tournament draws nearer by the month. We want the best for New England and the NHPA.

Art Tyson Winner Of Long Island, New York Open

On a brisk fall day in October, 1972, Art Tyson won the Long Island Open, defeating Joe Schultz 30-21 in the final game. In this tourney any player who wished, was allowed to compete in Class A. Interestingly, several Class B pitchers opted to play in the top class and said they enjoyed the experience. As a result of the large field, games were shortened to 30 points and the "Berman" system was used. In short, after the round-robin, the top three players in Group I played the top three players in Group II. All games played earlier counted in the won and lost column. In this way the tournament was completed in one afternoon. Unfortunately, Roger Pilla, who made the finals, had to drop out because of illness. Ninety dollars in cash prizes were distributed among the six finalists — first prize was thirty dollars with twenty-five dollars for the runner-up!

In Class B Jerry Bragg nosed out Ted Piekarski Sr. 52-49 in the playoff game. The Class C winner was Henry Gebhardt; Henry subdued Mark Apostolico 51-42, also a play-off encounter. Percentages were down because the temperature was below 55° all day.

Bill Thomas (Golden Ghost) Captures Tri-State — Colo.

Bill Thomas, the winner and spook from Golden, Colorado, unleashed his black bag of ingenious ringer tricks and pulled the curtains on his opponents.

The annual Tri-State tournament, held in Laramie, Wyoming, August 19-20 for the second time, attracted a record 60 pitchers this year. The mosquitoes were gone, the air cool and the skies clear, that is, most of the time it wasn't raining. Jackets shielded some from the chill the first day and a comment by a shivering spectator was heard to the effect it was senseless for the keeper of the pits to wet them for surely there would be ice on them the following day. It was beautiful the second day, no ice, no rain and the pitchers were in prime spirits in more ways than one.

Two outstanding pitchers in the nation participated in the rarest of air tournaments. Roger Vogel captured the attention of the spectators with a 83.9% ringer percentage game. Dead-eye Ted Allen put the crush on all of his opponents and scored the second highest overall percentage of ringers during the two day event.

In numbers, Colorado pitchers dominated the tournament and by sheer mass action they packed the greatest share of the trophies to the colorful state.

1973 Hall Of Fame News

By BERNARD HERFURTH, Chairman

The N.H.P.A Hall of Fame Committee, under the chairmanship of Bernard Herfurth, plans an active 1973.

First on its agenda, plans are being discussed for the advisability of inducting all "old timers" from the 1920 to 1945 era, who are deserving, into the Hall of Fame at the 1973 meet at Eureka, Calif. This will give future committees the privilege of nominating present day members, and honoring them while they are still with us to enjoy it.

Second, a drive will be made to get "histories" of players and promoters of the game, who the membership believe are entitled to a niche in the Hall of Fame. A large list of histories will help future committees to nominate their choices.

Third, is the future possibility of electing "junior" and "misses" into the Hall of Fame. The chairman believes there are good reasons for this thinking.

Fourth, plans are underway to put together a large "scrapbook" of the members that are and will be inducted into the "Hall" in the future. This book will be available for public display, with pictures and records.

Fifth, preliminary discussions towards the future possibility of having a "Hall of Fame Shrine" erected at the Greenville, Ohio, city park. The park superintendent seemed very interested at the 1972 world meet. This probably won't happen in the near future. The chairman will discuss new activities via mail with his committee.

The entire membership of the N.H.P.A. is requested to send suggestions pertaining to the Hall of Fame. Send all suggestions to Bernard Herfurth, 17 Fort Street, Northampton, Mass. (01060). All suggestions will be presented to the committee.

Schneider Tops John Gordon Open — Southern Calif.

Another fine performance by Jerry Schneider enabled him to win the John Gordon open, the last tournament of the year for S.C.H.P.A. Averaging 79.3 he won all eight games. Jim Weeks of Norwalk captured second place and his good performance showed a return to the good form he once displayed.

We have all heard the old saying "Never too old to learn," and so it is with Sam Haigh. Sam is a horseshoe pitcher from Loma Linda, Calif. and a member of the S.C.H.P.A. Sam is 82 years old.

He won his first trophy at the age of 74 and from that time has collected 36 of them. Sam plays a complete tournament, drives his own car, and does everything men do who are many years his junior.

So let us say "hats off" to a man who is made of "sterner stuff," Sam Haigh.
