Longtime Players, Promoter Inducted Into Horseshoe Hall Of Fame

Longtime player Dale Dixon of Des Moines, Iowa, who had to miss this year's events here in Eureka because of illness, was inducted into the Horseshoe Pitcher's Hall of Fame at a banquet-business meeting of the National Horseshoe Pitcher's Association at the Eureka Inn. Inducted along with Dixon was Frank Stinson of Minneapolis, who is among Inducted along with Dixon was Frank Stinson of Minneapolis, who is among the leading 36 pitchers in the Men's finals out at Redwood Acres. Stinson, who was a World Junior Boy's Champ way back in 1924, has been among the final top 36 for the past thirty years. The third inductee into the Hall of Fame was Ralph Dykes, past president of the NHPA and a leading promoter of the game. The Horseshoe Pitcher's Hall of Fame, an elaborate plaque, is always displayed at the World Horseshoe Pitching Championships.

at the World Horseshoe Pitching Championships. In other business conducted by the NHPA, Wally Shipley of Alhambra, Calif., was elected to a two year term as incoming President and the site of the 1975 World Championship tournament was set for Lafayette, Indiana. Their bid was $8,000.00.

Charles Karult Visits The World Tournament

As many of you know, Charles Karult, CBS newsman whose "On The Road" spots on the Walter Cronkite National News are popular items from coast to coast, was in town filming the World Championships for his show. In response to many queries, there is no fixed date for telecast as yet. Just keep watching the CBS national news and sooner or later, you may very well see yourself right there on the wide screen.

Ray Miller Takes Senior Crown In Three-Way Playoff

Defending Senior Champ, Ray Miller, 70, of Springfield, Ohio, successfully retained his title Thursday afternoon. Miller, Abe Austin of Oak Park, III. and Henry Franke, another Illinois pitcher, wound up in a three-way tie, necessitating a play-off. In taking the title, Miller pitched a 62% ringer average. Austin, the former Intermediate Champ, came in with 60% and Henry Franke trailed at 57.1%. Lee Jacobs of Belleville, Michigan won all of his games to take the Class B crown.

Oregon's Bob West Tops World Tourney Qualifiers

Oregon State Champ Bob West of Scappoose paced the men's qualifying rounds. West electrified the crowd Sunday evening when he came in with a torrid 566 — only 6 points short of World Champion Elmer Hohl's record. Right behind West was Red Henton of Maquoketa, Iowa at 540 and Merlin Potts, Leonardville, Kansas, in 3rd with 535.

Ralph Randall New Champ Of World Intermediates

When former Intermediate titleholder Abe Austin of Illinois outgrew the limitations of his class (60-65), a new champ was in the offing. At the close of play Ralph Randall had 6 wins and 1 loss with a 72.4% ringer average, winning the Intermediate crown. He was followed by Art Kammon of Mesa, Arizona at 5 and 2 with a 70% ringer average. Art Holter of Crystal, Minn. took third.

Class B honors went to Floyd Plumb of Ohio with Ted Zwickl of Oregon, capturing Class C.

"Deadeye" Upset — Brother Jeffrey Takes It All

"Deadeye" Walter Ray Williams Jr., World Junior Boy's Champ in 1971 and 1972, was upset at the World Horseshoe Pitching Championships by younger brother Jeffrey, age 12, who swept all seven of his games with an 85% ringer average to take the 1973 title.

"Deadeye," playing with a broken little finger on his pitching hand, still managed to shoot a fair 78.4% ringer average, but it was good enough only for a fourth place finish.

Final results in the Junior Boy's put Jeffrey Williams of Eureka on top with Alvin Vinsant of Fieldbrook, who took five out of his seven games with an 82% taking second. Dale Schaeffers, a newcomer from Calahoo, Alberta, Canada, took third spot, winning five games while losing two with a 75%. "Deadeye" wound up in fourth place, followed by another Canadian, Glen Fisher of Moundville, Alberta (3 and 4). Mike Stout of Melrose Park, Ill. (2 and 5); Glen Walker, Cumberland, Wash. (2 and 5) and Sam Woodman, Spokane, Wash. (0 and 7), rounded out the top eight.

In his bid for the final Big Eight, Jeffrey Williams came up with a scorching 140 out of a possible 150 total, thereby equaling "Deadeye's" record breaking qualifying round, run up during the 1971 Championships.

Boy's Class B went to Ken Frazer of San Francisco, who came in 5 and 1 in a play-off match. Class C went to Roy Statham of Plymouth, Calif.

Ruth Hangen Takes Fourth Women's Crown In Row

As predicted, defending champion Ruth Hangen of Getzville, N. Y. and her Upper New York State pitching partner, Lorraine Thomas of Rockport, went right down to the wire for the women's crown last evening with Ms. Hangen outlasting Ms. Thomas 50 to 39 to take her fourth title in a row. Third place went to Opal Reno, Lucasville, Ohio, who took five games while losing a pair.

Rounding out the Women's Top 8 were Vicki Winston, La Monte, Mo. (4 and 3); Bonnie Siebold, Huntington, Ind. (3 and 4); Leona Anderson of Eureka (2 and 5); Esther Williams of Eureka (1 and 6) and Jennifer Reno, Lucasville, Ohio (0 and 7).

Women's Class B went to Debbie Woodman of Spokane at 5 and 0. Women's Class C was taken by Mildred Kuhne of Tacoma.

The Lights Went Out In Eureka

By Stewart M. Snyder 225 Preston Drive Cloverdale, California 95425

When lights went out in Eureka on the evening of August 3, 1973, the clanging sound of horseshoes stopped as abruptly as the ending of a cricket serenade on a hot summer night. The second and third games of the second evening round of championship play were under way at the World Horseshoe Pitching Tournament in the Little Cow Palace at Redwood Acres in Eureka, California.

Tempo of the games was being set as pitchers were settling into a long, strenuous grind that evinced the competitiveness of games that lay ahead. All seemed well on the way to another great tournament and then — the lights went out. Some 900 spectators and players were left suddenly aghast in a darkened arena. The sharp percussive noise of horseshoes gave way to the murmur of excited voices. A calm announcement on the intercom gave assurance that lights surely would be back within minutes. All exits were flung open and the gray light of dusk shone through to mark the way out. An orderly evacuation of the arena was accomplished without incident and the unhappy crowd drifted into a nearby lighted pavilion to await the return of lights to the pitching arena. Four-deads lay in darkness hugging cold iron stakes. Games had stopped on the last lighted pitch.

Lights were promised in one thirty-minute period after another and, as time went by participating pitchers met to decide the remaining play of the evening — if the lights returned. Agreement was to drop back to the last complete inning and pitch out the game that was in progress when darkness struck.

At 10 P. M. the blackout had continued for nearly two hours, and this called for another decision from the players — the third game would be finished when lights come on and this would terminate the night's play. One of the remaining three unplayed games would be pitched on each of the ensuing three nights, thus bringing the tournament up to schedule going into the final round on Tuesday.

The pavilion, wired on a different electrical circuit from the arena, substituted for restaurant and entertainment center and both the spectators and horseshoe pitchers, like moths, were attracted to its bright lights. Inside, lights alone was not the attraction, for "Red" Henton with a half-dozen percussion instruments at his command and in excellent voice, joined by his talented wife at the organ, spelled the anxious crowd with lively, gay music that soothed the wound of waiting.

Cavin Of Missouri Top Man In Southwest Iowa Open

Among the many pitchers from three states that turned out for the annual Southwest Iowa Open, Ray Cavin of Missouri turned in a perfect record of 5 wins to win the annual event played at McKinley Park in Creston, Iowa. High single game percentage of 61.6% went to Earl Kaiser of Iowa who also was the runner-up. Jim Draper won the junior title by ringer percentage.

Information Concerning Winter Pitching At

Rush Indoor Courts:

Leagues will start October 1 with the first tournament October 13-14. Open pitching will be on Saturdays from 6:30 P.M. until 10:30 P.M. and Sundays from 1:30 P.M. until 8:30 P.M. beginning October 6-7, except for tournament weekends.

If we have a full tournament it is possible we might have a couple of the lower classes on Friday evening as we did last season. We had ten or twelve women who pitched in the tournaments last season. We hope they will come back and possibly some others, too.

Even if a tournament is full we will always make room for one class of juniors. They may have to take their turn to get into a tournament.

Entry fee is $6.00 for men, $5.00 for women, and no entry fee for juniors.

At the last tournament in April cash awards of $50.00 for men and $50.00 for women will be given by Rush Indoor Courts for the highest single game. ringer percentage, pitched in the eight tournaments. Anyone pitching a perfect game of 50 ringers will receive $125.00. This excludes juniors.

All tournaments will be 50-shoe cancellation. We have had several favorable comments on the 50-shoe cancellation game.

The courts will be painted and ready to go for the winter season.

I want to thank everyone who pitched at my courts and hope they will return this season. Most pitchers have enjoyed themselves and we intend to keep running them with a friendly atmosphere.

Our second annual open house will be Saturday evening, September 29 from 6:00 P.M. until 10:00 P.M. and Sunday, September 30 from 1:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M. Cokes are on the house and open pitching will be half price.

Clyde Martz Wins Nemacolin, Pennsylvania Invitational

On July 15 the village of Nemacolin, Pennsylvania hosted its second annual invitational horseshoe tournament. The significance of the event is that it represents the highlight of the town recreational park activity, and as a result, is witnessed by several hundred people. In addition, the event was also broadcast over a local radio station "round by round." Everyone has a good time lots of food, drink, conversation, and genuine fellowship. This year saw Clyde Martz win the tournament by defeating everyone but Jim Solomon. Hats off to Matthew Voithoffer, for not only organizing a successful tournament, but for his work in promoting recreational activities of all kinds in Nemacolin.

Rain date, September 30.

In Memoriam

The Connecticut Horseshoe Pitcher's Association was saddened and lost a great sportsman when Sherman Green passed away the early part of July "Sherm" won many titles in the New England States. He won the Connecticut State Championship several times and also the New England Championship. He also participated in the world's horseshoe pitching tournament.

To his bereaved wife and family, the sincere sympathy of the Connecticut H.P.A. and N.H.P.A. is extended in their loss of a dear one.

South Gate — Southern California

WEEKS 560 HANDICAP

Having the first money handicap tournament in the Southern California association. $200.00 for first place; $100.00 for second place and $50.00 for third place. Payoff went to the top 12 pitchers, with a total of $560.00 prize fund. All games were 50 shoes, points breaking ties. Pitching one of his best tournaments in years, Jim Weeks came out on top with Ronnie Simmons a strong second, and third place went to one of our new pitchers, Arnie Mortenson of Glendale. The association hopes to make this one of the best money tournaments in Southern California.

Dormont, Penna. Open Won By Albert Zadroga

Albert Zadroga continued his most consistent pitching of his career. After 116 shoes, Al defeated Clyde Martz in the final round to win the tournament. The game saw eight consecutive four deads at the end prior to the final and deciding frame, and all of this done in high winds and rain. Averages in the event were unusually low due to the elements. Charles Semans went undefeated in Class B, and Class C was also won without losing a game by Joseph Wohar. Class D was won by Cy Enders by defeating Frank Giampa in a sudden death playoff.
