The Open Men's World Championship Class was none short of amazing! Once again, Alan Francis, OH, would walk away with the world title. The only one running points on him was in round three, Mr. Don Davis, WA, scored the highest of 16 points. All but three other games opponents were held to less than 9. Alan is none short of amazing. The last day of competition he averaged over 90%. Will anyone be able to beat him?

Dan Watson, AL, sure gave another great showing as the runner-up for this year. Losing two games. Gary Bearpaw, OK, found himself in a top three finish once again. Matt Fuller, WA, was third in 2017, had a bad year in 2018, but came back this year to tie for third however end up in 4th place. The "Greene Machine" from VT, gave a great showing however slacked off early on losing some what should have been easy games for Mr. Greene. Placing 5th however was not a bad showing for Greene. The slinger, Stan Griggs, MO, had a slow start to the championships and then found a nice pace to hit cruise. However, coming out with 6 losses placing him in 6th place. Austin Bailey, IL, seemed to have struggled all world tournament. His average going in to be over 70% however, he seemed to start out okay, then hit a strong streak.

Not winning games but giving a good run for the title. Mr. Terry Hudson, NC, would come out of qualifying A2 class. He would have a good showing on day one of championships beating out Williams and Griggs early on, however on day two, by the hands of Francis, Hudson found himself on the short end of things. Ken "Lucky" Heinritz, WI, would squeak into the championships by the luck of his ringers. He definitely came out to proof just because he squeaked in, it is a new game in 40 points.

Beating out Griggs, in a tough fought battle. Tom Williams, MI, would win games, however, he would be on the lower end of the percentage spectrum. Williams was a top gun coming and still is, however, his performance landed him in the bottom of the championships. Don't count Tom out though as he will still be a force as the years progress.

Rick Howe, MA, David Rioux, CT, and Todd Liles, OR, would also come from qualifying A2 class. They would place 11th, 12th, and 13th respectively. All three having games in the 70s. Look for them to continue their success in coming world tournaments.

Don Davis, WA, scored the most on Francis, however we find him finishing in the 14th spot. Don is always slow and steady to the championship rounds, picking up those wins whenever he feels the need to shoot 70s. Don has progressively made the championships each year and continues to establish himself.
Finishing 15th and 16th were Joshua Olson, MN, and Jeff Finke, TX. Both first timers in the Sixteen of the top women pitchers took to the courts to compete for the title of Women's World Champion – and what an exciting three days it was.

Penny Steinke set the bar high her first game against Amy Francis with 23 ringers out of 24 shoes for a 95.83% game – the high for the entire tournament.

Lindsay Hodgins, Joan Elmore, Max Griffith, Doris Hieden and Shalee Cason each had a game in the 90% bracket – incredible pitching. Aleena Lepak and Theresa Howe started their first game with lots of 4 deads. After 92 shoes, Teresa had 72 ringers and Aleena had 74, it gave Aleena the win. Other close games were Doris Hieden outscoring Theresa Howe 41/39; Debra Odum and Penny Steinke 42/39; and Kelly Campbell over Denise Daly 43/39. Day one found Marlene Ray, Lindsey Hodgins and Joan Elmore undefeated.

Day two Karen Graham gave Lindsey her first loss at 40/37; Doris Hieden won over Marlene 40/16 and Max won all her games which set those three with 9 wins and 1 loss each. It was hard to concentrate on just one game as all were pitching so well.

Day three – the final countdown! Melanie Zerr had a close game loosing to Denise Daly 36/41 and Cindy Hoffman finished her day with all 5 wins. But the nail biting started when Marlene beat Lindsay and then Joan beat Marlene in the last game which brought about a playoff with Marlene and Lindsay.

Lindsay Hodgins (her first time in the women's division) seemed so at ease and just continued her consistent pitching and captured the title of 2019 Women's World Champion.

It is so inspiring to watch all 16 of these ladies – each one is a champion. Special congratulations to Lindsay from British Columbia, Canada as the 2019 Women's World Champion.

(Just a side note – the Cooks will be given the grandparents of the year award!)

The Senior Men's Championship class was none short of amazing. This year it would hold true that James Dunlap, MI, would get his first World Title. James would get one loss, but it was not a game defeat, he forgot to set his alarm and had to forfeit game 7! However, he would prevail and still win this world title!

Virgle McCown, MO, would go 5-0 on day two securing a second-place finish. McCown was the 11th seed and came in 2nd. Just proof that seed is just a number. His best finish to date!

Gary Roberts, OH, defending champion, would come up short this year, seeming to struggle just a bit during competition. However, never count him out, look for a nice bounce back next year in Louisiana.

Raymond Bedard, MA, would come up short as well, a former world champion, Bedard would seemingly struggle as well. Larry McAfee, MO, had another great year, coming in third this time. The "Shoe Me State" was well represented in this class, taking home big bucks! Roy Buhler, UT; Ken Jones, NM; David Mallory, OK; Jacob Fimbres, AZ; Eddie Montoya, CA; Gary Currier, ME; and Paul Bachelor, MI; would also be in the championship finals class.

The "no-step" of Jacob Fimbres would not work out well in the championships. In preliminary play, Fimbres was looking good, but came up short in the finals.

Ken Jones, would start out with a 68% game and had the highest game after round one, would turn heads. Ken is the RD of NM and would come out to prove that you can help at world and pitch great!

Roy Buhler would hit a 70%+ game and really surprise everyone. He was letting us know, never count out Buhler in the finals. He was sure proving that he has what it takes to come back and try to win a world title.

Paul Bachelor, MI, would really struggle during the championship finals. Bachelor would have a good prelim tournament and set himself up to make a title run. Bachelor did that back in 2014, however, this year he as well would fall to the hands of the bad games. However, Bachelor, is looking to come back strong in Louisiana.

Eddie Montoya, CA, would luck out making the championship cut. He would be the second alternate. Vern Kollasch, IA, opted out of playing in the championships. Denny Wilson, PA, would have the first spot, however, Denny was not at the announcements and would not respond to phone calls, and Montoya would wait around till until it was called that he would make the 12th cut spot. Montoya would have first game jitters against Dunlap, but he settled down and won two games! Look for Montoya to make a run in 2020. He said "I will make the cut next year and not be an alternate!"

Gary Currier, ME, would have a high game at 67% but every game seemed to be over 50%. However, those games would not hold up to competition. These 12 men put on a great show.

The 2019 World Tournament is now over and entered in the books. Eight women took the courts to compete for the Title of Senior Women's Champion. Each one was already a big winner in qualifying for the championship round.

Sheila Shepard started out strong with her high game of the tournament pitching 85% against Julia Charlton. An exciting 84 shoe game found Terry Beagle and Sheila Shepard battling for a win – final score was 38 to 41 with Sheila emerging the winner. Day one found San Juanita Murray and Sheila at the top of the leader board undefeated, with Sharon Chiddister close behind with one loss.

Day two started off with another nail biter as San Juanita and Sheila pitched. San Juanita ended with the win of 42/35. Barbara Taylor also had a close game with San Juanita who won 42/34. Still sitting undefeated, San Juanita's last game against Sharon Chiddister ended in her first loss 17/45 which set up a playoff game with Sheila.

Terry Beagle and Sharon Chissister each had a 5 & 2 record, Barb Taylor, Helen Laumbach and Linda Aurell each ended with 2 & 5 and Julia Charlton with 0 & 5. The playoff game went 56 shoes with Sheila emerging as the 2019 Senior Women's World Champion.

A huge shoutout to each one who participated and Top Honor congrats to Sheila Shepard.

The Championship 30ft. men group was no short of amazing. This group was a shock from the start. The winner was undetermined from the start. In preliminary action, pitchers from all classes were looking move up. However, as the world tournament goes, players made the rounds and we finally got the top 16 cut.

These gentlemen sure put on quite the show for the spectators. From the start it was unknown who the winner would be. Mike Massari would come out strong with a 90% game in round 1. The tournament leader Marcus Rice would lose game one. Russ Phillips would lose game one. Schaver would have an 82% in round one. Fourman was not out done in a losing effort to Ellison had a 73% in round one. The bottom half of the class came out pitching in the beginning of the tournament. As the tournament continued, Jim Ellison and Marcus Rice would battle the whole tournament for #1 and #2. James Cooper would come on a hot streak to win six games in a row and he would make a move to the top of the pack. This sure lead way for those wanting the prize money and a shot of the world title. David Holmes, 2018 champion, was not in attendance.

So, the world title was what everyone was looking for. JD Drake pitched an 80% game in round 8. Russ Phillips would hit an 83% in round 5. Ronald LeGrand would hit 80% in round 5. Larry Shaw poured a 78% in round 12. Zane Goggin would have an 86% in round 14. Jim Culver hit a 75 in round 6. Logsdon had an 81% in round 11. Vogel had an 84% in round 8. Knerem Sr. had a 73% in round 7. Zimmerman had a 72% in round 7.

At any given moment these gentlemen had great games. So, the title was unclear until the last game. Ellison would have to defeat Rice to force the playoff game. However, Rice could taste victory and poured on the heat in a 52-shoe match and win the 2019, Elders World Title.
Keeping the title in the Wonderful, Wild, West Virginia. The Blue Ridge Mountaineers keeping it alive once again.

Will West Virginia ever be caught? Next year in Monroe, Louisiana, look for these men and other to be "pitchin' on the Bayou." There is never a winner until everything is over. This year was an exciting match up for everyone. Looking forward to next year's being even more thrilling.

Congratulations to all gentlemen and look for them in Monroe 2020.

Winning Big in Texas

Forty-four Juniors and thirty Cadets participated in the 2019 World Horseshoe Pitching Tournament in Wichita Falls Texas this summer. Seventy-four of the best competitors in the World! For me, the Juniors and Cadets are the most exciting thing to watch at the World Tournament and they did not disappoint this year. The stands were full and the crowds were exciting as the first day of competition started. Many ringers were pitched with the anticipation of what the final day of class play would bring.

After some intense games and a few play offs, the results were in. Juniors class E was taken by Eli DeLaCruz, from Missouri, going ten and zero after a double round robin. Lily Strong from Georgia and Logan Ross from Oklahoma went head to head in a play off for Juniors D, with Strong coming out ahead. Ty Trevino from Texas won Juniors class C. Alex Francis from Ohio threw 8 percent over his entry average taking Juniors B. Seth Onan from Kentucky dominated Juniors A throwing 83.06%. From Minnesota, Brielle Schneider won Cadets C pitching 7 percent above her entry average. Pitching ten percent above his entry average, Zach Secord from Wisconsin won Cadets B. Cadet A had a three-way-tie for first. First round was Brady Fox from Missouri against Hastiin Begaye from California with Begaye winning and then competing against Riley Malino from Connecticut. After multiple four-dead. Hastiin won Cadet A.

The next day started Championship for the Cadets, Junior Boys, and Junior Girls. The stands were packed as these fierce competitors were announced and began their games. All three classes pitched first to 40 points with unlimited shoes. All champions went with no losses! Riley Malino from Connecticut became the first cadet to win back-to-back World titles and averaged 76.77%. From Wisconsin, Sarah Chafee won her first World title and set the record for the highest Junior Girls percent at a World tournament of 80.53%. Derek Reynolds from Arkansas was pure composure as he became the Junior Boys World Champion averaging 77.74%. After all was said and done, you couldn't wipe the smiles off of their faces.

Every year, these games get more intense as each competitor is reaching for that title. Congratulations to all the champions. I encourage everyone reading this article to witness the Juniors and Cadets at the World tournament. The atmosphere is indescribable and the emotions are high, but these pitchers are the best representation our sport has. Congrats again to all winners and I look forward to seeing you all again in Louisiana.
